She was always pale and listless, suffered from headaches, diviness and palpitation of the heart. and listless, suffered from headaches, dizziness and palpitation of the heart. She did not rest at night, and would often toss and moan the whole night. Finally she had to discontinue going to school, and as she was continually taking doctors' medicine without benefit I grew discouraged, and feared we would lose her. Friends urged us to give her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I finally deciled to do so. By the time she had taken three boxes there was an improvement, and a little later she was able to return to school. From the medaches, dizziness and palpitation of the heart. oured 1576 votes. In the last election in 1906, Mr. John'Morley, whose elevation to the Peerage caused the recent vacancy, secured a majority of 2494. At that time he was opposed only by Colonel Sprot, a Unionist. Thus in Tuesday's election the Unionist vote was just as large as it was a year ago, while the Liberal vote shows a decrease of 1348.

The St. John Globe a few evenings ago drew consolation from the fact that in spite of the very noticeable change in public sentiment in Britain towards tariff reform, these reformers now number not more than one hundred and fifty members of Commons.

There is little cause for satisfaction in 1906, Mr. John'Morley, whose elevation in the blood work is satisfaction in this when it is remembered that the last of the peerage caused the recent vacantian in 1906 of the ange in public sentiment in Britain towards tariff reform, these reformers now number not more than one hundred and fifty members of Commons.

A communication from Mrs. Daniel Coughlan asking for payment for services of caretaker of the city building was referred to the Safety Board.

A communication from the Board of Trade dealing with harbor improvements was received and the common clerk was instructed to inform the board of the action taken by the council.

In this when it is remembered that only ten years ago there were not half a dozen tariff reformers in all of Brittain.
