EQUALS RECORD OF BABE RUTH

Williams of Browns Pounds Out Another Homer.

Jacobson Backs Him Up with One and Detroit is Defeated—Halifax Wants Fifield and Chisholm; Hogan and Healey Bouts Next Week.

(Canadian Press) New York, April 25.—Kenneth Williams, left fielder of the St. Louis Browns, carved himself a niche in Babe Ruth's hitherto exclusive hall of fame yesterday when he cleared out his fifth homer in three days and tied the record made by the Babe last year. Williams hit three homers on Saturday and one each on Sunday and yesterday. This walling, with another homer by Jacobson, aided the Browns in downing Detroit and maintaining a tie with the Indians for second place. Wally Pipp also was in a home run mood, his sock in the eleventh, with one on base, giving the Yankees a decision over the Athletics and their sixth straight victory. One big inning, in which Shinnery timely hit brought home the winning run, enabled the Giants to nose out the Phillies, 3 to 2, while the Reds, although hitting St. Louis, felled poorly and dropped its seventh straight. Arldridge fanned the fast-going Pittsburgh Pirates and drove in the Cubs' winning runs with a triple. The Boston Braves gave the Dodgers another setback in a free-hitting contest. Cleveland and Washington broke their losing streaks. The Indians tying the White Sox in the ninth and getting to Faber for three hits and victory in the tenth, while the Senators pounded four Boston batters for an 11 to 3 victory. A LARGE SOCIETY The International Order of Henpecked Husbands.

London, April 25.—The place for holding the annual meeting of the "ancient and honorable international order of henpecked husbands," an organization having headquarters at Southey near Bradford, is being kept a strict secret. Last year's meeting, to ensure freedom from wifely interference, was held at an isolated spot on Blackstone Edge Moors. Much time will be required at this year's meeting for the consideration of a long list of applicants for membership, as each candidate must be cross-examined regarding his fitness to be dubbed "well and truly henpecked." The organization's stationery declares the order dates back to the year 8897 B. C.

Order Barthou To Insist on Terms of The Poincare Speech

Ultimatum to Russia or Break Up Conference is the Report.

French Premier's Address Cause of Consternation—No Plan for Pressure on Germany, but Desire to Let Nations Know of Attitude Before Action Taken at Genoa.

(Canadian Press Cable) London, April 25.—There is reliable information, declares a Central News despatch from Genoa today that M. Barthou, of the French delegation, received telegraphically today explicit instructions to insist at the conference on the terms contained in Premier Poincare's speech of Monday.

The French delegation, says the message, has declared it would press for a 48 hour ultimatum to Russia or else break from the conference altogether. It is added that Premier Poincare's speech created great consternation in conference circles.

Paris, April 25.—Premier Poincare has not adopted any plan for the further military occupation of Germany in case of a default in the German reparation payments on May 31, so it was asserted in official circles today.

The premier's speech yesterday, in which he declared France would, if necessary, undertake alone to see that the treaty of Versailles was executed in case of a default, is said to have been intended to make the governments policy clear and put an end to the rumors that France was persisting in an obscure attitude.

There is plenty of time to consider what should be done to oblige Germany to respect her engagements, it is pointed out, but M. Poincare desired to clear the ground right now, before action is taken. The French premier, it is explained, considered it necessary to let the Genoa conference know exactly the attitude of France before the conference took place.

Charles Jonart declared there was no more time for parleying with anyone on the reparations question; but that the moment had come to act. SOME DEMAND A MARCH ON BERLIN The newspapers, with the exception of the socialist and communist organs, expressed unreserved approval of the premier's declarations. The monarchists are worked up to the highest pitch and have placarded the dead walls of Paris with posters demanding a march on Berlin. Officials close to the premier, however, deprecate the idea that he will take any drastic, precipitate action. They forecast an earnest effort to find some means of putting pressure upon Germany without employing the arm.

Their prediction is that M. Poincare will invite the allies to act together, and if Great Britain refuses he will then announce that France is obliged to lift herself out of a situation in which she is given no help, and execute the treaty of Versailles.

If France is obliged to use her army, they declare, she will endeavor to make her action effective this time, which is taken to mean she will occupy more than the Ruhr Valley. Riga, April 25.—The Russo-German treaty which started the Genoa conference was agreed in Moscow after secret negotiations between Premier Lenin himself and Admiral Paul von Hintze, one of the principal diplomats of former Emperor William's regime, so it was said here yesterday on good authority.

April 25.—Foreign Minister Tchitcherin, of Soviet Russia declared to the Associated Press today that it was his firm intention to resist the Russian principle of nationalization which was blocking the conference here. "It is obvious," he said, "that the only serious obstacles to peace with Russia and general reconstruction are the pretensions of a few former owners of property in Russia."

As Hiram Sees It

"Well," said Mr. Hiram Houtman as the Times reporter, "Somebody dropped yesterday."

"It did," said the reporter. "I never seen the town so hot up," said Hiram.

"It was a new fight," said the reporter. "Well," said Hiram, "it won't do no harm. You fellows has been going on grumbling about things an' sayin' 'Oh, what's the use?' about long enough. I hope you're awake for good. D'you know what you orto do? You orto hev meetin's regular to talk over things an' find out how things is goin' on."

"Yes, sir. An' if I was the people I'd want's goin' on than you ever tried to know afore. Harry's right. It's your town—It's your City Hall—It's your business. Hop to it—an' you'll be all right—By Hen!"

HIS INTENTIONS ALL RIGHT—BUT—

There was one elector yesterday who was very decided—in fact vehement—in his choice of the man whom he favored to represent the voters of the city. The fact that his ballot did not figure in the general result is only by the way—he expressed his opinion and expressed it in a manner that left no room for doubt whatever. It was a "plumper" of the old-time variety, with some embellishments. It was evident that he attacked the ballot savagely. Only one name remained unscathed when it was withdrawn from the ballot box; the other five were subjected to a violent scoring which in some spots threatened to drive them clean through the paper. But the elector was not to be satisfied with his work so far, for he crowned his achievement by scribbling on the bottom of the ballot—"The others no dam good." It was evident that his last action caused his paper to be disqualified, but in the language of the prophets, "I should have said, 'I had my opinion and I gave it to you good and plenty!'"

SESSIONS OF THE W. A. ARE BEGUN

Annual Diocesan Meeting Begun in Trinity Church.

Several Hundred Members Present—Address of Welcome and Reply—Report of Mrs. Knowlton, Recording Secretary, Shows Growth During the Year.

The nineteenth annual meeting of the Frederick Diocesan branch of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Church of England of New Brunswick was commenced this morning in Trinity church with holy communion at 9:30 o'clock. There were more than 400 at the communion service, of whom more than 200 were communicants. The ritual was celebrated by Venerable Archdeacon Crowfoot, assisted by Venerable Rural Dean Sampson and Canon Armstrong and Daniel, Rev. A. L. Fleming preached on the text, "That ye might walk worthy of the Lord," and emphasized the need of the women's work of the women's auxiliaries. A special collection netted $71.16.

Following the church service, the delegates repaired to the school room for commencement of the business meeting. Mrs. L. R. Harrison, president of the Trinity branch and second vice-president of the diocesan branch, spoke a few words of welcome to the church.

The names of the new life members were called, and they were asked to rise. Those admitted to life membership at this meeting were: Miss Ina Mowry, Mrs. Parlee, Mrs. G. A. Kuhring, Mrs. Waterton, Mrs. T. H. Brooks, Mrs. E. A. Reid, Mrs. Walter Gimmer, Miss Emma Johnson, Mrs. H. H. Seely, Mrs. G. E. S. Keator, Miss Violet Gregory, Miss Elsie Millidge, Miss Grace Estey, Miss M. Dole, Mrs. E. W. Mair, Miss Frances R. Cadwallader, Mrs. Herman P. Belyea, Mrs. H. P. Buckland, and Mrs. W. P. Lane.

Mrs. G. F. Smith, the president, called for the reading of the minutes of the last annual meeting and they were passed. Address of welcome.

An address of welcome was given by Mrs. W. D. Foster as follows:—It is my privilege, today, on behalf of the president, the members of the executive, and the members of the woman's Auxiliary in St. John, to bid you welcome to this, our nineteenth annual meeting.

We are solicitous that this shall be the most helpful, as well as the very best annual that has been held in our diocese. It is no easy matter to come as a delegate, for you represent your own branch, and we are looking forward, with pleasure, to hearing the reports that you have brought us.

What I especially wish to urge upon you, at this present time—(when great and important responsibilities have been given, or thrust upon women)—when the voice of women is to be heard in matters affecting both church and state—is that it is of the utmost moment that their voice should ring true.

We, the Woman's Auxiliary of the Church of England—gathered here together from all parts of our diocese—are here to deal with matters deeply affecting the welfare of our church and our country, (for when we are working for our church we are, at the same time helping our country). We need to remember that new privileges and opportunities mean new duties and increased responsibilities. "To whom much is given, of them shall much be required."

Members of the auxiliary who have already attained some experience in public matters (through the work of our organization) should be willing, as far as we are able, when asked, to assist other members (less experienced) in coming to a wise decision either in the chosen word or by the silent vote. In our deliberations let us commence by showing ourselves conservative and yet progressive—cautious and yet courageous. Let us banish all that makes for prejudice and intolerance. Let us cultivate respect for the opinions of others, showing a willingness to consider all points of view, consistent with faithfulness to the great church to which we are all so proud to belong, and in whose interest we are holding these meetings.

Now for the final word, and it is friendship; the friendship of the members of the women's auxiliary. What a poor place this world would be if we were bereft of friends! You remember what a very wise man said, many years ago: "Let us cherish our friends, tenderly, because we know not whether they are to abide with us a long time or no."

We are here today not merely as acquaintances, but as friends. And as friends, we are looking forward to three happy days together.

Now listen to the words of the dear Lord: "Ye are My friends if ye do whatsoever I command you." This address was received with much handclapping and many expressions of approval from the delegates.

Mrs. Alexander of Campbellton, in replying, said that it gave her great pleasure to speak a few words in response to Mrs. Foster's kind greeting. She enthusiastically endorsed Mrs. Foster's words as to the friendship among the members of the women's auxiliary, and said that there was a need of more women of the right kind to join in this friendship and carry on the work being done by the association.

Mrs. Smith thanked the hospitality committee under the sponsorship of Mrs. M. D. Dwyer for the excellent work they had done in getting the delegates placed in homes. She said it had given her a great deal of pleasure to find the meeting getting such a good start with so many of the women present at the service in the church and was glad that they had had a chance to listen to Mr. (Continued on page 3, 4th column.)
