TOKALON AT 25 TO 1 WON THE BROOKLYN HANDICAP

Dandelion Was Second and The Picket Third—Opening Day at Gravesend.

New York, May 21.—Coming thru a flying field with a splendid burst of speed, Tokalon, owned by J. W. Fuller and ridden by Bedell, almost a novice in the saddle, won the Brooklyn Handicap at Gravesend to-day. She covered the mile and a quarter in 2.05 3-5, within one-fifth of a second of the record for the race, and in the gamest of drives, under whip and spur, nosed out the stout-hearted Dandelion in the run thru the stretch. Two lengths behind came the Picket, who two years ago carried his colors to victory in the same stake against the mighty Irish Lad and Hermis, and last of all was Delhi, the winner of the classic only a year ago.

Between the first and the last was as evenly a balanced field of thoroughbreds as ever faced the starter in a great event. Tokalon was at 25's, while Dandelion was favored by a big play at 4's, and Merry Lark, who finished fifth, carried the talent's money at 3's. Half a dozen others were backed for thousands, and Tokalon herself, tho her price varied little, was not by any means disregarded.

Roseben, the Johnson sprinter, was a factor in the race, for he took the lead in the first half and carried the others at a terrific clip the full mile, with Dandelion ever at his side. When Roseben's bolt was shot the Hamburg colt, game as his mighty sire, but lacking that brilliant turn of speed, came up on the inner rail, and it seemed as tho the race was his. Then Tokalon, with swinging stride that made Tammany greatest of racers in his day, broke thru the line in front and pushed her nose against the leader's withers. Full half a furlong their heads rose and fell together, and inch by inch the little mare drew up and closed the space between them. A bound or two from the wire she showed in front, and they crossed together like a team driven to the last breath.

The Brooklyn never saw a finer day. Fair skies and a tremendous crowd favored the Brooklyn Jockey Club in the running of the classic made famous almost 20 years ago when Dry Monopole, Bluewing and Hidalgo flashed past the judges in first race of the stake, muzzles apart. Had the Picket been closer up to-day's Brooklyn would have been a duplication of that never-to-be-forgotten battle.

The course was picturesque as usual with the gay plumage of women who filled the stands; the lawn was crowded, and the club house lined with those of the inner temple, while the field barred thousands for lack of space.

The first two curtain raisers were satisfactory to those who had placed their money, for the favorites won. The third event was the Expectation for 2-year-olds, and in it were entered Demund, the $45,000 colt purchased by Paul J. Rainey a week or two ago, and W. H. Daniel, whose selling price to E. S. Burke was $35,000. Both in previous races had spreadeagled their fields, and they were backed to-day for a fortune by their respective supporters. Demund at 3 to 5. They raced each other to the ground, and as they swung wide on the turn into the stretch, James R. Keene's white and blue, carried by Superman, a maiden, came thru on the inner rail. Superman outfooted Demund home and took the stake, with Daniel last.

Doubtless there were 30,000 persons within the gates of Gravesend when the saddling trumpet sounded for the Brooklyn, but so general a play had been made that hardly a voice or hand was raised to cheer the racers as they paraded. No great horse of class was there such as has brought the crowd to their feet in years gone by, for, tho the Picket and Delhi, previous winners, pranced past the stand, it was thought that age and the glory of already wearing the crown, must have dimmed their ambitions, and so it proved with Delhi, who, tho game to the core, went out in front and tried.

But the Picket furnished ample proof of his worth, for he ran with a field that was bunched for a mile, and when the opening came he showed his speed and was coming fast at the end.

The field got away with little delay, and passing the stand on the first quarter Delhi and Roseben were leading. Roseben soon took command, Dave Johnson, his owner, who stood to win some $20,000 from the winter books, leaned up against the fence and watched the great sprinter carry the others along the back stretch with only Dandelion near him. It was a killing pace, both for Dandelion and the pride of the Johnston stable, for the former was on the outer rail. Proper, Oxford, Merry Lark and the Picket were in the second flight, while Tokalon and Go-Between were right behind them.

So they ran to the mile, when O'Neil on Dandelion made his ride and Roseben dropped back, but the stretch is quickly covered, and the Oxford grey fell out; Delhi was hopelessly last; Proper sulking three-quarters of the distance suddenly found his speed and, straightened out, pulled along on the outside; the Picket opened the way for Tokalon and Bedell carried her to a glorious victory by a splendid ride. Summary:

First race, about 6 furlongs—Lady Amelia, 130 (Miller), 11 to 5, 1; Halifax, 117 (Hildebrand), 6 to 1, 2; Edna Jackson, 112 (O'Neil), 7 to 2, 3. Time 1.10. Guiding Star, Jocund, Father Catchem, Samson, Hot Toddy, Sterling and Belle of Pertland also ran.

WOODBINE TRACK RECORDS MERRY ENGLAND, LAURA A.

Inferno's Queen's Hotel Handicap —4 Favorites and Two Second Choices Won.

Conditions were again perfect for the second day's racing at Woodbine Park and on Monday the favorites had a shade the better of the argument, four of the seven public choices finishing in front. The weather was clear and the track lightning fast, the result being that Merry England made a new Woodbine record for the 5 1-2 furlongs and Sainzilla beat the 4 1-2 furlongs mark, that was again lowered later in the day by Laura A., and now stands at 55 seconds.

Inferno cantered home to equal the track record for a mile ahead of Fort Hunter, Factotum, Little Scout, Preen and several other bears from across the line that were stood on their heads by the province-bred. The 1905 plate winner only broke in the second flight in the feature handicap, but Treubel was content to keep him trailing for 3-4. Then he made the field stand still and won as he pleased. Fort Hunter had to do his best to get the place, with Factotum third and Little Scout right up to the show runner. Inferno was played steadily at 8 to 5. Preen was supported three ways. Fort Hunter had some backing second and third.

The first race was easily won by Merry England, notwithstanding bad racing luck. He was roughed to his knees by Tongorder and after losing lengths came on up the stretch and won easily. Diamond, tho acting badly at the post, was sent away well from a halter. He secured the place by Tongorder's disqualification and Platoon the show. These four with Scarfell were all strongly supported.

The second race saw a close finish, with four fighting it out for the money. Sainzilla, a loong shot, secured the verdict going away; Kamsack and Crip second and third choices, close up in the money. Pungent, even money favorite, was never prominent.

They finished in the third just as they were backed, Crestfallen forcing Ruth W. to the limit, Attilla third. Will King had the show till the last few strides.

The steeplechase was a splendid spectacle. Bob Alone stayed with Allegiance all the way and only gave up the place on the flat run. Ruth's Rattler was racing with Follow On when he fell. They were all backed except Uncle Reuben.

The starter had them well lined up in the sixth when the banner went up, but Sultan wouldn't move and was left. Slickaway, a long shot, tried to show up the field early in the race, but only lasted three furlongs. The favorite, Anna Smith, was beaten by some bumping of the field, and Money Muss, second choice, won. Judge White was third and the rest of the lot well bunched and two lengths away.

Again in the closing event they finished just to the public's fancy, the real race being for the place, which Irene A. took from Round Dance by a nose.

It was again Seagram's day, with two wins, while Treubel and Farrow divided the riding honors, each landing two firsts.

The attendance was large for a Monday, the eastern section being patronized by almost a Saturday crowd, and as on the opening day, all arrangements were as perfect as possible.

The O. J. C.'s spring meeting is now on the high road to success and patrons are settling down to two weeks of solid enjoyment. Toronto racegoers get the credit of backing everything in the race, and even if four favorites and two second choices did win yesterday, the books probably had the better of it.

L. Smith was fined $100 and set down for the meeting, except that he may ride for Mr. Dyment.

The starter suspended Jockey McIntyre two days for breaking up a start in the sixth race and Higgins and Kent the same time for the same offence in the last.

Hamilton Stakes.

The following stakes of the Hamilton Jockey Club to be run at the spring meeting, June 5 to 16, close to-day:

The Hamilton Stakes—$800 guaranteed, of which $150 to second and $50 to third; $5 to accompany nomination and $15 additional to start; for three-year-olds and upwards; for all ages, 1 1-16 miles.

The Merchants' and Manufacturers' Stakes—$1000 guaranteed, of which $200 to second and $100 to third; a handicap; for three-year-olds and upwards; $10 to accompany nomination and $15 additional to start; 1 1-8 miles.

Entries can be made with F. W. Gerhardy, or H. J. McAllister, at Woodbine to-day, or to A. R. Loudon, secretary, Hamilton.

From the Viceroy of India.

Even the India's coral strand, and in the shadow of the Himalayas they are not unmindful that Toronto is now enjoying the annual festival of the Ontario Jockey Club, and yesterday there came from the Viceroy of India, at Simla, this cablegram:

"William Hendrie, stewards' stand, Woodbine Park, Toronto—Best wishes for a good meeting. (Signed) Minto."

A reply was promptly sent to the Earl of Minto, thanking him for his thoughtful kindness, and informing him that Mr. Seagram had won his twelfth King's Plate, in delightful weather and with a record attendance.

President Hendrie's legion of friends will be glad to learn that advices from Hamilton yesterday reported him to be much brighter and more interested in what was going on at Woodbine than at any other time in the past three weeks.

—	Uncle Reuben	151	5	Lost rider.				Ausberger	10—1	15—1	4—1

Time 4.16. Start good. Won easily. Second driving. Winner Mrs. C. V. Tupper's ch.g., a, by Uncle Jess—Fidelity. Trained by C. V. Tupper. It was a two horse race until the last two jumps were reached. Allegiance and Bob Alone cut out a long lead on the others and raced together almost to the end. Latter weakened on end. With a stronger rider Follow On would have given the winner an argument. Ruth's Rattler fell at 12th jump. Uncle Reuben made a bad landing at 7th.

12 FIFTH RACE, 1 mile, $600 added, Queen's Hotel Handicap Cup, 3-year-olds and upwards:

Ind.	Horses.	Wt.	1J.	5J.	9J.	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys.	Open.	Close.	Place.

—	Mortlake	99	8	1-n	3-1	9	9	Beganson	10—1	10—1	4—1

Time .12, .24, .36, .49, 1.02, 1.15 1-5, 1.40. Start good. Won cantering. Place driving. Winner J. E. Seagram's b.h., 4, by Havoc—Hon Ino. Trainer B. T. Littledriving. Winner J. E. Seagram's b.h., 4, by Havoc—Hon Ino. Trainer B. T. Littlefield. The winner was much the best. Raced around the leaders on stretch turn and won without an effort. Fort Hunter raced Mortlake and Bobbie Kean into submission and tired himself. Little Scout as usual trailed the bunch; was catching the leaders on end.

13 SIXTH RACE, ¾ mile, $400 added, 3-year-olds and up, selling:

Ind.	Horses.	Wt.	St.	¼	¾	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys.	Open.	Close.	Place.
7	Morey Muss	121	2	2-1	2-3	2-1	1-1½	Hodgson	5—2	5—2	4—5

—	Sultry	109	Left at post.					Oliphant	20—1	20—1	8—1

Time .12, .23 2-5, .35 3-5, .48 3-5, 1.01, 1.14 4-5. Start good. Won easily. Second same. Winner J. J. O'Flaherty's ch.g. a, by The Hero—Little Grove Queen. Anna Smith had all the hard luck in the race. She was knocked to her knees just after passing the half mile post and lost a lot of ground. Was gaining at every stride at the finish. Money Muss raced Slickaway into submission and drew away at top of stretch. Had no opposition last eighth. Judge White was doing his best. Cut off Gov. Orman very badly at the final eighth pole and made the latter pull up. Sultry would not break with his field.

14 SEVENTH RACE, 4½ furlongs, $400 added, for 2-year-olds, selling:

Ind.	Horses.	Wt.	St.	½	¾	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys.	Open.	Close.	Place.

—	Prince of Orange	99	8	...	8	8	8	Powers	10—1	20—1	8—1

Time .12 2-5, .24 2-5, .36 2-5, .49, .55. Start good. Won easily. Second driving. Winner George Connell's ch.f., 2, by Gold Crest—Car Maid. Trained by G. C. Gray. The winner wore down the leaders in runthru the stretch and drew away in last sixteenth. Irene A. had no excuses. Fought it out at the end with Round Dance, who was tiring last sixteenth. Gold Note lot of early speed, but could carry it only to stretch. Flip was up with the leaders to middle of stretch and quit.
