BAD BOY SHELLEY FRIGHTENED A FARMER

Said He'd Fill Him With Lead If He Exposed His Faults—Grossome Exhibit at the Inquest.

SIMCOE, Aug. 19.—(Special.)—The rather unusual proceeding of exhibiting a piece of a dead man's body as evidence in an inquest was resorted to by Dr. Meek to-day at Coroner A. McIntosh's enquiry into the death of Michael Hall, who was shot from behind as he was entering his home, in Charlotteville Township, Sunday afternoon.

Deceased was buried last Tuesday, but Dr. Meek in his short-mortem sawed out a triangular section of the skull containing the bullet hole, and produced it as an exhibit "B" this afternoon. It lay on the table in front of the aged Mrs. Hall during her one and a half hours' examination. The skull of some other party unknown was also displayed for the purpose of showing precisely the location of the fatal wound.

While conclusive evidence was adduced identifying the boy, Emory Shelley, and his 22-calibre rifle, with the Hall vicinity at the time of the fatality, and also showing the boy to be of rather wild habits, the theory that the shooting was accidental seemed to strengthen.

Crown Attorney Slight asked for an adjournment at 6.30 p.m., because he believed that more evidence might be gathered that might cast suspicion for the killing of Hall on some party other than the accused.

W. E. Kelly, K.C., was granted the adjournment for cross-examining the witnesses in the interest of young Shelley, and succeeded pretty well in making perjured tendencies of the prisoner, until a letter from his mother to one of the lad's former employers was produced.

Farmer Was Afraid.
Walter G. Pass, a Port Dover farmer, for whom Shelley worked, testified that after a couple of weeks with him he noticed an evil spirit cropping out. He traded a bicycle for a gun and he proceeded to shoot around the farm. Besides, one day he caught him practicing immorality in the stable, and warned him he must quit doing the same thing or he would discharge and expose him.

"He told me," declared witness, "right to my face, that if any man exposed him he would fill him with lead. I did not know the kind of a thing it was until I told him he'd have to go. So I wrote to his mother, telling her why her boy could not be kept, although I had done my best to teach him the biblical maxims. 'Be sure your sins will find you out.' And she wrote back telling me she wished I had thrashed him within an inch of his life."

Mr. Kelly demanded that letter, but the reading of it not only confirmed Mr. Pease's assertion, but stamped the boy, by his mother's own words, as a respectable, of vicious habits and with a fondness for bad company.

Children Intimidated.
George Orens, 15 years old, told of his mother's shooting of Austin Rush being held up by the Shelley boy on the way to school last May. Shelley pulled a rifle on them and they ran up, meaning to get away. When the smallest boy began crying Shelley said he was only fooling, but they didn't think so at first.

HOCKEN DEFENDS SALE TO NATIONAL FOUNDRY

Writes Trade and Labor Council That Deal is in City's Interest

At the meeting of the District Trades and Labor Council last night a communication was received from Comptroller Hocken, in which he defended the city council's action in regard to the sale of civic property to the National Foundry Co. The sale, he pointed out, was in the best interests of the city, as the assistant city engineer had reported that it would cost $10,000 per acre to reclaim the land and put it in shape for building purposes. The communication was received and filed.

The condition of the shoe shine boys was considered, a disgrace and scandal to a Christian and civilized country. The matter was discussed and it was decided that the organization committee should investigate the conditions under which the Gebek boys were employed with a view to bettering their condition.

The committee also reported that the city council should be asked to pass a stringent bylaw making a standard loaf of bread compulsory. The resolution was sent on to the legislative committee for further consideration. The committee also reported that an inspector should be appointed to look after scaffolding of buildings under erection in the city. The committee with President Glocking of the council and the President of the Federated Building Trades Council will visit the city.

ORDERS UNION PLUMBERS TO PAY DUES TO BOSS

Court Grants Masters' Request to Satisfy Judgment Against the Winnipeg Union.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 19.—(Special.)—In an action for damages arising out of the strike a couple of years ago, the master plumbers secured judgment against the plumbers union for $3000, and costs amounting to another $1000. The union appealed, but no stay of proceedings being allowed by the judge, the plaintiffs instructed the sheriff to collect judgment. The sheriff reported back he could find no assets or property belonging to the union.

The Masters' Plumbers Association to-day applied to Judge Metcalfe for the appointment of a receiver to collect the union plumbers' dues to satisfy the masters' judgment, and the application was granted. It is not conceivable that the men will pay dues, and dissolution of the union, at least as a corporate body, will be a matter of course.

MONTREAL'S FIRE CHIEF CALLED FOR UNION JACK

Got it, Too, at Chiefs' Convention at Grand Rapids—Chief Thompson Elected Vice-President.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Aug. 19.—(Special.)—"I supposed this was an international convention," said Chief Tremblay of Montreal, at to-day's gathering of the International Fire Chiefs Association. "However, I cannot find a British flag anywhere in the decorations."

There was a moment of silence. Then Chief Tremblay of Montreal, in a speech, explained that it was oversight merely, and Tremblay was mollified. British flags were prominent at to-night's banquet.

While explaining the theory of "spontaneous combustion," Dr. R. H. Nesbitt, Waukegan, Ill., dropped a piece of sodium on soft substance and it exploded, breaking his glasses and burning his face. He had a narrow escape from losing his eyesight.

Chief Horton of Grand Rapids, Mich., was warmly commended and the election of similar officials in every state was urged.

Following are the officers: President, George W. Horton, Baltimore; First Vice-President, John Thompson, Toronto; Second Vice-President, William Lawlor, Youngstown, Ohio; Secretary, James McCall, Baltimore, Md.; Treasurer, James McCall, Baltimore, Md. Syracuse won out for the next meeting, after a fight with Milwaukee.

DUNDAS, Aug. 19.—There was quite an audience at the Dundas police court to hear the case against Chas. Gibson, Lynden, charged with violating the Lord's Day act by hoeing on Sunday. The Lord's Day Adventists are fairly strong at Lynden, and Gibson is a member of that set. He has the reputation of being a good citizen. Gibson said he could not work on Saturday, it being the day of rest, and he said the Bible commanded men to labor six days of the week. It was not a question of getting your work done in five, but you must labor six days of the week.

SCRAPPED SINKS ELEVEN FROM 17 IN DUKES

Sudden Filling of Sails By the Wind Causes Craft To Upset and Go Down—Five on Deck Escape.

HALIFAX, Aug. 19.—(Special.)—The Gloucester fishing schooner Orinoco, Capt. Larkin, while proceeding to the Banks, met with an accident this morning, 25 miles off Sambro, which caused her to fill and sink in three minutes. Eleven of the crew of 16, all Nova Scotians, with heavy exertions, went down with the schooner.

The five men saved were all on deck at the time of the accident. The mishap was caused in this way: The vessel's mast allowed to come to the wind to trim her jib sheets. She mistimed, came around and was left dead in the wind when her sails suddenly filled again, and the schooner went over and in three minutes the waves rolled over the place where the vessel had been.

ON WAY TO SEE DAUGHTER AGED VISITOR EXPIRES

John Gamble of Port Hope Drops Dead on Street on Arrival in City

John Gamble, an old man, whose home is in Port Hope, dropped dead at the corner of Dufferin and College streets yesterday afternoon. He had come up from Port Hope on the A.R. and was on his way to visit his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Reid of 1078 Dufferin-street, when he got off the car at the wrong corner. Becoming faint he went in to Dane's grocery store at the corner and asked for a drink of water, and while the proprietor was in the rear getting the water Mr. Gamble walked out of the store and fell over a baby carriage standing before the door. He was able to tell his name and his daughter's address before the breath left him. Dr. John W. Russell of 1084 College-street said death was due to heart failure.

B.S.A. PEEP SIGHT FOR CANADA'S MILITIA

O. R. A. At Semi-Annual Meeting Advises Adoption—Protest Against Holding Meet in Mid-August.

LONG BRANCH, Aug. 19.—(Special.)—It is only a matter of time till the B.S.A. peep sight, which was first invented by W. H. Moore of the 7th regiment, Dundas, that the association council be urged to adopt the sight as had already been done by the Blaisy association.

Major Alex. Elliott, who is a skilled optician, explained that not more than 10 per cent. of marksmen have good eyes, and that the new sight was such an aid to the eye that all competitors would be practically placed on the same footing. It had been shown at the Blaisy matches, another officer stated, that an ordinary rifleman using the B.S.A. sight could shoot all round an expert using any of the sights now generally in use. Major Elliott was pleased as the reason for the new sight not having been adopted this year, that the lack of facilities for distributing them made it inadvisable.

A few rifleman had the B.S.A. sight, he said, and by permitting their use the great bulk of marksmen would have been at a disadvantage. The matter of adopting the new sight will be considered at the next meeting of the O.R.A. council.

The meeting was held at the noon hour at the officers' tent at the range. E. B. Oeler, president, in the chair. Besides a hundred or more members the following prominent officers were present: Col. Macdonald, Lt.-Col. John Bruce, Major W. C. King, Major De-Bury, Major Dillon, Major Mercer, Major Elliott, Major Helmer and Captain Miller, secretary.

The following were elected to represent the O.R.A. on the council of the B.S.A.: Major Mercer, Major De-Bury, Major Dillon, Major Mercer, Major Elliott, Major Helmer and Captain Miller, secretary.

J. C. Dixon late sergeant of the 21st regiment, Essex, wrote protesting against the holding of the O.R.A. so early in August, which he said precluded farmer-militiamen from competing owing to the urgency of harvesting in mid-August. Col. Macdonald said it would be impossible to hold the meet at any time other than the week prior to the meet at Ottawa, as that the shoot always starts on the 1st of Monday in August, and September would certainly be too late for the Ontario meet. It was necessary to hold them together because of the fact that marksmen come from all sections of the Dominion to take part in both, and would refuse to make two trips.

Principal Hagarty's protest. In connection with the award of the Pellat Cup to the Dundas team came up before the meeting at the instance of the principal and the ruling of the match committee was sustained. One officer expressed the opinion that Principal Hagarty ought to be sport enough to accept the result, and another deplored the fact that Principal Hagarty had seen fit to show his lack of confidence in the match committee.
