MORGAN'S LATEST INVESTMENT

LONDON, April 16.—"L. Pierpoint Mor-gan's investments in British enterprises," says the Daily Mail this morning, "have thus, far been confined to the purchase of a Scotch coolie for £400. We are informed that the following is an authentic expression that the following is an authentic expression of his views: "He declares that the steel trust will not make a specially aggressive fight for the control of the British market. On the con-trary, it will only meet legitimate demands and will spoil the popular theory that Am-erican steel and iron for foreign business represent purely the surplus production. As a matter of fact-still stating Mr. Morgan's position-the concerns comprised in the rust are full up with orders for fully nime months forward. Probably London will be-come the headquarters of the corporation's foreign business." Rev. S.
