

Ocean Pacific Industries	This firm is controlled by Canadian interests and produces latex gloves, primarily for export to North America.
Orextrac Philippines	R.T.C. Precious Metals has formed this local company to salvage gold and other precious metals from ball-mill residues.
R.A.A. Trading	Company engaged in trading and distribution of fertilizer, rice, corn and a variety of agricultural supplies and equipment.
Seaform Systems Asia Inc.	This small firm from British Columbia is involved in the rebuilding of dock piles and is pursuing a number of major dock rehabilitation projects.
Scott Consultants and Resource Dev.	Small consulting company headed by a Canadian geologist engaged in mining geology and mineral development. The company also represents Kenting Earth Sciences locally.
Solidbank	The Bank of Nova Scotia owns a minority share which was acquired through a debt-to-equity swap in 1987.
Solid City Inc.	Joint venture involving Keeprite assembling Canadian air-conditioners. The company has recently broken ground on a manufacturing facility which should be operational by late 1990.
Sun Life Insurance	Sun Life, wholly owned by Sun Life of Canada, is the third largest life insurance company in the Philippines. It was established in the 1880s, making it one of the oldest Canadian investments in Asia. In 1988, their regional office moved from Hong Kong to Manila.

B. Companies with Branch Sales Offices

Air Canada	Maintains a small office mainly to handle to air cargo.
Canadian Airlines International	Office focusing on passenger sales managed by a local agency, Columbia Philippines.
Kidd Enterprises	Resident Canadian controls this firm which represents a number of Canadian companies in the agricultural sector.
Lavalin International Inc.	Lavalin maintains a branch office to promote engineering services and manage ongoing projects in the Philippines.
Philcan Enterprises Inc.	Firm partly owned by a resident Canadian who acts as a marketing representative for a number of Canadian companies pursuing projects in the Philippines and with the ADB.
SR Telecom	SR recently established an office to market rural telephone equipment; completed a CIDA-funded project to provide telecommunications links to 17 towns in Bantangas Province (south of Manila); and completed a project to provide telephone services to resort hotels near Cebu.