ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS.

The examinations in the grades 8 in the city were begun this morning and more than 300 pupils are writing for High School entrance. The examinations will be concluded this week, but the results will not be known for several weeks. The examinations in classes in the High School will for the most part not be completed until next week. Some of them have been started, while others will be begun in a day or two.

A FRACTURED ARM.

A painful accident occurred at Pendennis on Saturday evening, when Gauncey Burton, of Summer street, aged about eighteen, fractured his left arm in a fall from a veranda. Young Burton, who is employed with O. H. Warwick, King street, had gone to Pendennis to spend the weekend with friends and the accident caused great regret among them. Dr. Allingham of Westfield was hurried to the place, and later the injured boy was taken home in a motor boat.

TELEPHONE CASE.

The Public Utilities Commission resumed the telephone enquiry this afternoon at 2.30. Col. Vince of Woodstock, the chairman, and Commissioner O. M. Melanson of Moncton, and F. P. Robinson, the secretary, arrived today. It was the intention that argument be commenced this afternoon, as all the evidence is supposed to be in. It has not been determined whether or not counsel for the New Brunswick Telephone Company or counsel for the petitioners will open.

POLICE COURT.

In the police court this morning Peter Callaghan and Thomas Hurley were fined $8 or 30 days in jail, while John Mudge, George Brown, Archibald Quinn and Newton Wilbur were all remanded on the same charge. The case against the Odell family was brought up. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Little, who live next door to the defendants, gave evidence of having heard cursing and swearing going on in the Odell house on Friday night last. James Alexander also gave evidence. As Police-man O'Leary, who made the arrest, was not in court, the case was adjourned.

SPECIAL BOOKLET.

The Times-Star is in receipt of an attractive booklet with a handsomely designed cover, for the passenger department of the C. P. R. It is a copy of those which were printed for use on the Empress of Ireland when she carried the coronation contingent to the other side. The booklet contains a complete list of the officers and soldiers as well as some interesting data relative to the great national event. It also contains a list of the saloon passengers. The booklet is worthy of much commendation for its originality and neatness of design as well as being a pleasing souvenir.

NOW THINK THEY ARE NOT THE MEN

Three Arrested on Suspicion of Sussex Break, it is Declared, Will Likely be Freed This Afternoon

Rennie Cormier, Joseph McCoy and Oliver Cormier, three young men, were arrested by Detective Killen and Deputy Chief Jenkins on the Marsh Road yesterday on suspicion in connection with the burglary in the Sussex Butter and Cheese Company's store in Sussex on Saturday. They were brought before Judge Ritchie in the police court this morning. They said that they were from Fitchburg, Mass., and that they had been working in Moncton.

It is not believed that the men had no connection whatever with the robbery as they did not answer the description sent to St. John by Chief of Police McLeod of Sussex. It is said to be altogether likely that they will be discharged this afternoon.

A Boston special to the Times says that the Cormier's and McCoy are not known to the Fitchburg police but it is thought they may be French-Canadian mill operatives out of work and on the way for their home in the province.

DECORATION WORK ADVANCES

From the decoration work commenced on the Custom House today the big building will present a fine appearance on Thursday. Over the main entrance is an arch of royal purple studded with big rosettes of red, white and blue, and this same effect will be carried out over the two smaller entrances. The two circular windows over the main doorway are filled in with large blue rosettes, and the intention is to have streamers of flags draped from the centre window on either side of the big door. Then added to this the flag poles will be gay with many flags. The work is being done by Mazanoly Bros & Co., the decorations being laid out by A. A. Irvine of that firm. The work so far reflects great credit on him.

PROBATE COURT MATTERS

In the probate court today the matter of the estate of Joseph Naves, laborer, came up. He died intestate, leaving his wife, Mary Jane Naves, and children. There is no real estate; personal estate of nominal value, only consisting of a leasehold without any improvements; administration was granted to the widow, Hester D. Forbes is proctor.

In the estate of James Lawton, there was return of a citation to pass the accounts of the trustees, Joseph R. Stone, the principal trustee being absent from the city, on motion of D. King Hazen the hearing was postponed until Wednesday next at 11 a. m.

In the matter of Theresa Colohan, on the application of Daniel Mullin, K. C., the date of the return of the citation to pass the accounts was extended until July 24.

In the matter of the estate of Fannie E. Palmer there was an adjourned hearing of a citation to pass the accounts of the executors. In consequence of the absence of Hon. Senator Wood, one of the executors, the further hearing was adjourned until Tuesday, July 4. E. T. C. Knowles is proctor.

In the matter of the estate of Margaret Edgson, the executors filed their accounts with a petition to pass them. A citation was issued returnable on Monday, July 31 at 11 a. m. J. Roy Campbell is proctor.

CLOSE-FITTING COLLARS THAT STAY CLOSED IN FRONT

The head of the collar button is placed outside the outer fold of the collar. Then the long end is brought over and notched on.

Isn't it simple? So much simpler than buttoning collars on, that it is like electric lights to candles.

If you are a progressive—a man who likes to know the new things and move along in the world—get used to this new way of putting on a collar.

Notching a collar on is not only easier than buttoning it on, but it means a better fitting and a better sitting collar.

No more broken finger nails.
No more ripped out button holes.
No more gaping front collars.

Let us show you the new Arrow (notch) collars They sit close up above the neck, and yet have generous space for the band and the knot of your cravat.
