

MELODIES.

1.—SUNRISE.

AIR.—Life let us cherish.

See where the rising sun,
Prepares his course to run;
What splendour decks the skies!
Haste and arise.
Oh, come with me were violets bloom,
And fill the air with sweet perfume;
And where like diamonds to the sight,
Dewdrops sparkle bright.

Fair is the face of morn,
Another day is born;
Your couch no longer keep
Wake from your sleep!
Oh! who would slumber in his bed,
When darkness from the sky has fled;
And when the birds ascend on high,
Warbling songs of joy.

2.—WELCOME TO SCHOOL.

Come, where joy and gladness
Make each youthful stranger a welcome guest:
Come, where grief and sadness
Will not find a dwelling in your breast.
Time with us will pass away,
With books, or work, or healthful play;
Sometimes with a cheerful song,
The happy hours will glide along.
Come, where joy and gladness, &c.
