

THE PARISH OF POINTE CLAIRE extends from the Parish of Lachine, along the river, and includes part of Isle Perrot.

THE PARISH OF LONGUE POINTE commences at the Eastern boundary of the Parish of Montreal, and extends to that of Point aux Trembles, extending in depth back to the centre of the Island; there are many rich farms in this Parish.

THE PARISH OF POINT AUX TREMBLES extends from the last named to the upper end of Isle Thérèse, and includes the whole of the lower part of the Island, which fronts the St. Lawrence. The village of the same name is a neat place of 70 or 80 houses, and is much frequented by visitors from the city.

THE PARISH OF RIVIÈRE DES PRAIRIES contains the whole of the Côte St. Joseph, and, as its name implies, fronts on the river of the same name.

THE PARISH OF ST. ANNE embraces the whole upper end of the island, and also the upper part of Isle Perrot; it contains the pleasant village of St. Anne, and possesses many good farms and orchards.

The greatest length of the island is thirty-two miles, and its breadth ten miles, and the population, including the City of Montreal, is estimated at from 65 to 70,000 souls. The City of Montreal sends two, and the remainder of the island one Member to the Provincial Parliament.
