

	PAGE
Pacific Railway, with the utmost speed compatible with a due regard to the other financial requirements of the Dominion, and without unduly increasing the rate of taxation, and regrets that the course adopted by the Government, in connection with this matter, has not met the expectations of the people of British Columbia, nor has it been such as to facilitate the development of the North-west."—Hon. Mr. DICKEY.....	236
Debate again adjourned.....	256
NORTH-WEST TERRITORIES BILL—
Consideration in Committee	256
PRIVATE BILLS—Third Reading—Respecting the Clifton Suspension Bridge.—Second Reading—Respecting the Canadian Gas Lighting Company.....
	256
INSOLVENT BANKS BILL—
Third Reading.....	256
STAPLE ARTICLES BILL—
Third Reading	256
CROSSING NAVIGABLE WATERS BILL—
Third Reading.....	257
TRANSPORTATION OF CATTLE BY RAIL BILL—
Motion for Second Reading—Motion negatived.....	257
CHRISTIAN BROTHERS BILL—
Motion for concurrence in the amendments made by the Standing Committee—Hon. Mr. Bellerose.....	257
PRIVATE BILLS—Second Readings—Respecting the Mail Printing Company—Respecting the Commercial Travellers' Association—Respecting a Patent for the Welland Vale Manufacturing Company.....
	259
GOVERNMENT RAILWAY FREIGHTS.—Motion—
" For a return of traffic over Government railways in the Maritime Provinces for the quarter ending 31st December, 1875, distinguishing between that carried by special rates and that under regular tariff rates; also the average per ton per mile in each case."—Hon. Mr. McLELAN	259
Motion agreed to.....	264
THE WASHINGTON TREATY—Question, Hon. Mr. Botsford; Answer, Hon. Mr. Scott.....
	265
PACIFIC RAILWAY—Resumption of the debate on the motion of Hon. Mr. Carrall, and the amendment moved thereto by Hon. Mr. Haythorne, and the amendment to the amendment moved by Hon. Mr. Dickey—Hon. Mr. Kaulbach.....
	267
After long debate, the House divided, when the amendment to the amendment was carried—34 votes to 24.....	281