The impressions our children will have of this epochal time in the world's history will be determined by what we tell them and show them now.

And after looking at London, Paris, Rome and Petrograd, how thankful the little ones should be, snuggled away in Toronto, where this Christmas will be almost as merry as any they have known.

Their parents will make it all the merrier by taking advantage of the very exceptional prices on toys, dolls, sleighs, and everything else they want that are in this Children's Festival on the Fourth Floor.
