NATIONAL FLAG DESIGNS

NOTICE OF INQUIRY

Hon. Jean-François Pouliot: Mr. Speaker and honourable senators, I give notice of a question that I shall ask when the house meets again. I want to know the exact number of flags exhibited in Room 356-S of the Senate on Tuesday last. I might have two or three comments to make, but on account of the solemnity of this sitting I shall wait until the next one to make them.

ADJOURNMENT

Leave having been given to revert to the order for Notices of Motion:

Hon. John J. Connolly moved that when the Senate adjourns today it do stand adjourned until Tuesday, November 3, 1964, at eight o'clock in the evening.

He said: Honourable senators, although this motion is for an adjournment to a definite date, it may well be that the Senate will be recalled earlier. I am sure I speak for all honourable senators when I say that this motion will not in any way interfere with or delay progress of legislation through Parliament. If there is legislation ready for consideration at an earlier date—and this would include a bill for interim supply or any other bill—after consultation with His Honour the Speaker the Senate will be notified as to when it should reconvene.

Motion agreed to.
