MONDAY NOV. 29

Toys and Dolls for Tuesday

OUR Department of Toys is in the New Basement, where we have made plenty of room for them. There you will see all the old favorites—the dolls, and the Noah's Arks, and the building blocks—and all the toys of modern demand as well—engines and fireless cooking stoves and so forth, and so on.

Don't be one of those who leave choosing toys until the Rush develops. Come now, while choice is greatest and choosing easiest.

75 only, Mechanical Engines and six top attachments, regular up to $2; and 100 only, Steam Engines and six attachments, regular up to $2. Tuesday, per set, 80c.

Our Great Showing of Leather Novelties for Christmas

WE will demonstrate our position in the leather goods trade this season, and there will be no room left for question. First place is ours by right of conquest. Judge us upon points of taste, quality, fashion, variety, quantity and value. We have searched the world of leather, practically, gathered the best, and the result is ready for inspection. We show not only the bags and belts that are wanted and worn now—we show those that will be wanted and worn. Come and choose leather novelties at Simpson's and all the world is at your service.

Three Good Warm, Stylish Winter Coats

$10.95 $7.95 $15.95

WE THINK these Coats are pretty hard to beat. Considering their quality, their comfortableness, and their style. The moderation of their respective prices cannot but strike a happy note in the minds of those who read these brief descriptions and see the coats on view here in the department.
