

- (b) furnish information which is not obtainable under the legislation of that Party.

ARTICLE 3

Management

1. The program of mutual assistance shall be under the general direction of a Management Committee, whose function shall be to undertake an ongoing review of policy and procedures relating to the program. The Committee shall consist of four members, of which the competent institution and liaison agency of each Party shall designate two.
2. The Management Committee shall:
 - (a) be responsible for the co-ordination, and any modification, of the program of mutual assistance to be set out later in one or more Administrative Understandings. The Committee shall review the various timeframes for the performance of functions set out in the Understandings in order to ensure that these standards are met to the extent possible or to modify the timeframes where appropriate;
 - (b) be responsible for exchanging statistics and other information regarding workloads and other administrative matters associated with the program of mutual assistance. The content and form of the statistics and information to be exchanged shall be agreed upon by the Management Committee;
 - (c) meet, as required, to review progress and establish program guidance and priorities.

Article 4

Expenses

The competent institution and liaison agency of each Party shall furnish mutual assistance in accordance with Article II of this Protocol without charge. The Management Committee shall periodically review the expenses involved in furnishing assistance under this Protocol with a view toward balancing the costs incurred.

Article 5

Interpretation and Application

Notwithstanding Article XXV of the Agreement, any disagreement regarding the interpretation or application of this Protocol or its Administrative Understandings shall be resolved by the Management Committee.

Article 6

Duration and Termination of the Protocol

This Protocol shall remain in force for an indefinite period. Either Party may terminate it at any time by giving six months' notice in writing to the other Party.
