AT THE UNIQUE

Sheldon Lewis in Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde Gives Fine Interpretation.

The Pioneer version of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" which is now being screened at the Unique, shows that Mr. Sheldon Lewis has made a careful and intelligent study of his dual role. In his portrayal there is displayed ability to get at the essence of nobility in Jekyll, quite as well as the hideous perversion of Hyde. It is a feature that will hold almost any audience.

Mr. Lewis is capably supported by clever cast and the settings are admirably chosen. Considering these values, and the drawing power of a story so widely read, the Pioneer version of this new masterpiece should prove a winner for those who patronize the Unique this week.

Business matters in connection with the club were discussed last night at a meeting of the Carleton Curling Club, held in the club rooms in Rodney street, with Fred B. Byles in the chair.

"CHEROKEE BILL" IS 123.

Aged Indian, Veteran of the War of 1812, Celebrates Birthday.

Grand Junction, Colo., June 29.—Cherokee Bill, veteran of the plains and soldier in the war of 1812, has just celebrated his 123rd birthday at the county home here.

Cherokee Bill is the only name he knows. In the early days of the country he fought with bow and arrow with the Indians and even used that primitive weapon, he says, when he fought the British in 1812, enlisting in the army when he was 18 years old. He was born June 6, 1797, and was twice listed in the United States census as the oldest native of America.

The aged Indian recently made a cap for himself out of the down of cat-tails and wears this proudly when he hobnobbs along the streets occasionally with the aid of a cane he has owned since the civil war. He is getting feeble, though he still has a good appetite.

GABY'S JEWELS ON VIEW. Dancer's Collection of Pearls Called the Finest Ever Seen in Paris.

Paris, June 29.—The jewels of the late Gaby Deslys, French dancer and actress, who died Feb. 11, were placed on exhibition here prior to their sale the benefit of the poor of the city of Versailles, as provided in Mile. Deslys's will.

According to connoisseurs, the collection comprises the finest assortment of pearls ever seen in Paris. Although diamonds, rubies, sapphires, emeralds and other precious stones are adequately represented, they are not quite so conspicuous, the dancer's hobby having been pearls.

One necklace contains fifty-seven pearls valued at several million francs, and there are two pendant pearls, weighing 100 grams each, being absolutely the same in size and weight. Another pearl, black in color, weighs 140 grams, while there are seven other pearls weighing from 70 to 100 grams each. All the pearls were selected and matched with exquisite taste.

8 Fruits on Call

Real fruits—in Jiffy-Jell desserts

No mere flavors

Millions of homes in the past three years have adopted a new-type quick gelatine dessert.

You know the old type. The fruit flavors come in dry form in the mixture.

In Jiffy-Jell the fruit flavors come in liquid form, in vials. There's a bottle in each package.

You get no mere flavors, no artificial flavors. You get the real fruit juice condensed to an essence. You get the healthfulness and the delights of fruit.

Fruits are crushed

Jiffy-Jell flavors are made by crushing the ripe fruit. Then the juice is condensed to an essence, and sealed in glass.

A wealth of the real fruit flavor comes in each dessert. For instance, we crush half a pineapple to flavor one Jiffy-Jell dessert.

The half-pineapple would cost you about as much as the whole dessert. But we crush the fruit in Hawaii—fruit too ripe to ship. And we bring you a rich pineapple dainty at a trifling cost.

So with loganberries. We crush many berries to make the flavor for Jiffy-Jell dessert. And so with all the fruits we use.

Fruits cost little

You get the real fruit in Jiffy-Jell at a trifling cost. And fruit is a daily essential. In jam or marmalade equal fruit would cost you several times as much. Jiffy-

An exquisite fruit flavor

Jell comes ready-sweetened. And with sugar, not with saccharine. It comes acidulated with lemon or grape acid. So you get two fruits, and much of both, in a Jiffy-Jell dessert.

Simply add boiling water, then the flavor from the vial, and let cool. One package of Jiffy-Jell serves six people in mold form, or twelve if you whip the jell. A serving costs less than an apple.

Try this new type

Jiffy-Jell will change your whole idea of these quick fruity dainties. Once try it and you will serve it always.

Get it today from your grocer. Get the three or four flavors you like best. Include Loganberry and Pineapple.

It will show you how to add delights to countless dinners at little cost.

Tart salads too.

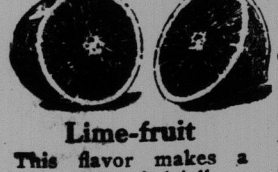

Lime-fruit flavor makes a tart green salad jell. Serve with your salads or mix the salad in and make a salad loaf. Or mix in meat scraps and make a zesty meat loaf—meat in aspic.

Mint flavor makes a green mint jell—far better than mint sauce to serve with meats. It also makes an appetizing side dish.

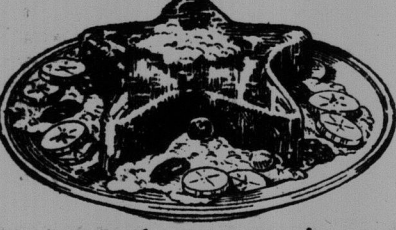

Try several flavors, they will be a revelation.
