

and laws, in opposition to the wishes of more than eleven parts out of twelve of the inhabitants, at the risk of the general tranquillity, and evident danger of the ultimate separation of the Colony from Great-Britain.

O B S E R-