

George, ludicrous result, 1.
 on of Indian aid, 1. 148.
 his troops, 1. 151.
 of precedence, 1. 152.
 or Boston, 1. 152.
 sent, 1. 153.
 sent order for clothes (note), 1.
 y, 1. 153.
 with Governor Shirley, 1. 153.
 ment in not being put upon the establishment, 1. 153.
 New York, 1. 154.
 Mary Philippe, 1. 155.
 n of her, 1. 155.
 Virginia, 1. 155.
 Winchester, 1. 156.
 s in dismay, 1. 157.
 o for protection, 1. 158.
 or Dinwiddie, 1. 158.
 y the press, 1. 158.
 ation, 1. 158.
 the plan of defence devised by
 or Dinwiddie, 1. 159.
 oed, 1. 159.
 aditions with respect to military 160.
 ids the measures taken for security, 1. 161.
 epection, 1. 161.
 lars, 1. 165.
 ooses with Governor Dinwiddie,
 eaker Robinson, 1. 167.
 ution to visit Philadelphia, 1.
 London in vindication of his con-169.
 ion by Lord London, 1. 170.
 at Winchester, 1. 171.
 standing with Dinwiddie, 1. 173.
 Dinwiddie, 1. 173.
 174.
 Mount Vernon, 1. 174.
 ealth, 1. 175.
 Stanwix, 1. 175.
 ealth, 1. 175.
 ecommand of Fort London, 1.
 on at the decision to reduce Fort me, 1. 176.
 Stanwix, 1. 176.
 laket, 1. 177.
 the militia, 1. 183.
 or Williamsburg, 1. 183.
 s. Martha Custis, 1. 183.
 t, 1. 184.
 t, 1. 184.
 nt, 1. 184.
 onference, 1. 184.
 Winchester, 1. 184.
 or Fort Cumberland, 1. 184.
 military dress, 1. 185.
 oy Indians, 1. 185.
 of Indian scouts, 1. 185.
 finances a project of Colonel
 t, 1. 185.
 as representative to the House gesses, 1. 186.

Washington, George, elected and chaired,
 1. 186.
 ears of Anherst's success, 1. 186.
 to Colonel Bouquet, 1. 186.
 remonstrates against opening a new road,
 1. 186.
 ordered to Raystown, 1. 187.
 to Governor Mifflin, 1. 189.
 given command of a division, 1. 189.
 arrives before Fort Duquesne, 1. 190.
 occupies the ruins of Fort Duquesne, 1.
 190.
 resigns his commission, 1. 191.
 marries Mrs. Custis, 1. 191.
 at the "White House," 1. 203.
 takes his seat in the House of Burgesses,
 1. 203.
 first effort, 1. 203.
 intrusted with the care of the property of Mr. Custis's children, 1. 204.
 intimates a desire to visit England, 1. 204.
 happiness in retirement, 1. 204.
 vestryman, 1. 205.
 department in church, 1. 205.
 his fortune, 1. 206.
 horses, 1. 206.
 dogs, 1. 206.
 riding equipments (note), 1. 206.
 management of his estate, 1. 207.
 business habits, 1. 207.
 the reputation of his brand, 1. 208.
 domestic habits, 1. 208.
 treatment of negroes, 1. 208.
 anecdote, 1. 208.
 his new plough, 1. 208.
 fox-hunting, 1. 209.
 hunting dinners, 1. 209.
 hunting memoranda (note), 1. 209.
 fishing and shooting, 1. 210.
 deliant oysterman, 1. 210.
 duck shooting, 1. 210.
 chastises a poucher, 1. 210.
 aquatic recreations, 1. 210.
 visits to Annapolis, 1. 211.
 amusements, 1. 211.
 dancing, 1. 211.
 domestic life, 1. 211.
 project to drain Dismal Swamp, 1. 212.
 in the House of Burgesses, 1. 218.
 Stamp Act discussed, 1. 218.
 to Francis Dandridge on the Stamp Act, 1. 220.
 management of his estate, 1. 221.
 conduct towards his wife's son, 1. 221.
 letters to London agents, 1. 221.
 on the Stamp Act, 1. 221.
 life at Mount Vernon, 1. 226.
 to George Mason on non-importation,
 1. 227.
 introduces resolutions of non-use and importation, 1. 231.
 on Botetourt, 1. 234.
 expedition to the Ohio, 1. 235.
 arrives at Fort Pitt, 1. 236.
 meets Colonel Croghan, 1. 236.
 interview with Indian chiefs, 1. 237.
 embarks on the Ohio, 1. 237.
 voyage down the river, 1. 238.
 lands at Mingo town, 1. 238.
 arrives at Captana Creek, 1. 238.

Washington, George, visits Khasuta, a Seneca sachem, 1. 238.
 encamps at the mouth of the Great Kanawha, 1. 239.
 visited by an old sachem, 1. 239.
 escape at Braddock's defeat, 1. 239.
 return home, 1. 240.
 to Colonel Mose (note), 1. 240.
 attends the Assembly, 1. 241.
 friendly relations with Lord Dunmore,
 1. 242.
 affliction at the death of Miss Custis, 1.
 242.
 guardianship of John Parke Custis, 1.
 242.
 opposed to premature marriage, 1. 243.
 accompanies John P. Custis to New York, 1. 243.
 to President Cooper, 1. 243.
 to Jonathan Boucher on premature travel (note), 1. 244.
 to Benedict Calvert on premature marriage (note), 1. 244.
 intimacy with Lord Dunmore, 1. 246, 248.
 attends meeting at Williamsburg, 1. 248.
 presides at a political meeting, 1. 250.
 chairman of committee on resolutions, 1.
 250.
 to Bryan Fairfax on a petition to the Throne, 1. 250.
 reports patriotic resolutions, 1. 251.
 delegate to General Convention, 1. 252.
 to Fairfax, 1. 252.
 on non-importation, 1. 253.
 presents resolutions to the convention,
 1. 253.
 enthusiasm, 1. 253.
 delegate to the General Congress, 1. 254. to Bryan Fairfax, 1. 254.
 sets out for Philadelphia, 1. 256.
 during prayer in the General Congress,
 1. 258.
 to Captain Mackenzie on the independence, 1. 262.
 returns to Mount Vernon, 1. 263.
 reviews military companies, 1. 271.
 visit of Lee and Gates, 1. 271.
 fox-hunting, 1. 273.
 attends convention at Richmond, 1. 273.
 one of a committee to prepare for war,
 1. 274.
 offers to command a company, 1. 274.
 concerning the retreat from Concord, 1.
 280.
 hears of the affair at Lexington, 1. 282.
 to George William Fairfax, 1. 282.
 on Ethan Allen, 1. 284.
 hopes of a reconciliation, 1. 287.
 chairman of committees on military affairs, 1. 288.
 urged as commander-in-chief, 1. 289.
 modesty, 1. 290.
 opposed, 1. 290.
 elected commander-in-chief, 1. 290.
 acceptance, 1. 290.
 to his wife, 1. 292.
 to his brother, 1. 292.
 receives his commission, 1. 293.
beau ideal of a commander, 1. 293.
 sets out from Philadelphia, 1. 309.