

TEMPERANCE COLUMN.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union of St. J. N. B.

Let the people who were once the ignorant, the good and the bad, the wise and the foolish, and in the end you shall see the result.

MRS. HARRISON LEE.

An Australian lady, now on a visit to England. In 1884 she started the temperance pledge. Experience in the cause of a thousand ways of organizing meetings, the officers, secretaries, conductors and members of Bands of Hope, the last six years Mrs. Lee has been working under the auspices of the Victoria Alliance, but has also kindred organizations wherever opportunities occurred. The Victoria Alliance is a union of every branch of temperance movement, therefore means of literature and other means, have as large a variety of methods as its political propaganda. The latter is stoutly supported. Thousands have signed the pledge. Mrs. Lee's meetings were held in the liquor stores, where she addressed legal suits for the liquor and moral suasion for the temperance.

It has been done in the power of simple faith in God. At the time Mrs. Lee started for the Gipsiesland to contest licenses, a railway ticket in her pocket to her first part of the way, and a crown in her pocket. A wild ride of horse back, as from yesterday the United States government requires certificates of health of all shipments of sheep from this country. The postmaster general expects to attend the international postal conference at Washington next week. E. Kempf, oyster expert to the government, has been instructed to proceed to Nova Scotia to examine certain oyster beds, with a view to replanting. The mouth of Belvoir, Yarmouth county, will probably be chosen as one site. If the supreme court today the argument was continued in the ship Cuba v. McMillan. The appeal is from the decision of the admiralty court of Nova Scotia, assessing the Cuba for $8,000 damages caused by the collision in the roadstead of Sydney harbor, occasioned, as alleged, through improper navigation of the Cuba, and the failure by her captain and pilot to observe the rules of the road applicable to the narrow channel navigation. Mellish for appellant; Harris, Q. C. for respondent; judgment reserved.

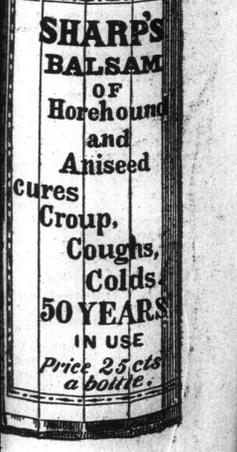

The case of McLoughlin v. McLellan was next taken up. This is an appeal from the supreme court of Nova Scotia, affirming the validity of the probate of the will of the late J. A. McLellan, deceased, of St. John, N. B., which was made in the presence of witnesses below on the ground of irregularity in execution and undue influence by the beneficiaries. Mellish for appellant; Laurance for respondent; judgment reserved.

Shortly before adjournment the case of Jones v. McKean was taken up, in which argument will be continued tomorrow. Montreal, Nov. 3.—A fire broke out this evening in a house occupied by Thos. Hazlewood and his family, and before all the inmates could be removed three of the children, aged 8, 12 and 14 were burned to death. Hazlewood is bookkeeper for the East End Abattoir Co.

Ottawa, Nov. 4.—An astronomical and triangulation survey of Lake Erie is now being carried on by the surveyors of the interior department to more accurately determine the international boundary. The government dairy station at Prince Albert turned out 27,108 pounds of butter this season and Indian Head 23,322. In two or three years Prof. Robertson hopes to give an account of his wife. If one camp can afford to open for husband hunting, the natural domain is the British Columbia is supposed, there no more odd made in Canada.

NONNE NEED BE LERT.

do you want to get married? If you do, you must be careful. A man who is not careful in his choice of a wife, is like a man who is not careful in his choice of a business partner. A man who is not careful in his choice of a wife, is like a man who is not careful in his choice of a business partner.

It's Hard to Tell

Which to advertise, our Coats and Ulsters, or Waterproofs and Umbrellas. However, for value on either come to CHEAPSIDE.

FRASER, FRASER & CO.

40 and 42 King Street..... Cheapside.

OTTAWA.

Ottawa, Nov. 3.—As under the postal law license stamp vendors cannot purchase stamps from merchants, etc., but only from the department, in order to make it easier for merchants to seek a redemption of the postal stamps sent to them as remittances, Hon. Mr. Mulock has reduced the discount from 5 to 1 per cent. on stamps aggregating in value one dollar and over. They must be pasted on sheets and sent to the department here. No postage is required on letters to public departments.

The militia department will encourage marching and shooting competitions as recently carried out in No. 2 district. That is, teams to march eight miles in two hours, quarter and immediately commence target practice.

Hon. Mr. Mulock has asked all post office inspectors to report on mail contracts by water conveyance, with a view to revising them. One hundred and sixty contracts were cancelled last night; forty today.

The local veterinary inspectors of sheep for the export have been appointed all over Canada, as from yesterday the United States government requires certificates of health of all shipments of sheep from this country.

The postmaster general expects to attend the international postal conference at Washington next week. E. Kempf, oyster expert to the government, has been instructed to proceed to Nova Scotia to examine certain oyster beds, with a view to replanting. The mouth of Belvoir, Yarmouth county, will probably be chosen as one site.

If the supreme court today the argument was continued in the ship Cuba v. McMillan. The appeal is from the decision of the admiralty court of Nova Scotia, assessing the Cuba for $8,000 damages caused by the collision in the roadstead of Sydney harbor, occasioned, as alleged, through improper navigation of the Cuba, and the failure by her captain and pilot to observe the rules of the road applicable to the narrow channel navigation. Mellish for appellant; Harris, Q. C. for respondent; judgment reserved.

The case of McLoughlin v. McLellan was next taken up. This is an appeal from the supreme court of Nova Scotia, affirming the validity of the probate of the will of the late J. A. McLellan, deceased, of St. John, N. B., which was made in the presence of witnesses below on the ground of irregularity in execution and undue influence by the beneficiaries. Mellish for appellant; Laurance for respondent; judgment reserved.

Shortly before adjournment the case of Jones v. McKean was taken up, in which argument will be continued tomorrow. Montreal, Nov. 3.—A fire broke out this evening in a house occupied by Thos. Hazlewood and his family, and before all the inmates could be removed three of the children, aged 8, 12 and 14 were burned to death. Hazlewood is bookkeeper for the East End Abattoir Co.

Ottawa, Nov. 4.—An astronomical and triangulation survey of Lake Erie is now being carried on by the surveyors of the interior department to more accurately determine the international boundary. The government dairy station at Prince Albert turned out 27,108 pounds of butter this season and Indian Head 23,322. In two or three years Prof. Robertson hopes to give an account of his wife. If one camp can afford to open for husband hunting, the natural domain is the British Columbia is supposed, there no more odd made in Canada.

In the supreme court this morning the argument was resumed in the case of Jones v. McKean, which was commenced yesterday. The appellant, McKean, was plaintiff and sued in the equity court for an account from respondent as trustee of insurance moneys assigned by one Chapman to appellant. The respondent filed an account in which he charged a large amount for costs incurred in collecting the moneys and a sum of over $2,000 as due him from Chapman, the assignee. The referee, who took the account between the parties, found in favor of the respondent, and on exceptions to his report the amount collected from one insurance company was disallowed on the ground that appellant, Jones, has abandoned all claim to it and the sum due from Chapman was allowed. As to the latter item the appellant claims that it was not proved that the other sum was not abandoned. Messrs. Barle, Q. C., and McLellan appear for appellant; Palmer, Q. C. for respondent.

The last case on the list, Torrop v. Imperial Insurance company, was next taken up. The respondent resists a claim under a fire policy on the ground that a condition forbidding any conveyance or charge of interest had been violated or, if not, that the policy had been cancelled. Appellant claims that the company had knowledge of the breach and afterwards treated it as in force and that it had not been properly cancelled, as notice was not given to the assured, but only to his assignee, under an assignment in trust for creditors. The argument was not concluded when the court adjourned; McKean for appellant; Pugsley, Q. C., and Hamilton, Q. C., for the respondent.

S. R. Cossey of Halifax writes to the minister of trade and commerce urging a permanent exhibit of minerals and products of Canada in England. He also suggests having in connection with the same a bureau of information for intending emigrants to Canada, and also a list of some of the farms for sale in the dominion.

The ministers were not inclined to discuss the presidential election. Sir Richard Cartwright, however, said anything calculated to preserve order and good government in the states must be good for Canada.

Ottawa, Nov. 5.—The governor general's office on his ranch at Coldstream, where Lord Aberdeen is now staying, has been destroyed by fire with all official papers and records. The privy council office will duplicate them.

Messrs. Wedwright of the Grand Trunk and Tait of the C. P. R. saw Controller Paterson today re the duty on coal.

The tariff commission commences work about the 16th inst.

Sir Oliver Mowat has withdrawn the twenty stripes to have been inflicted on a Montreal prisoner named Laurier, deau, charged with assault on his daughter.

The customs department has felt it necessary to put a stop to a practice which is the outcome of a craze or hobby for collecting foreign stamps. Complaints have been repeatedly made by the post office department of the removal of postage stamps from post office parcels while such parcels are under the supervision and control of the officers of customs. It is contrary to the regulations of the post office department for postage stamps to be removed from any postal packages before the same have been delivered to parties to whom addressed, and for the reason that when the packages or parcels are not delivered and have to be returned to the country of origin it is necessary that such parcels should be returned intact. The collectors of customs have therefore been instructed that under no circumstances are postage stamps to be removed from postal packages or parcels while same are under customs control.

In the supreme court today argument was concluded in Torrop v. Imperial Insurance company, and the appeal dismissed with costs. This being the last case on the list, the court adjourned, appointing Wednesday, 8th December next, for delivering judgments.

Ottawa, Nov. 5.—The civil service examinations commence at different points next Tuesday. An order in council has been passed appointing sub-examiners to conduct the examinations in different cities. Several new men are among them. At Halifax, Matthew Doyle will conduct the examinations; at St. John, Rev. Dr. Bennett; at Charlottetown, Ewan Stewart.

The surplus salmon fry obtained at the St. John hatchery will be divided among the hatcheries at Miramichi, St. John and Miramichi. Late in the season the Miramichi hatchery will supply Sydney hatchery.

Hon. Mr. Haggart, ex-minister of railways and canals, is in town today. He promptly punctured the last great scandal just exploited by the liberal papers regarding the Shielk Island dam. Mr. Haggart said Mr. Davies & Son have the contract for lighting the canal and to get the power to generate the electricity. Permission has been granted them to make a diagonal cut to Whoopee's Lake, a small sheet of water owned by the government. For this power the firm pay to the government $1,000 a year, which was considered by the department a good sum. The firm is not allowed to touch any of the power created by the construction of Shielk Island dam, and there is not a shadow of foundation in the report that the whole of the water front of Cornwall canal has been leased to Davis.

Work on the new Opera house here will commence early in the spring. The site chosen is immediately in the rear of the Russell house and facing City hall square.

Despite the widespread publicity to the announcement of the supplementary examinations for the entrance to the Royal Military college, not a single candidate has entered.

The Robinson treaty appeal, involving thousands of dollars to either Ontario or the dominion will be argued in England next week. Messrs. Blake and Irving will represent the dominion while English counsel will represent the dominion, although Christopher Robinson fought the federal case in all the Canadian courts. In legal circles there is the profoundest astonishment at the government's action, and everybody is asking why the federal interest is being neglected.

Ottawa, Nov. 8.—Yesterday was an exceptionally busy day for the premier. He was, so to speak, between two fires. The Manitoba cabinet was considering the settlement of the Quebec question, while the cable commissioners who are to meet representatives from sister colonies and the mother country in London tomorrow were receiving their instructions. A good deal of interest attaches to the course the government is likely to pursue on the Pacific cable question. The late government were prepared to commit Canada to defraying one-third the cost of building the line, but it is said the commissioners appointed by the Laurier ministry are not authorized to pledge the dominion to any specific line of policy, but only to hear what the other governments are prepared to do, and report to Ottawa.

It is given out here that there will be no official announcement of the terms of the school settlement before Wednesday. This is to give time to permit of a draft of agreement, which modified by the Greenway government yesterday, to reach here by mail so that the federal cabinet may have an opportunity of carefully scrutinizing its provisions and judging the effect of the modifications. These, it is claimed, are only of a minor character. The general basis of agreement is as announced some time ago. Half an hour daily for religious exercises, certificated Catholic teachers in school sections where twenty-five families reside and provincial control over the new regulations are published in yesterday's Gazette for the inland revenue department regarding the bottling of spirits in bond. They are calculated to make the bottling much more strict than it has hitherto been and provide for the payment of $50 per month to the department for supervision duty, which will be collected on any deficiency between the quantity entered and that bottled. No quantity less than twelve cases shall be entered by one entry, and the bottles are to be labelled and stamped.

Cobourg, Ont., Nov. 8.—Last evening Robert Elford, an inmate of the county jail, cut his throat with a dinner knife and died in thirty minutes. Elford, who has well-to-do relations, lived in Cramahe township, and was sent to the infirmary at the county jail suffering from an epileptic seizure. He was a very intelligent man of 44 years of age, but he became despondent because his relatives would not take care of him.

Ottawa, Nov. 9.—There is no truth in the statement that Mr. Schreiber will report on the feasibility of the Crow's Nest Pass for a railway line. The government have had all the necessary information for years.

Mr. J. P. Glasgow, who has been in Canada for weeks in the interest of the Chignecto Marine railway, has left for England, recognizing, it is said, the impossibility of securing a renewal of the subsidy.

In government circles it is said a new wing will be added to the eastern block for the purpose of storing valuable records in fire proof vaults.

The militia officers have been on the quiver for some time past regarding the appointment of a commandant to the Royal Military college in succession to Major General Cameron. Nothing of an official character has been received confirmatory of the press despatches that "Herbert" is the man. The Royal Rifles has been chosen for the office. I asked Hon. Mr. Laurier to-night if he had heard anything about Major Kitson and he replied in the negative. Continuing he said: "We have a very good man for us and have every reason to believe that he will do so, but we have not been apprised of his choice."

"Don't you think it rather strange," remarked your correspondent, "that the first intimation of the appointment should come through the newspapers before the government has been notified of the choice?"

"Perhaps," replied the premier with a shrug, "there is a certain newspaper man over there as well as here, who know all these things in advance."

And still chuckling over his "very palpable" remark, Mr. Laurier, your correspondent, "that the first intimation of the appointment should come through the newspapers before the government has been notified of the choice?"

It is understood that Col. Bacon, secretary of the D. R. A., will resign that office at the forthcoming meeting of the association. Col. Bacon has held the position of secretary for many years. His one of the old soldiers of the D. R. A., and a very good soldier. He now feels that he may be permitted to retire.

Col. Blair, late superintendent of the branch experimental farm at Nappan in Nova Scotia, has been appointed to the position of superintendent of the farm at St. John, N. B., and will be in town today. He is a very good soldier and a very good officer.

BISHOP KEANE'S SUCCESSOR? Washington, Nov. 9.—The Post tomorrow will say: "A cablegram from Rome announces that the appointment of Dr. Thomas Conaty as successor to Bishop Keane in the rectorship of the Catholic University is meeting with strong opposition in the propaganda authorities. It also states that Mr. Mooney will in all probability be the successful candidate."

SHORT TALKS ON ADVERTISING. No. 37. (Copyright by Charles Austin Bates.) Once in awhile some business man, by advertising in the newspapers, journals and various other schemes, determines that "advertising doesn't pay," and forthwith begins to preach this doctrine.

Several thousand years ago, a gentleman named Aesop told a little story that has a distinct application right here: "A fox was once caught in a trap by his tail, and in order to get away, he tried to leave it behind. Knowing that he would be offered to him a laughing-stock for all his fellows, he resolved to try to induce them to part with theirs. So at the next assembly of foxes, he made a speech on the unprofitableness of tails in general, and the inconvenience of a fox's tail in particular, adding that he had never felt so easy as since he had given up his own. When he sat down a sly old fellow rose, and, waving his long bushy tail with a graceful air, said, with a sneer, that if, like the last speaker, he had lost his tail, nothing further would have been needed to convince him, and till such an accident should happen he should certainly vote in favor of tails."

Pick out the largest users of newspaper space, and you will find that they are the smallest users of space in extraneous media. You will not find among them a single one who is not firmly convinced that advertising does pay. The more a man spends for newspaper advertising the more positive he is in his belief in the results that it brings.

Ask the man who uses the most space in this paper what he thinks about it. Wm. Fleming lost a fine way last week. The animal in some horse last week, and it was found necessary to have it shot. James Garey, an employe in Messrs. Cushing's mill, had one of his legs severely injured on Friday last by the breaking of one of the band saws.

MEN'S AND BOYS' READY-TO-WEAR CLOTHING.

Our Combination:— Fit, Quality and Value.

Having secured a large share of the St. John trade in Clothing owing to the very superior quality of goods we are selling, which are away ahead of anything ever before shown in the Clothing Trade, we wish to inform our friends out of town that we shall be glad to fill any orders for Men's or Boys' Clothing in the best manner. The most careful attention will be given to selection of material and pattern, and we guarantee every satisfaction.

This cut illustrates the style of BOYS' ULSTERS at $3.50. We carry a very large variety of ulsters to fit Boys of 4 to 18 years at prices from $3.50 to $7.85 according to size and quality.

This cut is a facsimile of our MEN'S SAC SUITS and in these goods we have a large stock from $6.00 to $12.50 in Fancy Tweeds, all neat patterns.

This cut shows one of our NATTY REEFERS, no more comfortable garment can be had for Boys' wear, Nap Cloth to fit boys of 4 to 18 years, at prices from $3.00 to $7.85, varying with size and quality.

Two lines of great value in MEN'S ULSTERS.

One line at $5.00 and One line at $10.00

THE BEST VALUE IN CANADA.

Manchester, Robertson & Allison, SAINT JOHN, N. B.

TELEGRAPHIC.

QUEBEC.

Montreal, Nov. 4.—Hon. Louis Duroville, M. L. C. for Alma division, died today, aged 65. The deceased was a liberal, a large mill owner and leaves a big estate.

Montreal, Nov. 5.—Sir Charles Tupper addressed a splendid midday meeting today before the Liberal Conservative club. The leader spoke over an hour, and eloquently reviewed the work of the government since they came to power. Sir Charles, speaking of Lord Aberdeen, said amid cheers that had Queen Victoria acted as did his excellency at the resignation of the late government, no statesman in the empire would be found to assume the responsibility.

Montreal, Nov. 6.—It is stated here today that Abbe Proulx went to Rome with the object of inducing the vatican authorities to interfere in the Manitoba school question, has completely failed, and that the pope is satisfied to leave the matters in the hands of the Canadian bishops.

The Dominion line s. s. Canada came into port at 2 45 o'clock this afternoon. This steamer is the first to arrive at this port on her former trip. The R. M. S. Parisian of the Allan line, now on her way up the river, has had one of the most noteworthy voyages in her history. Her passage, though not up to her best, was, considering the season, unusually fast. She left Liverpool at 5 p. m. on Thursday, October 29th, and after a wait of eleven hours at Moville for the mails, started for this morning's passage in five days and sixteen hours. The Parisian reached Rimouski at 4 a. m. yesterday, and is expected in port tomorrow afternoon. The Allan liner's average speed between Innesmouth, Head and Health Point was 14 1/2 knots.

Montreal, Nov. 6.—It is understood that Rev. Father Forbes, a Scottish minister of the Society of Jesus of this city, has been summoned to Rome, where he will be offered the appointment of papal legate to Canada.

Quebec, Nov. 6.—The steamer Montevideo, which arrived from London today, brought several hundred cases of new rifles and ammunition for the military authorities. The consignment is part of a large order which has been prepared by the imperial government for shipment to Canada. These large shipments of arms and ammunition to Canada derive a greater interest in view of the reported projected increase of the British North American squadron at Halifax.

Montreal, Nov. 8.—Hon. W. S. Fielding's statement that the government would press for a reciprocity treaty causes interest here. Hugh MacLennan, a leading founder and director of the Bank of Montreal says: "I am in favor of the renewal of the treaty of 1854, if it is possible to secure that and I want it to include the privileges for both nations of coasting and inland waters. I want it made possible for a Canadian vessel to carry a cargo from one American port to another, and the same privilege to be extended to American vessels. The treaty of 1854 was certainly favorable to the two countries, and I don't believe that the conditions of today would make any difference. If a new treaty is negotiated it should be as much as possible a repetition of the treaty of 1854, with the additions I have spoken of regarding navigation."

General Manager Geo. Hague of the

SEVENTY-FIRST BIRTHDAY.

The Youth's Companion will celebrate its seventy-first birthday in 1897. Among the many attractive announcements of the Companion for the coming year is an article of exceptional value for students and teachers. The Youth's Companion is a successful man in other walks of life will second Mr. Carnegie's paper with readable, practical articles based on their own experience, and valuable to the old as well as to the young.

Stories will be given by Ian MacLaren, Rudyard Kipling, Stephen Crane, Harold Frederic and Clark Russell. Spenser Reed, Secretary Herbert, Senator Lodge, Hon. Cass Schurz, Postmaster General Wilson, Dr. Lyman Abbott, Hon. Theodore Roosevelt—these are a few of the two hundred names that figure in the latest list of Companion contributors.

The non-partisan editorials and the Current Events and Nature and Science Departments are of especial interest to students and to all who wish to keep informed of the doings of the world. As a reference book a file of Companions is well nigh invaluable, for its reputation is founded on seventy years of tested accuracy.

New subscribers sending $1.75 to the Companion for 1897 will receive the Companion for the remainder of the year free; also the Companion's artistic twelve color calendar, and the paper a full year to January, 1898. Illustrated prospectus of the next volume will be sent free upon request. Address: THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, 206 COMMERCIAL AVE., BOSTON, MASS.

GOOD TIMES PREDICTED.

(Henry Cowes' Circular.) New York, Nov. 7.—Among the causes resulting from the recent monetary victory is the complete recovery of confidence among the banks and the consequent expectations of a great revival of business. This feeling has shown itself in an active demand for commercial paper at 10 per cent for first-class names, while time loans on call have offered at rates of moderate rates. This fact expressed the estimate of the banking community upon the safety of the situation, unshaken by the election; it is also good evidence that, notwithstanding bond borrowers may depend upon getting all the money they need. Another effect is apparent in the disappearance of the premium on gold. Those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state of exchange at London will be such as to induce those who have hoarded the metal to the extent of many millions within the last three months are now turning their anxiety to get rid of it by taking it to the treasury and the banks for exchange for paper currency. This money market covered gold has therefore now become a drag on the market. At the same time, the election has caused a drop in foreign exchange to a point about admitting of imports of gold. But now that the hoarding demand for the metal has ceased and that it is coming out of board in a steady stream, the state