to see.

It has been said that the driving clubs thruout the country have stimulated the light harness horse and that the matinees given by the different driving clubs have given by the different driving clubs have made the members of such clubs vie with each other as to who had the best matinee horse. Certainly the Dufferin Club have held their own and are doing all in their power to cultivate good clean racing and put the harness horse sport where it rightfully belongs.

There is nothing more invigorating nor more exciting than a ride behind a good fast harness horse and no doubt before the season ends many more members of the D.D.C. will have horses and develop them for their own, as well as the pleasure of the patrons of the sport.

These races will be finished on Friday next, and the club will put on an extra class for that day, thus ensuring a good afternoon's sport. The entries for the extra race are as follows: James Noble's Directwood, W. R. Payne's Joe Lisle, P. J. Dolan's Billie Dolan, George Snell's Jack, F. Dunn's General Bell, J.McRobb's Frince Al, A. W. Green's College Boy, J. Sercomb's Florence.

Seventeen horses ran.

The guineas is one of the classics of the English turf, and it was won by Norman III. against a strong field, which included King Edward's Perrier, the favorite for the Derby. King Edward and the Prince of Wales were present on the grandstand, and in spite of the rain a great crowd of spectators turned out for the meeting in the expectation that his majesty's horse would win. The betting on Norman III. was 25 to 1 against. The betting on Sir Archibald was 5 to 1 against, on White Eagle 100 to 7 against, and on Perrier 5 to 4 against. When nearing the straight, Mr. Belmont's horse, which was considered a rank outsider,
