

Mr. Chevrier: What is the date of the report?

The Deputy Chairman: Shall vote 276 carry?

Mr. Chevrier: No.

Progress reported.

Resolutions adopted in committee of supply this day reported and concurred in.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Chevrier: May I ask the house leader what the business is for tomorrow?

Mr. Green: Tomorrow we shall continue with the estimates of the Department of Northern Affairs and National Resources; then take the estimates of the Department of Labour and the Department of Transport.

Mr. Pickersgill: Not fisheries?

Business of the House

Mr. Chevrier: No, transport. Can the minister say what we will do on Saturday and Monday?

Mr. Green: The other estimates which might be called on Saturday would be those of the Department of Mines and Technical Surveys, also health and welfare, and citizenship and immigration. On Monday, we intend to take legislation and that would be so also on Tuesday. On Monday, I expect to start with the first three items on today's order paper, which are under the Minister of Veterans Affairs. Then I think we would go on with the various resolutions preceding bills. I cannot say definitely in what order they would be called.

Mr. Chevrier: Definitely, we will not be taking the dumping legislation on Monday or Tuesday?

Mr. Green: No, not on Monday.

At ten o'clock the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.
