No less than 101 rinks, or 404 players, to be slaughtered before the city urling championship is decided this year, tries closing last night. Secretary R Lowden had everything in fine shape, a short order. With 102 teams in, there are 26 byes, leaving 76 rinks to play 38 mes before the first round is reached. ronto's ice space will just accommo date the preliminary contestants not inting the new territory at East Toronto, tho the Aberdeens aer included in the list of contestants for the first time Last winter there were 91 rinks entered

The funeral of the late W. J. (Billy) Patterson, the well-known lacrosse player took place yesterday morning from his late residence, Lewis-street, to St. Joseph's (R.C.) Church, and thence to Mount Hope Cemetery, the Rev. Father, Cruise of St. Joseph's officiating. Many friends of the deceased called to pay their respects, among whom were President Thompson and Manager Murphy, representing the Toronto Lacrosse Club, and the N. L. U.

The occasion of the funeral demonstrated the truth of the old saying that very often when a man, great in his parlicular calling passes away, he is forgotten by those to whom he rendered greatest service. The Capitals of Ottawa and the Tecumsehs of this city were not represented officially, by letter or deputation, at the funeral.

Regardless of Jack Johnson's easy victory over Tommy Burns, Bob Day, the amateur champion, does not think the black mananything to be afraid of. In recounting his little mill a year ago in the Star Theatre with Johnson, Bob's harrative coincides with the newspaper stories as given out the morning after. They were to go three rounds of one minute each, Johnny Lees bringing the amateur out of the west end iron shops where he is a foreman only an hour before he pulled off his jersey.

after Johnson, it is no wonder that Bob Day's friends think that the Toronta champion would make a better showing in a match with the champion than Ketchell, Kaufman, Langford, Hart, or even Tommy Burns. Day in all his bouts in Scotland and Canada has never been knocked down.

Sam McVey, the negro heavyweight, who knocked a Jap Jiu jitsu expert cold with one punch in Paris the other night, has been telling Frenchmen some wonderful yarns about his ring achievements in America, and, as the French newspapers never have printed much about American prize fights, McVey's statements have been accepted as gospel. McVey has gone into details in saying how he has knocked out Jeffries, Corbett, Etizsimmons, McCoy, Sharkey, Maher, Choynski and Johnson, and has declared with remarkable assurance that he is the undisputed champlon of the world. As a result, whenever McVey shows in the ring on the other side there is great excitement and a large crowd. McVey, who hails from California, has met Johnson twice, losing one twenty-round mill on a decision and being knocked out in the records do not show that McVey met any of the other puglilists named above. He will have a chance to show how much of a fighter he is, however, when he tackles Joe Jeannette in Paris the latter part of this month. Jeannette got a decision over McVey in a ten-round bout in America about two years ago.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—Captain James Mc-Mahon of the Australian Rugby football team, which salls for America Jan. 22, having won an overwhelming majority of the matches here, is evidently not impressed with the vaunted English idea of fair play.

In one case the Welsh Rugby Union decided that the charges against the Australian player were justified, and compelled him to apologize, ignoring all testimony tending to vindicate him. "We have only the highest praise for the hospitable manner in which we were treated in England," said McMahon, "but we all take home many unpleasant memories of our experiences on the field."

The Wallabies will play several matches in America, probably including one at Los Angeles, one at San Francisco and one at Vancouver, whence they will sail to Australia Feb. 22.

Federal Hockey League. OTTAWA, Jan. 6.—It is not probable that the application of the Metropolitans of Montreal for admittance to the Federal Hockey League will be accepted. The principal objections comes from Smith's Falls, who threaten that if the Metropolitans are admitted to the Federal League, they will drap out

When seen yesterday he related his experiences here, which, curiously resemble those of the American athletes during the Olympic meet. The frequent charges of unfair tactics which were lodged against the Australian players by the referees, and the fact that three of their players were ordered off the field for alleged slugging are pointed out in support of the antipodean kickers.
