Good Quality Horses And Many Are Sold At Maher's Exchange

There was a very good attendance at yesterday's auction sale at the Maher Horse Exchange. The offerings were of good quality and large in number. A large percentage of those offered were sold, but the dealers declare more were sold at a loss than for a profit. The Toronto market this week have been considerably overstocked, and the only result that could follow was for the dealers to sell their horses for what they could realize for them, and very few of them could congratulate themselves they had a little left over as a profit. Owing to the very stormy weather this winter, the dealers have been unable to cover as much territory as in previous years, and in consequence have been unable to see the number of horses in order to try to purchase them. This has made the prices high, but it is thought the high water mark has been reached, and that there should be a decline. The improved weather should allow the dealers to see more stock and they will no doubt be able to purchase at a lower figure than in the past couple of months. The management informed our representative they were well satisfied with the week's business as regards sales, and that they expected a number of large consignments for next week's sales. The following were among the buyers present: J. E. O'Brien, Outlook, Oak; who purchased a full car load; Hendrie & Co., T. Gould, Gosport, E. Poole, New-Castle; Dominion Bakery Co., city; Bogart, Napanee; E. R. Herbert, Coburg; Jacobson, city; Red Robt, city; W. V. Wiles, city; Jas. Robt, Aurora; Thos. Johnston, East Toronto; A. Gordon, city; J. C. Woodcock, who secured a full car load and shipped; Wm. Shaughnessy, city; J. A. McCabe, Collingwood; J. J. Welsh, city; Jas. Blinn, city; Wm. Harris, city; J. Malcomb, city; W. Hunt, city; E. Fickles, city; Doane's Livery, M. Patton, Richmond Hill; A. Boyd, city; E. Orman, city; E. Jull, Newcastle. Yala Eighte Were Out. NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 14.—Two Yale Yacht clubs were out on the harbor today for the first time this season. A two mile row was given each boat and the other candidates were sent out in pair-oared boats.
