DEATH OF INFANT
 The death of Helene, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Parlee of 43 Forest street, occurred yesterday. The funeral service will be held this evening, at the parents' home, and the body will be taken to Head of Millstream, Kings County, tomorrow for burial.

YACHTING PARTY
 The steam yacht "Ewayca," owned by J. F. Williamson, returned yesterday after a week's cruise along the river. The outing was very enjoyable, particularly since fine weather was encountered throughout. In the party aboard were Mr. and Mrs. John O. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Wilson, Miss Jessie Wilson of North End and others.

COSTLY LODGINGS
 As a result of the number of fires that have been breaking out in the North End lately, the police have been keeping a close watch over all the barns and sheds in the district. Last night Policeman Briggs found a man named Harry Cook in a barn off Elm street peacefully slumbering under an old tarpaulin. He was taken into custody and fined $8 or 2 months in the police court this morning.

STOLE TO BUY LIQUOR
 Archibald Parker who was arrested last evening charged with stealing $8 from Charles Raynor, a sailor on the steamer St. George, said that he had taken the money to buy liquor when he was brought up in court this morning. This brought a severe lecture from the bench. Parker promised to make an order out to Raynor for the D. A. R. which he is employed. The magistrate suggested that it would be well if some such arrangement could be made but in the meantime remanded Parker to jail.

HIS MEMORY FAILED
 William Duffy, who caused so much trouble in the guard room last evening that he was sent to the D. A. R. ward, would fatally hurt himself, was before the magistrate in a dilapidated condition this morning. In reply to His Honor he said that he had been released on Monday and re-arrested Tuesday. He started in quite confidently to tell who gave him the liquor which brought about his arrest, but seemed to suddenly become forgetful, and after wandering aimlessly for a few minutes was told to sit down. He was remanded.

MATCH BRIGANDS ARE FRUSTRATED

Law Requiring Only Safety Lighters in Public Places is Rough on Man-About-Town—Must Buy His Own Stock Now

A rude jolt has been dealt the St. John match pirates. For some time past the only people in St. John who have been buying matches have been the hotels, restaurants, saloons and individual householders. The man-about-town has replenished his stock from that hospitable source by the other places. If one of these ran out of matches any time all he had to do was to walk into the nearest hotel or restaurant, grab a double handful of lucifers and walk out again, supplied for a week.

This morning, as if by concerted agreement, nearly all the hotels and restaurants had generous displays of matches on their counters, but they were of the "strike-on-the-box" kind. A strip of phosphorus hung alongside for the matches to be struck on. Unless he had a match box in his pocket the match fiend had to content himself with only one lucifer and strike it when he took it.

"Works like a charm," said one unusual thing for us to get through two and sometimes three large boxes of "strike-anywhere" matches a day. Now the one box looks likely to last us a week.

The explanation of the change is to be found in the enforcement of the fire laws which prohibit the use of any but safety matches in public places.

TOO MUCH FOR JIMMIE!

Crack American Billiard Player Fails to Recognize the English Game Under Same Name

Jimmie Moran, one of the crack billiard players of the United States, arrived at the Royal today and registered from New York. He and his wife are up here on their vacation. To pass the time Jimmy strolled into the billiard room and stood looking on at a billiard game in progress.

His face grew more and more mystified as the game proceeded and the scoring evidently was beyond him. Finally he turned to a man at his side.

"Pardon me," he said, "but would you mind telling me what they call that game?"

"Billiards," answered the man accosted.

Jimmy went back to the bar and hailed a friend.

"Say," he said, weakly, "is this an asylum, or am I the only crazy galoot here? Here am I, with a record of 310 to my credit at the Waldorf tournament in New York, looking at a game I never heard of before, which they tell me is billiards! The cues are long and narrow, the tables big with pockets and the players play with an accent! Robert, the going house!"

 BOARD OF TRADE

Establishment of Moving Picture Studio Here Would be Great Publicity Feature; Would Circulate Money Also

A gentleman who is interested in the moving picture business and familiar with all its details talked with the Times this morning about the possibility of the Vitagraph Company of Chicago establishing a studio in St. John. The matter was dealt with in an interview with the representative of the company in this morning's Telegraph. The gentleman who spoke to the Times about it pointed out that the establishment of such a studio would not only prove a most valuable advertisement of the city and province, whose scenes would be reproduced in connection with the photoplays, but it would bring to the city a large staff of people and cause a large expenditure for materials and supplies of one sort and another. The chief benefit, of course, would be in the publicity given to the city and province hereabouts, which could not fail to attract a great many tourists. This gentleman expressed the opinion that the board of trade might very properly interest itself in this matter, and encourage the company to consider St. John favorably as a location for one of its studios.

H. C. Groat Returns From Time-Table Conference—New Track-Layout at West St. John

The reported endeavor on the part of outsiders to purchase the Prince Rupert, now on the St. John-Digby service, found no confirmation from H. C. Groat, general superintendent of the C. P. R., who returned today from Boston, where he attended an international convention of time-table men.

"I have not heard about it," was Mr. Groat's answer when asked about the Prince Rupert matter.

The general superintendent said that the matters brought up and decided upon at the time-table convention in Boston would have no effect on the Canadian Pacific time tables. "The talk was chiefly technical and was of interest mostly to American railroads," he said.

Regarding the trackage on the West Side, near the grain elevators, ground for which was granted by the city council two weeks ago, Mr. Groat stated that it was the purpose of the railroad only to build four tracks adjacent to the cattle pens for the accommodation of the street cars. There was no project on foot to establish switching yards on the site, he said.

MAJORITY AGAINST NEW BUILDING LAW
 NEARLY A THOUSAND

The official count in the referendum of yesterday dealing with the proposed by-law regarding the erection of three-decked houses in the city which was completed this morning at City Hall, showed the number of votes against it as being 1,426, as opposed to 488 in favor of it. The count published in the Telegraph this morning was correct with the exception of one vote in Sidney ward to be added against the by-law, making the total vote polled, 1,406, was very small, and showed that but little interest was manifested actively by the major portion of the citizens. Whatever organization was in evidence was in favor of the "no," and in every ward the greater number of scores were placed through the "yes" on the ballot signifying that the voter wanted the law allowing the erection of three-decked houses to continue unchanged.

The official count was:

	For-law.	Against
Sidney	29	58
Duke	37	60
King's	82	104
King's	81	83
Wellington	65	162

COMMON COUNCIL

A special meeting of the common council was to have been held this afternoon to deal with certain matters left over from the regular meeting on Monday. It was necessary that the whole council should be present, but Commissioner McLellan did not know with certainty whether or not he could attend, so the meeting may not be held. Besides matters of paying the question of a bond issue for the reconstruction of the Magee wharf are to be dealt with. There has been no further development in connection with the arrangements for a berth for the New York steamship line desirous of coming here.

WILL SEE HYDROPLANES
 On Monday the steam yacht Hindelle, belonging to the Prince Albert of Monaco, sailed from Halifax harbor for Baddeck where His Serene Highness will spend several days visiting Prof. A. Graham Bell, the sage of Beinn Breagh. During the Prince's stay at Baddeck, F. W. Baldwin, better known to Halifax yachtsmen as "Casey" and owner of Serappier II, quondam coronation Cup holder, will give demonstrations of hydroplanes constructed under the supervision of Prof. Bell.

WILL BURN THE MORTGAGE
 The "Practice Boys" of West St. John have raised the money due on the mortgage on their hall and the document will be burned at a public gathering in the hall in the near future. A committee has been appointed to arrange for the occasion.
