

Mr. Speaker, we have just heard the report of the Commission on Foreign Policy Review. It is a report that is long overdue and one that is long overdue in the eyes of the Canadian people. It is a report that is long overdue in the eyes of the Canadian people.

STATEMENT

First, the Commission's report is a landmark document. It is a report that is long overdue and one that is long overdue in the eyes of the Canadian people. It is a report that is long overdue in the eyes of the Canadian people.

94/11

AS DELIVERED

I want to point out that Canada has played a particularly prominent role in the UN. We have been an important part of the United Nations since 1945. We have been a part of the United Nations since 1945. We have been a part of the United Nations since 1945.

AN ADDRESS BY

THE HONOURABLE ANDRÉ OUELLET,

MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS,

TO THE

PARLIAMENTARY DEBATE

ON CANADA'S FOREIGN POLICY REVIEW

OTTAWA, Ontario
March 15, 1994