

BYE-LAWS
OF THE
ST. GEORGE'S SOCIETY
OF MONTREAL.

Article I.

Any person who is a native of England or Wales, or a descendant of a native of England or Wales, born in the British Possessions, may become a member of this Society, after being proposed and elected by open voting (or by ballot if requested by any two members present) at any general meeting of the Society or of the Board duly convened, and subscribing his name in the Register of Members (to be kept for that purpose by the Secretary), and paying a subscription fee of not less than three dollars; which sum or more, as may from year to year be subscribed, shall, for the first year, be due for the then current year, and thereafter be due and payable between the first day of January and the thirty-first day of December in each year. Any member paying at one time a sum of not less than fifty dollars, the same shall be deemed a life subscription and in lieu of any further subscription or contribution.

Article II.

The Society shall meet, for the transaction of its business, at least four times in each year, to wit: on the tenth day of the months of January, April, July, and October. The Society shall also meet, and attend Divine Service, on St. George's Day. Any of these days falling on Sunday, the meeting shall be held on the day following.

Article III.

The following Officers shall be elected at the Annual Meeting, held on the tenth day of January in every year, viz.:—A President, two Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, a Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, eight Directors, two or more Chaplains, and one or more Physicians, who shall con-
