

ARCHIBALD CLAVERING GUNTER'S

WORLD READ WORKS.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL NOVELS EVER PUBLISHED IN AMERICA.

Mr. Barnes of New York. Cloth, $1.00. Paper, 50c.

"A capital story; most people have read it. I recommend it to all the others."

JAMES PAYNE in Illustrated London News.

"Have you read 'Mr. Barnes of New York?' If not, go and read it at once and thank me for suggesting it. I want to be put on record as saying it is the best story of the day—the best I have read in ten years." JOE HOWARD in Boston Globe.

Mr. Potter of Texas. Cloth, $1.00. Paper, 50c.

"Mr. Gunter's books are more generally read than perhaps those of ANY OTHER LIVING WRITER." The Times, London, England, Nov. 4, 1888.

That Frenchman. Cloth, $1.50. Paper, 50c.

"The work exhibits the wonderful resources of the author's mind and the richness of his imaginative powers. The characters are forcibly drawn, the details worked up with surprising exactness, and the plot unraveled with scrupulous care."

San Francisco Post.

Miss Nobody of Nowhere. Cloth, $1.00. Paper, 50c.

"Full of incident and excitement."

New York Herald.

"A story that will keep a man away from his meals."

Omaha Bee.

A Florida Enchantment. Cloth, $1.00. Paper, 50c.

"All those who read any of Mr. Gunter's works will agree with the writer that he is one of America's greatest story tellers, and in 'A Florida Enchantment' he has given the public a story that is most intensely interesting and one that will have an immense sale."

Phillipsburg Journal, May 25, 1892.

"Will enchain the man or woman who sits down to read it."

The Daily Surf, Santa Cruz, Cal.

Small Boys in Big Boots. Cloth, $1.50. Paper, 50c.

Magnificently bound and beautifully illustrated by celebrated artists.

"It is novel, vigorous, and never dull. It is written especially for children, but plenty of grown-up people will find themselves capable of being entertained by it."

New York Sun.

"The boys and girls are real flesh and blood creations. Mr. Gunter's book cannot fail to be popular with the children, and it bids fair to be equally liked by the fathers and mothers of the children."

San Francisco Chronicle.

"It overflows with humor and is the best juvenile story of the season. Every boy and girl in America will want to read this clever work by Mr. Gunter."

Davenport Democrat.

Miss Dividends. Cloth, $1.00. Paper, 50c.

"A most interesting story."

Boston Daily Traveller, Nov. 25, 1892.

"Mr. Gunter works out the interesting plot with carefully elaborated and fascinating details."

Burlington Hawkeye, Dec. 7, 1892.

"Carries us breathless from first page to last."

London Globe, Dec. 2, 1892.

Baron Montez of Panama and Paris.

Cloth, $1.00. Paper, 50c.

"A story of thrilling interest." Christian Leader, Cincinnati, June 6, 1893.

"Mr. Gunter has written nothing better than the volume before us and that is high praise indeed, for his writings in recent years have had a world-wide reputation."

Ohio State Journal, May 29, 1893.

"Of continuous and thrilling interest."

Chicago Times, May 27, 1893.

"Conceived in Mr. Gunter's most fervid mood, and told with that air of convincing earnestness so characteristic of his prolific literary efforts."

New York World, June 4, 1893.
