St. Johns Win Twice.
The St. Johns handed the speedy Newburyport team a double trimming on Saturday. Parlee pitched two innings of the afternoon game, after Kirkpatrick weakened, and then twirled the whole evening game. The St. Johns were strong with the bat in both games, and the outfield distinguished themselves more than once. Ware played a strong game for the visitors. The score in the afternoon game was 6-2.

The evening game was good and ended with the close score of 6-3. A peculiar situation arose when Umpire Howard called the game on account of darkness at the end of the eighth and the St. Johns all rushed to the clubhouse. The visitors demanded that the game be finished so the Saints returned and retired the visitors without a score.

South Enders Win.
On the South End diamond on Saturday evening the South End All-Stars defeated the Rocklands by a score of 6 to 3 in a fast and exciting game. The batteries were: For the winners, Sparks and Stone; for the losers, Colan and Jones.

East End Intermediates.
The East End Clippers took both ends of a double-header from the Imperials on Saturday afternoon at the East End diamond. In the first game the Clippers had the edge, the final score being 7 to 3. In the second game both teams played air-tight ball except in the fifth inning, when a costly error by Bettle on third with two out gave the Clippers their only run and the game. Batteries were: First game—For the Clippers, the Griffin brothers; for the Imperials, Mullaney and Johnston. Second game: For the Clippers, Ramsey and Griffin; for the Imperials, Rogers and Young.

New Brunswick Championships.

The semi-finals were finished in all the events of the New Brunswick provincial championships at Rothesay on Saturday. Today the finals will be played and tomorrow the challenge rounds in the men's singles and doubles will be run off. It was decided to allow the count in the men's doubles finals, which were started on Saturday night and called after Hudson and Fitzgerald had won two sets and tied the third at 10-10, to stand and to continue the match this morning, although George Holly, who referred to this event on Saturday, declared at the time that the whole match would have to be re-played. Harley and Wood are the other team in the finals.

Mrs. Babbitt, of Fredericton, won the provincial championship in the ladies' singles by defeating Miss Lucille Hawkins, also of Fredericton, in straight sets 6-1, 6-3, on Saturday.

Saturday's play resulted as follows:
Men's Singles, as defeated:
George Harley, Moncton, defeated W. T. Wood, Sackville, 6-4, 6-4.
George Hudson, Rothesay, defeated J. H. Thomson, Rothesay, 6-8, 7-5, 6-3.

Men's Doubles.
George Harley, Moncton, and H. M. Wood, Sackville, defeated Stanger Crockett, Fredericton, and H. W. McKiel, Sackville, 6-0, 6-2.
George Hudson and C. D. Fitzgerald, Rothesay, defeated W. T. Wood and H. E. Bigelow, Sackville, 1-6, 6-0, 6-1.

Mixed Doubles.
Miss Barbara Jack and George Hudson, Rothesay, defeated Mrs. D. S. MacLaren, Rothesay, and Stanger Crockett, Fredericton, 7-9, 6-0, 8-6.
Mrs. Babbitt, Fredericton, and George Harley, Moncton, defeated Miss A. Holly and R. B. Starr, of Rothesay, 6-0, 6-0.

Ladies' Singles.
Miss L. Hawkins, Fredericton, defeated Mrs. Campbell Mackay, Rothesay, 6-2, 6-1.
Mrs. Babbitt, Fredericton, defeated Miss Hawkins, Fredericton, 6-1, 6-3.
