MUTT AND JEFF—Why Hire Two Men When One Can Do the Work?

J. MCGRAW NEEDS TWO PITCHERS FOR GIANTS

Baseball Experts Award New York Pennant.

BETTER THAN LAST YEAR

Realizes That He Must Have Good Twirlers to Capture Flag.

New York, Jan. 18.—Although numerous baseball experts have awarded the Giants the National League pennant for next season, John McGraw is wise enough to appreciate the fact that even with the hard-hitting array of players he has assembled he must have at least fair pitching if he is going to finish in front.

In order to win the pennant, the Giants will have to get much better pitchers than they obtained last season from practice. The infield and outfield co-operated together well enough, but the main difficulty was in the pitching staff and not until the middle of the campaign did the twirlers show anything like real form. When they did strike their gold, they proceeded at a phenomenal pace, but again fell down, and toward the close of the season were again performing at top speed. The all-absorbing question among admirers of the Giants now is whether the pitchers will be able to resume their fast pace in April.

McGraw isn't taking too much for granted concerning his pitchers. He realizes the Giants will be faster in the older circuit next season than last, and that the Giants will need championship twirlers to keep in front. He is gunning for one or two men who belong to other National League clubs, but the other players are anxious to stay in New York's strength, and aren't anxious to part with their twirling stars.

"Two additional pitchers I might name," asserted McGraw, "would assure New York the pennant next season. I am seeking these men, but the other clubs in the National League don't seem willing to give me the men I desire. They consider the Giants strong enough as they are at present. If I cannot make absolutely certain of an almost invincible pitching staff, then we will have to gamble on the outfield. I am confident they will carry us through to victory."

McGraw is preparing for his annual vacation trip to Havana, Cuba. He will be accompanied by "Eddie" Brannick, traffic manager of the club. They probably will leave in a day or so.

TEAM HAS SWEATERS.

The members of Coburne Street Methodist Epworth League hockey team received their sweaters for the season last night. The sweaters are red with a green monogram on the front, showing them off very nicely.

Jenkins and Brennan Fight At the Liberal Club Tonight

Algrove and Wainwright to Scrap, as Well as Pte. Diamond of 149th Battalion and George Trudell—Two Wrestling Bouts Scheduled.

Possibly the best offering along boxing lines that has ever been put up for the edification of fans in this city will be held tonight at the Liberal Club, when three well-matched pairs of boxers will mix things considerably. Eddie Brennan, who is well known to local followers of the fight game, will go on duty with Scotty Jenkins, champion of the 21st Canadian Scottish Borderers. Jenkins is an ex-145-pound champion of the American army, and is a real clever boy. Eddie is no slouch and is in good shape for the mill. It promises to be a slugging match all the way through.

Algrove vs. Wainwright. Another bout that is creating a whole lot of interest is that of Earl Wainwright and R. Algrove. Both these lads are well known locally. Wainwright is a clever kid and is bound to go high in the pugilistic line. Algrove, however, thinks that he has Earl's number, and will endeavor to prove to the fans that it is not an easy job to knock him out.

There will also be two wrestling bouts. Banty Hearn will take on W. Everett for ten minutes. The bout will be held at 11:15 p.m. The bout will be held at 11:15 p.m. The bout will be held at 11:15 p.m.

As a large number of tickets have been sold, it will be necessary to arrive at a seat. E. Macintosh will referee the bouts, while R. Wray will look after the bell. Tickets are on sale at the Liberal Club, 19th Battalion, and at the Clyde Hotel.
