

terruption, but to prevent such Accidents for the future, as our Ships were earlier out than theirs, they ever after sent a superior Force to deter our Men of War from the like Practice, and have ruled absolute Lords of those Seas.

As that Treaty is the Basis of the present Peace, and the Terms of it in relation to the Fishery are plain and intelligible, it cannot be doubted but the Administration will cause them to be punctually observed, more especially as they fall under the Dominion of the British Flag, whose Honour is immediately concerned in securing the Rights of this Kingdom against all Encroachments, and in protecting its Subjects from Insults on every Part of the Ocean.

A LETTER from Common Honesty to Common Sense; shewing, how poor Honesty, being in Distress, sought for Employment to an eminent Citizen in Trade, an Attorney, a Recruiting Officer, a Bishop, a Treasurer, and a Parliament Man, &c. but was refus'd by 'em all, and very ill treated, and at last oblig'd to apply to his Kinsman Common Sense, Publisher of a News-Paper, where he readily found Encouragement. Very diverting and instructive. Sold by T. Fleet, at the Heart and Crown in Cornhill. Price Eighteen Pence, old Tenor.
