LOCKED UP ON SERIOUS CHARGE

Captain John Kerrigan and Brother Arrested To-day

Charged With Assaulting Jacob and Percy Christopher of the West Side—Case up This Afternoon.

Capt. John Kerrigan of the schooner Comrade and his brother James were locked up in jail this morning on what may prove a serious charge.

The information of assault is laid against them by Jacob and Percy Christopher, two west side fishermen.

Daniel Mullin, K. C., is looking after the defence and J. B. M. Baxter is conducting the prosecution.

When the two Kerrigans appeared in the police court this morning Mr. Baxter demanded their arrest and said that James Kerrigan was noted for assaulting people and not long ago brutally beat a boy named Cobham.

The case was opened and Jacob Christopher, a fisherman, testified that he and his brother Percy were fishing in the harbor about 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning. Drifting near the lighthouse they had to take up a piece of net. The schooner Comrade came along. James Kerrigan was at the wheel and John Kerrigan with another man was forward on the vessel. Percy called three or four times "Keep her away or you will run over our boat."

Witness then called to the vessel's crew to keep away. One man said "we can't wear this vessel to leeward for that man there has to have a chance."

Witness then told him the other boat was miles away and they did not have to wear the vessel away, but keep her to the eastward a little. John Kerrigan stepped forward and said "I don't want any abusive language from you."

Witness did not use abusive language nor did the brother Percy. Witness told him there was plenty of room in the harbor. John Kerrigan said "I'll fix you."

Witness ran as far as the forewinding and picking a belying pin up threw it. Witness had to dodge clear of it and it struck the boat, broke the stern sheets and broke two planks in the boat. The water began to come in the boat. Kerrigan was about 15 feet from the boat when he threw the pin.

Then James Kerrigan ran from the wheel to the forward part of the vessel and said "I'll fix you." He picked up some pieces of iron and threw them at the boat but did not strike it.

Percy said to James "Hold on there. James Kerrigan said 'I'll fix you' to you." Kerrigan then said "If I can stop this vessel I'll fix you," and he attempted to loosen the small boat. He then said "I'll be up to your door to-night to fix you."

Witness took up the nets and rowed ashore. Witness never had any trouble with the Kerrigans before. It would cost about $15 to repair the boat.

Mr. Mullin asked for an adjournment until 2.30 this afternoon and offered to become responsible for the appearance of the Kerrigans.

Mr. Baxter objected and said that they should be held. That James Kerrigan is noted for breaking out every once in a while and some day might be held on the charge of murder. The magistrate would not accede to Mr. Mullin's request and remanded the two men to jail without bail.

James Kerrigan objected to being put down so black by Mr. Baxter, and both brothers asked if any person could say that they had ever committed murder.

ST. JOHN MAN NOW PROMINENT CONTRACTOR.

F. A. Case, of Almirra, N. Y., Here Visiting Parents—May Tender for Bridge at Hawkeham.

F. A. Case, of Almirra, New York, with his wife and daughter, are in the city visiting Mr. Case's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Case, of Elm Street. Mr. Case left this city 22 years ago, when only a boy and located in New York State. For some years past he has been in the employ of the American Bridge Co. and now holds the position of contractor for the company in the western section of New York. Mr. Case has proven himself an expert in the bridge line and has been a very profitable agent for the company. During a previous visit to St. John, in 1901, he sold three large steel bridges in this province. Since coming here he heard of a new bridge to be built at Hawkeham, near Fredericton, for which $60,000 has been appropriated, and has written his company about the matter. On hearing from the company Mr. Case will probably go up river and look over the plans, after which he will place a tender for the construction of the bridge.
