

her guardianship;
and the same re-
to prevent the an-ed States, by be-
for her independ-
tle republic in a
ifestations of her
s for commercial
now speak of her
ommanding influ-
o! Amid all the hat distracted reference to profit by
or from Ohio (Mr.
ole country must
in a train of con-
s. It is impossible
he chains of king-
arms of freedom.
e assertion of un-
roke the wrath of
rning drum beats

er in taking every defend our own.
ourselves into the
ings of our hearts,
are awake, to the
with these feelings
e are not likely to nor more yielding
and a proper re-We will give the n with the proper bility and willing-
e nation. There
ed States who de-
tional honor; and
ake of exhibiting
e just and liberal
d, in its efforts to he affections of a
idence around it.
ne which duty and
eat Britain exacts
l be found glitter-
brave and deter-
afety through the