

LIBERAL LEADER AT WINDSOR, N. S.

Given Rousing Reception by Large Audience—Criticism of War Time Election Act.

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader, was accorded a rousing welcome at Windsor, N. S., yesterday. At a mass meeting in Drill Hall, the Liberal leader, Hon. H. S. Beland, M. P., William Duff, M. P., and D. D. MacKenzie, M. P., were the speakers, and addressing a capacity audience gave their views of Liberalism and national affairs. Dr. J. S. Black, ex-M. P., who presided at the meeting, declared that the seat had been taken from the Liberal candidate, L. H. Martell, under the war time election act in an undemocratic manner. Mr. Martell had been elected by the civic vote in 1917 but by unfair manipulation of the overseas vote he was declared defeated. Mr. King declared that people had been deprived of their representation through the war time election act. He said that Premier Meighen's speeches of late showed clearly that he and his followers were getting back more each day to the old time Tory tactics. The presence of "log-rolling groups" added Mr. King, was brought out by the hurrying for senatorships and judgeships by the supporters of Premier Meighen. Dr. Beland compared the conditions of the country in 1896 with now, saying that the same stagnation and poverty was existing now as then. He also dealt at some length with the tariff. On Saturday afternoon Mr. King will address a meeting at Bridgewater.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

The W. C. T. U. convention now underway in Fredericton heard an address last evening by Rev. W. D. Wilson, provincial organizer of the New Brunswick Temperance Alliance. The speaker made an appeal for as large a vote on October 10 as possible against the importation of liquor into the province for personal use. By a vote of 869 to 826 Moncton yesterday decided not to take over the electric light plant and street railways from the Moncton Tramways, Electricity and Gas Company. The plea of insanity set up by counsel for Newman Clark, charged with the murder of Phoebe Bell, was held by the jury yesterday at Andover. The jury was out one hour and a half and returned with their verdict. The judge ordered the prisoner to be taken to jail there to await the pleasure of the lieutenant-governor. Dr. J. V. Anglin, of St. John, could not swear positively that Clark was insane.

Regularity

Nujol makes you regular as clockwork. Without forcing or irritating, Nujol softens the food waste. The many tiny muscles in the intestines can then remove it regularly. Absolutely harmless—try it.

A special meeting of the Masonic Grand Lodge was held in the Masonic Temple in Germain street last evening. This meeting was called by the Worshipful Master, S. M. Wetmore, and was largely attended. The third degree was received last evening by seven candidates.

WEST SIDE FAIR IS WELL OPENED

The Carleton Curling Club opened a ten-day fair in its rink on the West Side last night at 8 o'clock. A fairly large crowd was in attendance. The booths on both sides of the long building were well patronized and the building was gayly decorated with flags and bunting. First on the right hand side was the refreshment booth, where Miss L. Adams was the convener and where coffee, cake and ice cream were dispensed. A grocery store booth was in charge of Roy Sealey. This booth proved a great success and the whole line of stock was sold out completely. At the next booth there was the new game of Jiggs and Maggie, which was highly popular with the gentlemen and which was handled by Harry Lingley, Percy Brown and Samuel Irons. The grocery wheel next to it was in charge of J. Frith Brittain. Another fortune wheel with blankets and five-pound boxes of chocolates as prizes was run by Charles Emerson. A bowling alley was in charge of Fred Desjardins. The shooting gallery was in charge of Harry Sheffield and J. Medley Belyea looked after the air gun gallery. Drinks were dispensed by Joe Nichols and C. W. Wetmore was in the Devil Among the Tailors' booth. The candy booth was in charge of the Misses McLeod. A $10 door prize was won by W. Smith and a $5 prize by George Olive. The prize winner at the air gun gallery was Bert Fullerton. A nine-pin prize was won by Roy Campbell. Harry A. Belyea is the general convener for the fair and is assisted by P. F. Brown and Sutton Roxborough. The games committee is composed of Harry Lingley, Samuel Irons and J. Frith Brittain. This evening the door prizes will be $10 for the first, $10 for the second and $5 for the third. Arrangements are being made to have St. Mary's Band in attendance tonight.

BUSINESS BRISK AT THE BAND FAIR

Everything was "going great" at the City Cornet Band's big fair in St. Andrews rink last night and the attendance figures jumped up 200 and more above the high mark made on the opening night. The band itself was in fine form and played some excellent selections. All the booths and wheels had good patronage but the most popular booth was undoubtedly the "bootery" where it was possible to put down a dime and become the possessor of whatever pair of boots or shoes most pleased the fancy out of an amazingly large array. Some of the presiding geniuses at the stalls flashed out bright smiles of wit that kept the crowd in high good humor and there was no doubt about the good humor of those who had secured one of the excellent prizes. The tickets for the around the world tour with the ninety-four cash prizes from $500, $250 downwards, had a record. Never before had they gone so quickly was the opinion of the organizers of the fair. James Connolly, the chief convener, was busy directing the ticket sale and W. A. Bridger in the store room had enough to keep him working all evening in replenishing the stalls as the prizes were won.

BARNESVILLE MEETING.

The Upham and Simonds Bible Society met at Barnesville last night in the Presbyterian church, and so large was the attendance that the church was completely filled. About 200 were present. Thomas Keyes, the president, was in the chair, and the report of the society's work for the year, which was read, showed that the year had been very successful and that the Upham and Simonds society stood second in the whole province in the proportion of the amount raised. Mr. Keyes feeling referred to the many faithful members who had died during the year. Addresses were given by Rev. P. S. Porter, secretary of the New Brunswick Bible Society, and Rev. H. E. Thomas.

A novelty shower was given last evening at the residence of Mrs. E. S. Townsend, 145 Queen street, in honor of Miss Anna Goodspeed, who is to be married shortly. Miss Goodspeed received a number of gifts which were displayed on a most quaintly arranged table, in the centre of which stood a miniature bride holding streamers of ribbons.

JUDGE RULES PICKET MENACE

New York, Sept. 29.—Pickets were held to be "unnecessary appendages to any law-abiding association" when Selah B. Strong of Brooklyn granted a temporary injunction to the A. L. Reed Company, leather goods manufacturers, of Richmond Hill, restraining the leather goods workers' union from interfering with the plaintiffs' business. In his decision Judge Strong said:

"It is not the labor organization in the shops which is objected to, but the paid agent, the walking delegate, and the picket of labor, who so often becomes a menace to society and a danger to liberty. It is because that great American principle of the greatest good for the greatest number is violated by the labor delegates and agents that the acts of these men and women must be so often restrained. No contract of any kind can permit the defendants or anyone to interfere with law and order. 'Neither capital nor labor must be permitted to stifle competition. Neither must be allowed to operate as a trust. These defendants are under the employ of a labor organization. What are they employed to do? Who pays their wages and salaries and how do they earn them? They describe themselves as 'pickets' and 'labor agents.' What do pickets and labor agents do? For what good purpose? Defendants come into court after having created trouble and disorder in and around the plant of the plaintiff, and they claim the right to direct the management of the plaintiff's plant as to the work and hours of employment, and also to the control of those employed, demanding among other things that all employees shall be members of their labor union as a condition of employment. As a matter of fact, were and are the defendants, self-described as pickets and labor agents, not paid their salaries by some labor union for the sole purpose of creating trouble? 'Today (since the war) we find that in Germany, where delegates of labor organizations have little hold, that the country is progressing industriously with renewed vigor; the people are working and getting ahead; the factories are doing overtime in night work. In England, on the other hand, where delegates of labor organizations have a greater hold, we find the long line of unemployed, with strikes in factories and confusion in all industries—capital and labor suffering alike because of the action of labor delegates. 'During the war did not the labor delegates in this country hold the government by the throat, when weak-kneed officials and public officers bent to their demands, instead of using the draft army for essentials? Did they not intimidate legislators and executive officers with their threats and sold at the courts and the judge who in the administration of justice did his duty in maintaining law and order? "The defendants allege in their answer that they are peacefully picketing. Why picket at all? Picketing and the posting of sentinels are done as war measures. Our laws and institutions will not permit of the waging of private war in such a manner."
