REFUGEE CHINESE
TURNED OUT OF PEKIN HOTEL

Action Result of Conference of British, French and American Diplomats.

Peking, Sept. 1.—(Associated Press Correspondence)—Representatives of America, France and Great Britain took concerted action at an informal meeting of the diplomatic corps a few days ago calling to consider what steps should be taken in view of the practical certainty that the defeated Anfu leaders would seek refuge in the legations. The diplomats did not announce what course they would pursue with respect to giving asylum, in case it were demanded, in the legations proper, but sent notices to their nationals residing in the legation quarter, calling attention to a clause in the protocol of 1900 prohibiting the residence of Chinese, other than employes, in the quarter.

Inasmuch as the notices were sent to secretaries and clerks of legations the action was generally regarded as tantamount to notice that such refugees would not be received in the legations.

Although most of the legations were represented at the meeting, the other ministers reserved the right to take individual action. Dr. C. D. Tenny, councillor, represented the American legation in the absence of Minister Crane.

Practically the only institution affected by the decision of the three ministers was the British-owned Hotel Wagons-Lits, which had become the haven of Chinese who feared that they might suffer at the hands of looters or otherwise. The male contingent of these refugees were given forty-eight hours in which to vacate. The rule did not apply to women and children, many of whom stayed on.

NO FEAR OF BOLSHEVISM
IN GERMANY

German Delegate to Communist Conference Says the Country Could Not Submit to Dictates of Few.

Berlin, Sept. 18.—(Associated Press Correspondence)—Only romancers and dreamers believe that the Russian Red army will eventually strike at Germany and seek to establish a soviet here with the aid of which it will make war on France, declares Wilhelm Dittman, an independent Socialist member of the Reichstag.

Dittman, who was one of the German delegates to the Moscow communist congress, in an article in the Freiheit, turns upon Bolshevism, which, he declares, is an impossible system which can exist only in Russia because of the "crass ignorance of the Russian peasants."

"German workmen," he goes on, "who are not two-legged beasts but upstanding human beings, would never submit to the dictatorship of a few." He says they have nothing in common with men who "are neither socialists nor communists and generally have only a vague understanding of politics, government and society."

"They are mostly unable to read and write," Dittman continues, "and their horizon hardly extends beyond their own thresholds, as might have been the case of the German peasants of the middle ages. And these men constitute seventy-five per cent. of the entire population of the country."

"Blind passion and high ardor," he concludes, "have idealized Soviet Russia as a land where all the wrongs of the proletariat have an end. Hitherto, the exclusion of Soviet Russia from western Europe has helped to crystallize and firmly establish these illusory conceptions."

CLEANLINESS IS HEALTH
By the use of Gillett's Lye, house cleaning is made a pleasure instead of a drudgery. It softens the water and cleans thoroughly whether the dirt is visible or invisible. Destroys all bacteria and infectious germs, removes obstructions from drain pipes, closets, sinks, etc. Refrigerators are made delightfully fresh and clean by using one teaspoonful of Gillett's Lye dissolved in two gallons of water.
