Number of Passengers Were Drowned. While Others Were Buried Beneath the Wreckage.

Pueblo, Col., Aug. 8.-The Missouri Pacific flyer crashed through a bridge over Dry creek on the Denver & Rio Grande, about eight miles from Pueblo, at 8 o'clock last night. It is estimated that of the 125 passengers on board the train between 80 and 100 lost their lives. either under the waters of the torrent, due to a cloudburst, or beneath the wreckage.

When the news reached Pueblo, a special train bearing all the available surgeons, and the Rio Grande and Missouri Pacific officials, left for the scene. About 1 o'clock a second train carrying stretchers, coffins and a number of offi-cials was sent out from the Union station.

The relief train returned to the city at 1.45 a. m., bringing those who had escaped with their lives, numbering about 26. All the others so far as known are dead.

The following dead have been identified: Dr. W. H. Mook, Miss Elia Wood, W. H. Lammon, Mrs. W. H. Lammon, Mrs. Minnie Selby, a music teacher, and Lowell Dunman, a clerk.

Dry creek, which is one mile north of Eden, is 50 feet wide, 15 feet deep and. has steep banks. The water was flowing: over the trestle as the train started to cross. The engine got almost over, slipped back and the baggage car, smoker and chair cars plunged bato the torrent. The engine fell on its right side. Thechair car was carried half a mile down Fountain creek. The baggage and smoker were washed down the stream, and were not located until several hours after the wreck. The diner and sleeper did not go down.

Dry creek empties into the Fountainess than half a mile below the wreck, and it was dry two hours after the accident. The bodies of two women and a girl, probably 15 years of age, who were first to be recovered, were found half a mile below the wreck. They were among the occupants of the chair car. The bodies were covered with mud, and have not been identified.

Undertaker Collier is at the scene, and the bodies are being placed in boxes and ought to this city.

The body of the engineer was found 200 feet down the stream. The chair car was found a mile from the scene of the accident, half filled with sand, under per of bodies were buried. The express car was found near the cene of the wreck with the safe openand the content's gone.

May Reach One Hundred.

Pueblo, Col., Aug. 8.-Latest estimates of the loss of life by the wrecking of the Missouri Pacific flyer at Dry creek last night put the total at one hundred or more. It is believed there were fully 125 people on the ill-fated train, and only about two dozen survivors have been ac

With the breaking of the day the full norror of the scene, which was concealed to a great degree by the mantle of night, ecame apparent. Wreckage is visible in all directions, dead bodies being seen here and there in the piles of debris from the cars, driftwood and mud. Many of bodies were swept down the creek by the wall of water which carried several coaches nearly four miles away from the point where they went through the bridge.

Among the missing are Engineer H. S. Hinman, Conductor Bash Smith, Denver; Messenger S. Reeves, Denver, and probably from 75 to 90 passengers. The Pullman crew of six men and firemen vere rescued

When Division Supt. Bowers reached he scene of the wreck the missing cars nad not been located, and the passengers and train hands who accompanied him organized searching parties to follow the ourse of the river. Three cars were und close to the shore in Fountain creek, of which Dry creek is a tributary, and which in turn flows into the Arkan sas river. Most of the dead were in the cars buried under the debris.
