

THE SENATE OF CANADA

BILL J.

An Act for the relief of Constance Bertrand Murray.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Constance Bertrand Murray, residing at the city of Outremont, in the province of Quebec, wife of Gustave Murray, trader, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the city of Montreal, in the said province, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the nineteenth day of January, A.D. 1929, at the said city of Outremont, she then being Constance Bertrand, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Constance Bertrand and Gustave Murray, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Constance Bertrand may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Gustave Murray had not been solemnized.
