

A WIFE'S MESSAGE Cured Her Husband of Drinking.

Write Her Today and She Will Gladly Tell You How She Did It.

For over 20 years her husband was a hard drinker. He had tried in every way to stop but could not do so. At last she cured him by a simple home remedy...

MRS. MARGARET ANDERSON, 150 Home Avenue, Hillburn, N. Y. Please tell me how you used to cure your husband, as I am positively interested in one who drinks.

JUVENILE COURT. Pleasant Evening Spent by Youthful Members of Foresters' Lodge.

Court Excelsior, No. 1, of the Juvenile Ancient Order of Foresters, gave a very successful entertainment Tuesday night in the A.O.F. hall.

The officers for the ensuing half year that were elected are as follows: Past Chief Ranger, E. P. Lewis; Chief Ranger, E. Nickolls; Sub Chief Ranger, H. Curtis; Senior Woodward, J. Davis; Junior Woodward, J. Curtis; Senior Beadle, B. Jenkins; Junior Beadle, N. S. E. Alexander.

Great praise was given to Bros. N. S. E. Alexander, E. Davis and W. Hicks of the committee for their arrangements for the pleasant evening that followed. Refreshments were served after the concert.

The Juvenile Foresters' rifle and drum band, just newly organized, rendered excellent selections during the evening.

LAW EXAMINATIONS. Additional Names to the List of Successful Candidates at Recent Tests.

In addition to the results of the law examinations published in "Tuesday's" paper the following gentlemen were successful in the first intermediate examination: W. D. Gillespie, P. A. Babington, J. M. McLean and A. Donaghy.

A meeting of the instructors of the Boys' Scout brigade was held Tuesday night, when the patrol leaders and corporals were given their first lessons in samophone signalling.

G. V. Lawry who recently resigned his position as secretary of the Victoria Island board of fire underwriters, will leave in a few days to take up a position at Salt Lake City as secretary to the similar body there.

Mr. Lawry's successor for the position of secretary is expected to reach Victoria to-night.

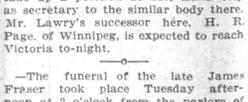

The funeral of the late James Fraser took place Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the parlors of the Victoria Undertaking Company, where Rev. W. Leslie Clay conducted an impressive service. There was a large attendance of friends and many flowers were sent. The following acted as pallbearers: C. D. Smith, B. Davison, B. Shaw and S. Baxter.

The report on the city's system of fire protection, made by C. E. Wagner, inspecting engineer for the board of fire underwriters of the Pacific, has been printed and copies may be obtained on application at the office of the association. Mr. Wagner's report gives very exhaustively into the whole subject and contains much information of value.

A canvas is now being made of the auxiliary branches of the Vancouver Island Development League for the purpose of selecting the location for the holding of the annual meeting. At present Victoria and Nanaimo are the two places that seem to be in the favor, but as the latter city is the most central it is expected that it will be chosen as the meeting place.

The annual meeting of the Men's Own Association of the First Congregational church was held Tuesday. After a supper had been served the reports for the year from the various officers were heard. The reports all proved gratifying and showed that the class was in a prosperous condition. The following officers were elected to represent the class for the ensuing year: President, John Sinclair; Vice-president, S. Johnson; secretary, R. A. Robinson; treasurer, T. Liddard.
