HOCKEY

A CHALLENGE.
The Times-Globe hockey combination wish to challenge the team of so-called hockey players who recently represented the morning papers in a hockey game at the Queen's rink on Saturday afternoon. The evening papers have one victory to their credit and the morning journals have also a win on their side, so that the deciding game will be one of interest.

MONCTON, 27, FEBRUARY 27—(Special)—Upward of 1,000 spectators saw Moncton defeat Fredericton in the Provincial Hockey League match this evening. By a score of three to one, it was the most exciting game of the season, and while the result was foregone conclusion, the local fans are delighted to know that the home team scored the first goal in their territory the greater part of the time. One of the players, a Montrealer, scored the first goal for Moncton, and Craig scored the only other goal for the home team. When half-time was called, the score stood two to nothing in the visitors' favor.

Both teams put up whirlwind hockey in the second half, and excitement was intense. Fredericton scored from a mix up in front of the Moncton goal after five minutes' play, and the spectators almost went wild with delight. The approach had scarcely died away before Craig set the puck and landed it in the Fredericton net.

The game was a very clean one, only three players being sent to the bench. The work of Fredericton's players was notably bad, and they played with the snags. The Moncton players played with the snags and they played with the snags.

The Fredericton players were notably good. Jacques Tibbitts refereed the game with a highly satisfactory manner. The local sports made considerable money betting that Fredericton would win as follows—

Fredericton..... Goal.	Moncton.....
Finamore.....	Wortman.....
Staples.....	Brown.....
St. Staples.....	Cover Point.....
Malloy.....	Rover.....
Coleman.....	Crockett.....
Rowan.....	Cushing.....
Morrison.....	Tristram.....

The Moncton boys look upon their defeat at Fredericton last night as a bitter one, and they are determined to play the Maryville Monday evening, when the Croquet Club will host the game at the rink.

It is not expected that the offer will be made, and the players are expected to be satisfied to rest upon their laurels.

THE OAR

THE AMERICAN HENLEY.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 26.—Plans which are now rapidly maturing for the fourth annual regatta of the American Rowing Association, more popularly known as the "American Henley," to be held on the Schuylkill River, assure the amateur rowers of America that this regatta will be the greatest in its history of the association. Not only will it bring together the greatest number of club rowers, but college crews will predominate to a greater extent than ever before. The regatta will be held on May 28 as the date of the regatta, it is held at this time primarily that it may bring together the largest number of college rowers and not conflict with other regattas.

A very large attendance is expected from the four crews of the country. This will be the first regatta of the year and will naturally attract a great many entries on this account. The boat club crews from New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and Boston are expected to be on hand, while individual entries are looked for from Toronto, Detroit and other rowing centers.

The last of events have not been decided upon definitely, but they will probably be much the same as a year ago. There is likely, however, to be an addition of a new feature in the form of a "steerage" race, a first four-oared shell, for the first time, and if enough crews enter for it the race will be rowed. The following is the probable list of events—

1. First double scull, for Schuylkill club.
2. Second single scull, for New England cup.
3. First eight-oared shell, for steerage.
4. First single scull, for Farragut cup.
5. First pair-oared shell.
6. Second four-oared shell.
7. Second eight-oared shell.
8. Eight-oared scholastic shell race, for Franklin cup.
9. First four-oared shell, for Puritan cup.
10. Second four-oared shell, first four-oared shell.
11. Eight-oared junior college crews.
12. Octopole race.

THE RING

GANS AND SULLIVAN.

The March attraction to be offered by the San Francisco Athletic Club will be a fight between Joe Gans and Mike (Twin) Sullivan. They have been re-matched by Morris Levy to appear before the New Arcadia Club, of San Francisco, on March 31.

A great trial will be spread over the arena in the baseball park and the contest will be held in it. Gans and Sullivan have agreed to meet under practically the same conditions under which they fought recently, making 145 pounds at 6 o'clock and taking 10 per cent of the gross receipts, splitting them between themselves and the promoter. Gans gave Sullivan a sound beating in their recent bout, and it is a bad trade, down in Baltimore, Gans had allowed Sullivan to deliver him a round the ring to give an impression that he was "all in" then in Los Angeles, Gans won and profited by this former and showing. Of course the "prize" promoters do say each man has privilege to retire, but Gans has had saved up to them too frequently in recent years, but though it is set before them, they don't have to swallow it.

BRIT IS CONFIDENT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—When Jimmy Britt was informed that Billy Nolan, manager for Baiting Nelson, was about to depart for Los Angeles for a fight of $15,000 for a match with Herrera, but that he would keep his agreement to fight Britt first if the man, which was paid, the native son got warty.

"What have I got to do with the money?" he asked, "I'll give you anything but that, but I'll give you anything but that." "I wouldn't pay a cent to Nelson or anybody else for the privilege of getting in the ring and avoid a return match with me. Public opinion will force him into the ring." Hokey.

SWIMMING

GOING TO ENGLAND.

The Boston Transcript says: C. M. Daniels, New York Athletic Club, who made such great havoc among the records during the past week, will visit England this coming season and have a crack at all the championships from one hundred yards to a mile. Daniels is extremely anxious to return with the team, but is in England and prepare for the events. At New York, he has won three races—100, 200 and 400 meters.

MONCTON HERE SATURDAY.

What promise to be the fastest game this season is set for Saturday night in the Queen's rink here, when the Moncton "Vics." will host the Fredericton team.

It is said by many that St. John's is the most likely to be the champion, but since Monday's game opinion here has been that the Fredericton team will be blanked for the first time.

The game was a very clean one, only three players being sent to the bench. The work of Fredericton's players was notably bad, and they played with the snags.

WANDERERS. A. AMHERST.

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 27.—(Special)—The Wanders tie their third New Glasgow hockey team tonight by defeating the Amherst Wanderers, 4 to 0. At no time in the game did the Wanderers show any superiority. About 2,500 people were present and the Wanderers were blanked for the first time.

The game was a very clean one, only three players being sent to the bench. The work of Fredericton's players was notably bad, and they played with the snags.

The Amherst team being unable to reach Halifax, the Wanderers had to be content with shooting with any force or accuracy.

SKATING.

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 27.—(Special)—An exhibition ice skating race here tonight, with a prize of $100, was held at the Amherst rink. The race was won by William McDonald, who set a new record of 11.21 for the mile.

McDonald was a very clean skater and his performance was much admired. The race was a very clean one, only three players being sent to the bench. The work of Fredericton's players was notably bad, and they played with the snags.

It had been proposed also that Baysa should skate a three mile race with three men, taking a mile each in succession, but this was not done.

There is a lot of dissatisfaction at Westville with the skating rink. The rink is very small and the ice is not good. The rink is very small and the ice is not good.

BOWLING

TRAVELLERS WON.

The bowling game between the Wanderers and Travellers last night in Harry Pitt's alley, Main street, resulted in a victory for the Travellers, 148 to 98. The total of the Travellers' scores was 316.

The Wanderers' scores were: 148; Travellers, 148. The total of the Travellers' scores was 316.

Travellers—Lundey, 31; French, 34; Hugson, 35; Campbell, 36; Foster, 31.

WRESTLING.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 27.—Frank Gotch last night in Convention hall, won two matches in a wrestling match with Jim Barr, of England, in sixteen and thirteen minutes.

THE TURF.

Phoenix V. was the fore at Lewiston (N.B.) on Saturday, Feb. 24. The stakes were $100. Phoenix V. won the first race, the second race and the third race. Phoenix V. won the first race, the second race and the third race.

THE WORRIES OF WALL STREET

Will the Public Stay in the Market—Will Money Remain Easy and What Effect Will New Securities Have?

(New York Evening Post.)
The humbler explanation often given by the better promoters for the future. Accumulation of capital is going steadily on, and with it the process of absorption by investors of stocks and bonds now carried on loans in Wall Street. The business of dealing in securities in many ways shows a healthy character, and while it is true, the slow steady march of the market is not as rapid as it used to be. It is true, the slow steady march of the market is not as rapid as it used to be.

The fact that so few antlers of deer and moose are ever found in the woods is frequently the subject of comment. These antlers are shed every winter very few of them are ever found the next summer because of the work of rodents, insects and action of the weather, which pulverize the bone and might it will be very short time. Occasionally a hunter finds a pair of antlers which have somehow escaped the work of destruction which most of them meet, and he who does has a rarity.

There is one man in Maine who has had the distinction of finding a pair of moose antlers in the woods and man a Game Warden F. W. Austin of Fort Kent, one of the men who patrol the northern boundary of Maine to keep poachers from the Canadian side killing off the big game. Warden Austin and Joseph Michael of Eagle Lake have been offered to remain over and play the Martineaux Monday evening, when the Croquet Club will host the game at the rink.

It is not expected that the offer will be made, and the players are expected to be satisfied to rest upon their laurels.

MONSTER ANTLEERS

Maine Game Warden Found Big Pair in Woods—They Had Just Been Shed.

COMMENTS OF THE BROKERS

After the Bright & Co. Boston—After the next few weeks we should have a clearer view. Meanwhile we must own that there is a great underlying strength and that this reaction is more of pause than of a campaign. The rally came easily, and as the week days are all days also, while on recoveries the market broadens and becomes active, it seems that the technical position still favors the bulls.

We believe we are confident that the current questions that hold back activity will be solved favorably and that we shall have a good year in the market. We look for more discrimination than in 1922, but we see a good year ahead for judicious investment and we think that the course of the market since mid-November has been a message discouraging. Somehow we cannot get over the idea that this Boston market believes well and adding to the confidence activity, strength and good profits. But more and more it is necessary to be careful in trading among the copper. Some of them are looked for more advance; some not, we think. The wedding-ceremony has begun, there are copper and copper, and a word to the wise ought to be sufficient.

Curtis & Seligson, Boston—Sentiment in Wall Street at the moment is active; but we think the selling of stocks has been carried too far. There is now outstanding a very large amount of stock, which will eventually be driven to cover. The market has been given good support on all drives. The bull movement is over, it is hardly well founded. There have been no signs of a leop in London. The country promises to be more prosperous in 1923 than in 1922, and that is saying a good deal. A reaction of a few points after a sustained advance for months should not be interpreted to mean that the business boom is at an end.

UNION PACIFIC

(New York World.)

More than ordinary interest is felt in the affairs of the Union Pacific Railway Company just now, owing to conflicting statements relative to the disposition that the directors will make of the enormous treasury surplus that this company has on hand. At present market values the securities of other railroad corporations held by the Union Pacific are worth nearly $100,000,000. Besides having the right to distribute the bulk or part of this vast sum among the stockholders, the Union Pacific directors also hold $100,000,000 of new preferred stock. Here, indeed, are the possibilities of the cutting of a handsome melon. There is a hopeful contingency in Wall Street that looks for an early distribution of some of this surplus of Union Pacific assets. Certain conservative banking interests are affiliated with this property, however, and representatives of these banking interests have been seeking Wall Street for several days past that no extra dividend would be declared either this winter or spring. What may be done in midsummer or in the fall is another question.
