Mrs. Tovell wrote that the proprietors of the "nickel theatres" waited for the children after school hours and gave them free tickets of admission, and the result was that she had received many objections from the morthers of the children against the practice. She also stated that ward seven had more comparatively of these amusements than any other ward in the city.

The committee finally decided that it was beyond their power to take any steps in the matter unless the men who were giving away the tickets trespassed upon the school property. They also referred the matter to Principis Embree and Inspector Hughes for a galary Schedule.

A report was read from L. E. Embree regarding the proposed, new high school salary schedule.
