Christopher W. Keirstead, aged 45, was last night arrested by Patrolmen Rankine and Covey on a charge of attempted assault upon Gertrude McNamara, the twelve-year-old daughter of Mrs. Ellen McNamara of 469 Cheesley street. It is alleged that the assault occurred in Keirstead's house, 323 Cheesley street, where he was arrested. Keirstead had been drinking.

A RUNAWAY ON MARSH ROAD.

A countryman named Walsh started to drive into the city this morning with a load of produce drawn by a white horse, but when he reached the stable here his horse was wild. The driver was somewhat the result of an accident near One-mile house. The horse became frightened and ran away and ended by throwing Walsh into a ditch about five feet deep with the wagon and driver piled on top of him. The produce of various kinds was strewn in all directions, the driver was somewhat bruised and the horse lay on his back kicking to get up, but without success. With the assistance of some passersby the horse was hauled back on to the road, but he was hardly recognizable with the coating of black mud with which he was completely covered. Temporary repairs were made and the journey citywards resumed.

FRIGHTENED PASSENGERS.

(Bangor Commercial May 22.)
Some of the passengers on the 1.40 express for the west Thursday had a bad scare and some of them thought that Mrs. Guinness had surely come to town. When the train arrived here from St. John, one of the passengers went to the baggage car, got a revolver out of her baggage and then went back to her seat in the coach. She laid the gun, which was loaded on the window-sill and seemed to be very restless—as if something bad was in the wind. Passengers sitting near the woman commenced to get uneasy and many glances were cast in the direction of the weapon. Finally a man—more courageous than the rest—went over to the woman, explained the situation and she promptly placed the revolver out of sight.

BIG RACE HAS FILLED.

Boston, Mass., May 22.—The directors of the New England Horse Breeders' Association today voted that sufficient entries had been received in the $50,000 American bred derby to announce that the event would be held during the grand circuit meetings at Revere in August.

Richard J. Walsh, head of Waterbury & Rising's retail department, is seriously ill at his home, Albert street.

FIRST BASE BALL GAMES ON FOR TODAY

Two Leagues Open the Season
This Afternoon --- St. John League on Victoria Grounds, Society League in North End

The ball season in St. John will be in full blast this afternoon when two leagues break into their schedules, and indications are that after three o'clock the entire "fan" population will have hiked to the Victoria or Shamrock grounds. On the former the St. John League starts its match with the Mariners and Clippers and on the latter the old rivals St. Joseph's and St. Peter's will commence the Inter-Society league.

In both leagues there will be some surprises sprung; the followers of the north end organization will be given the chance to see the popular "Pop" Small back at centre field, while those taking in the Victoria ground games will see the veteran Tommy Howe again in the same. The season promises the best for many years. James McAllister will umpire on the Victoria grounds and George McDerby on the Shamrock grounds. Mayor Bullock will pitch the first ball for both leagues. At 2.45 he will officiate on the Shamrock grounds and at 3.15 on the Victoria grounds.

FIRE ON STMR. HAMPSTEAD

Lighted Cigar Thrown Into Mate's Room Started a Slight Blaze.

Fredericton, May 22.—There was a slight fire on the steamer Hampstead yesterday shortly before her arrival. Some careless person threw a lighted cigar stub into the mate's room and it set fire to the bedding. The flames were discovered and extinguished before much damage had resulted.

MARINE NOTES

Since Aug. 1st nothing has been heard of the steel four-masted sailing ship Alacra, which on that day left Delagoa Bay for Hong Kong with a crew of twenty-six. She has been posted at Lloyd's as missing. The vessel was commanded by Capt. James Thornton, of St. John (N. B.), and the chief officer was W. S. Palmer, of Dorchester (N. B.). Capt. Thornton, while trading to Delagoa Bay, was the victim of a robbery. He married Miss Callaghan, sister of Edward and the late Mrs. Thornton now resides in New York.

Montreal, May 22.—A bad time was experienced on the C. P. R. steamer Montrose this evening when twenty tons of sulphur in the hold became ignited, as the vessel was being unloaded.

The loss will not be heavy as the sulphur was in a large tank so that the water used in extinguishing the flames was not in contact with the cargo. The water would not cause much damage to the unburned sulphur.

EQUITY COURT

In the equity court yesterday afternoon application was made to Chief Justice Shaw on behalf of the plaintiffs in the suit of Shaw vs. Hunter, to continue an injunction issued some time ago, until hearing. The injunction was ordered continued, the parties agreeing to get down to hearing in July.

In the matter of William F. Lunn vs. Edward Chisholm, et al., a foreclosure suit, application was made to take the bill pro confesso for want of an appearance. The order was made accordingly. E. T. C. Knowles represented the plaintiff.

HOME FROM KLONDYKE

Rev. Elson Dunham, formerly of St. John, but who left here twenty years ago and is now located in Dawson City, Yukon, arrived in St. John yesterday. Rev. Mr. Dunham is a nephew of Mrs. J. M. McAvity, secretary of the Associated Charities. When he returns west he will be accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Dunham, who has been living with her sister, Mrs. Hall.

Mr. Dunham will preach in the Congregational church tomorrow.

REVIVAL IN ATHLETICS

No less than forty-six different competitors have entered for the sports on the Victoria grounds Monday afternoon. With such a beginning so early in the season, such a beginning of the facilities to continue practice which the Every Day Club will afford to athletes during the summer, there should be a general revival of interest in clean amateur sport. As soon as possible after the holiday the club will endeavor to provide some equipment for children who will be permitted at all times to have the use of a portion of the grounds for free play. A competent caretaker will always be in charge.

TEMPERANCE MEETINGS

At the Every Day Club hall at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon W. M. Campbell will discuss the arguments for and against the liquor traffic. There will be more than usually good musical programme, including an instrumental duet and several solos. In the evening at 8.30 Rev. E. W. Kelly will speak and there will be special music.

A fine trout has been mounted by Simbaldi and Ogden Smith, taxidermists, for William O'Keefe. The fish was caught in Victoria Lake and weighed three and one-half pounds. Mr. O'Keefe will send the fish to Charles Marston, proprietor of the Wilbur House, Fall River.
