

INDEX

Lands, public, evils of methods of granting, 74; list of grants in first thirty-five years, 74

Laurier, Rt. Hon. Sir Wilfrid, justifies U. C. rebellion, 30, 31

Lesslie, James, president of "Canadian Alliance Society," 238; delivers rejoinder to governor, 300; refuses to sign declaration of independence, 331

Libel, Mackenzie's bill on, 163

Lieutenant-Governor, (office of), Durham's view of his power, 56, 57; his surroundings in 1833, 61; his position in both Upper and Lower Canada, 62

Life and Times of Martin Van Buren, Mackenzie publishes, 472

Lives of Butler and Hoyt, Mackenzie publishes, 471

Lount, Samuel, member for Simcoe, 316; election corruption, 317; given command of rebels, 360; arrives at Montgomery's, 362; his account of the flag of truce, 369; his first engagement, 373; his second engagement, 379; leaves country, 380; executed, 435; his fidelity, 435; petitions for commutation, 435; effect of his execution, 436; monument to, 436

Lower Canada, crisis approaching, 287; imperial commissioners' report, 323; against responsible government, 325; events leading to rebellion, 327; asks other provinces for support, 329; crisis arrives, August 1837, 344; arrest of editors, 344; conditions of, in 1837, 347; rebellion in, 358

M

MACKENZIE, Hon. Alexander, his letter in reference to George Brown, 496

Mackenzie, Isabel, wife of William Lyon Mackenzie, granted $4000 by parliament, 240; at Navy Island, 424; death of, 508

Mackenzie's Message, newspaper, published 1853, 505

Mackenzie, William Lyon, his personality, Goldwin Smith on, 3; Dr. Harrison on, 4; W. J. Ratt-ray on, 5, 6; first to enunciate responsible government, 5; "a man ahead of his time," 6; his loyalty, 10; not an annexationist, 11; a constitutional reformer, 12; parentage and ancestry, 34-6; defends himself from charges of disloyalty, 36-8; school days, 38, 39; books he read from 1806-19, 40, 41; enters commerce, 41, 42; goes to Canada, 43; physical description of, 43; joins survey of Lachine Canal, 44; enters business with John Lesslie, 44; moves to Queenston, 44; marries, 45; declares war on Constitutional Act, 72; starts Colonial Advocate, 85; describes Upper Canada in 1820, 85-7; warns Canadians against union with the United States, 87, 97; attitude on Clergy Reserves, 94; advocates provincial university, 95; reforms advocated by, which have come into effect, 97, 98; defends himself against disloyalty charge, 98-101;