

FOSBURG CASE.

Mrs. R. L. Fosburg, the Gray Haired Mother on the Stand, Tells of Her Daughter's Death.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., July 25.—In the Fosburg manslaughter case today, Mrs. R. L. Fosburg, the gray haired mother went upon the stand and told in simple words how her daughter May passed from life; told how masked men entered her room, appearing before her in ghastly coverings upon their heads; told of her husband's fierce and terrible encounter in the bedroom; told of how she heard her daughter's screams cry out, "Oh, mamma, look at May," and described the torturing scene when she found her daughter lying upon the floor in the agonies of death, and then saw her, eldest son fall down unconscious by the side of her. Her voice faltered and she shed tears. The other members of the family sat listening to her word picture.

"Did you notice the relations of the family to each other while you were there?" "I did. They were very devoted and affectionate." "And you say that of all the members?" "Yes."

These were among the questions which were put to and answered by Mrs. Fosburg. Her testimony was intended to show that there were burglars in the house and that they were seen by little Beatrice.

Another point of interest in Mrs. Fosburg's testimony was that relating to the reason she left the house. She suddenly after the tragedy, and as to why she was present permission from her father to attend the inquest. She said she felt that she ought to get away as soon as possible from the house as she would only be in the way there. As to her failure to testify at the inquest, she declared she was willing to do so, but her father would not permit it, solely on account of her health.

Mr. Sheldon, who was present, testified to the truth of his daughter's statement. There were many witnesses who gave today corroborative evidence, among them the shoe salesman from New York, both of whom identified the single shoe found in the house, saying they sold it to some one.

Mrs. Fosburg was the last witness of the day, and immediately after her testimony the argument of the defence rested. This was at 3.30. Then the government introduced some little evidence in rebuttal and the defence put on one witness in rebuttal. That closed the case, with the understanding that the government would have opportunity of placing Col. Whitney, the state detective, on the stand in the morning, to which time the court adjourned.

At the close of the session, Judge Stevens, together with the counsel for both sides, retired to the ante-room, where Mr. Joyner for the defence, made a strong argument on the question of a verdict of not guilty. The result is not known officially, but it is known that arguments will be made in the case tomorrow. Lawyer Joyner stated that if the case were argued in District Attorney Hibbard, for the defence, would probably take over an hour and a half. It is possible that the case may go to the jury by tomorrow noon.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., July 25.—Counsel Hibbard for the defence announced tonight that he would make argument tomorrow, which is thought to mean that the demurrer of the defence to the decision of the court resting to order a verdict of not guilty is overruled.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Captain Titus, chief of the New York City Detective Bureau, today forwarded to Chief of Police Nicholson and District Attorney Hammond of Pittsfield, Mass., two affidavits concerning the Fosburg case. The police official refuses to divulge the names of the persons making the affidavits. He says that he and two women, both of whom are at present in this city. The principal affidavit is made by a woman who says that she and a man, whose name is also kept secret, were in Springfield, Mass., on the night of Aug. 19 last; that he left her that night in a house in one of the side streets of the city, telling her he was "broke" and that he was going out to "make a touch". He was gone all day and night on the 20th, and the day of the Fosburg tragedy, returned late at night on the 21st in a pretty bad condition. He told her, she swears, that he had been "doing a trick," that he went up against "an alarm," which Captain Titus explains to mean a burglar alarm, and that he again used a pistol, but that he didn't know whether or not he had hurt anybody. He told the woman he had been through Warren, Mass.

Then, according to the affidavit, the woman came to New York. She did not see the man again until September, when she met him in this city on the Bowery. She says she read about the Fosburg tragedy the next morning after the man returned to her in Springfield, and that he changed the subject when she mentioned it. When they met here she again alluded to the matter, and he again made her of it and changed the conversation. The other affidavit is from a woman who swears that the first woman told her the above story.

THE RICHEST COUNTRY.

(Exchange.) The richest nation in the world proportionally is not Great Britain, not the United States, but the Australian Commonwealth. Last year the total value of the products of the colonies formed the Australian Commonwealth amounted to fully $550,000,000, of which their pastoral industries represented $150,000,000, their agricultural $140,000,000, their mineral products fully $100,000,000, and their manufacturing and other industries the remaining $160,000,000. The wool alone from the hundred and twenty million sheep raised in 1900 was worth $100,000,000, says the New York World. The mineral resources of Australia, cannot even be guessed at. In the last forty-eight years the country has produced gold to the value of $1,000,000,000, in the last twenty silver to the value of $150,000,000.

SENSATIONAL SUICIDE.

Thomas Hurst, of Roxbury, Mass., Shoots Himself Near Newcastle.

Lady of His Choice Refused to Receive Him—Coroner's Inquest and Verdict.

NEWCASTLE, N. B., July 25.—Thomas Hurst, of Roxbury, Boston, Mass., committed suicide by shooting himself through the head yesterday afternoon on South East, about six miles from Newcastle. An inquest was held here today before Coroner F. J. Desmond. M. D. The following facts have been brought to light: Mr. Hurst arrived here Tuesday and drove to the home of Donald McTavish to see Miss Victoria McTavish, a young lady who has recently arrived home from Roxbury, to visit her father. He returned to the Waverly hotel here and wrote the following letter:

NEWCASTLE, July 25. Dear Friend.—When you receive this letter I will be dead, as I have shot myself, with a revolver with the money or some of the money you so kindly lent me. You see, as I am in dreadful pain, my only chance of relief is to die. Good-bye. Your friend, even unto death, T. HURST.

Dear Friend.—When you receive this letter I will be where I can have rest. This letter is my last. Good-bye, and may God have mercy on my soul. Yours, TOM.

These letters were torn up, and thrown into the waste basket, but were found and pasted together. Miss Victoria McTavish, on the stand, said that she had been in Boston for thirteen years and met Hurst ceased about seven months ago; they were both working in a hotel in Boston. He was a clerk and she was a waitress. He had then endeavored to pay attention to her, but she had given him no encouragement, but he continued his advances and asked her to marry him, and when refused he committed suicide. He had bought a revolver and cartridges, and then returned to the Waverly hotel for the night. Next day he again drove up to the McTavish home, but was told by several friends that he should go home. He went into the woods about two miles from the house and shot himself.

No other material evidence was brought to light, and the jury brought in the following verdict: "We, the jury summoned to enquire into the death of Thomas Hurst of Boston, Mass., being satisfied of the identity of the man who shot himself, and that he committed suicide by shooting himself through the head by a bullet from a revolver on the 24th day of July inst., and also find that no other person was liable for his act."

The body has been prepared and will be shipped to Boston.

NEW YORK HARBOR WORKS.

NEW YORK, July 25.—The New York Dock Company, a corporation with a capital of $20,000,000, is to take the place of the Brooklyn Wharf and Warehouse Company. The new company, which was organized August 1st, making improvements on the waterfront, extending from the Brooklyn Bridge south to Red Hook. David H. Ding, Jr. will be the president of the new company, taking charge August 1st. The company owns about two and a half miles of waterfront. It is proposed to build a new dock and station for the larger freighters than anything else kind now existing in the United States. The depot will follow, it is stated, in a general way the plan of the Riverside station at Liverpool, the largest in the world. The plans of the company include the use of tunnels to the ocean ships, instead of the present method of floats from Jersey City.

WOMAN KILLED BY TRAIN.

NEW YORK, July 25.—A woman supposed to be Mrs. McManus of Connecticut was instantly killed last night by an express train on the New York Central and Hudson River railroad. With two other women she was walking along the tracks on the way to a bathing house. A north-bound freight train was approaching, and the women stepped into the next track to let it pass. The express, south-bound, was on them before two of them could escape. Mrs. McManus was killed and one of her companions slightly injured.

CAPE BRETON.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., July 25.—At a meeting of the town council tonight the mayor informed the council that the amount of money borrowed by the town two hundred and thirty-five thousand dollars, for public works has all been used. The mayor said that he must be called to authorize the borrowing of more money or else the work on extending the sewers, and other street improvements must cease.

At tonight's meeting of the town council it was decided to purchase at once three thousand feet of hose for the fire department. The town has been given permission by the Dominion Coal Co. to use the coal for the purpose of running a steam engine and put the fire department in a first class state of equipment.

TUBERCULOSIS CONGRESS.

LONDON, July 25.—At this afternoon's session of the British congress on tuberculosis, Dr. Koch's theory of the disease being transmitted from immune from contagion from tuberculosis

OTTAWA.

Only Six Horses Will be Used in St. John.

By Duke of Cornwall and York—Ottawa River Mystery—The Baker's Difficulty Adjusted—Suggestion to Establish Municipal Coal Yards Having its Effect.

OTTAWA, July 24.—Major Mando, military secretary, has written the department of militia requisitioning 12 horses, eight for the use of the royal visitors and four for the use of his excellency at Quebec. Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto and Halifax, and six for use at Winnipeg, Vancouver, Victoria, Niagara, Hamilton and St. John. This will entail the attachment of several horse boxes to the royal train, which will have to accommodate 80 people with living, eating and sleeping accommodations. If these horses are carried all over the country, the cost will entail a large amount of trouble. Escorts of 96 non-commissioned officers and troopers and five officers will be provided wherever the royal visitors stay, and guards will be stationed at 100 men, with a captain and other officers. As in many places two or three escorts and guards will be wanted daily, the maintenance of the local troops will be pretty well taken care of. The shooting of the slides here by the royal party will be unique. The party will start from Britannia and go down the river to the Baker's difficulty. It will be followed by a flotilla of bark canoes manned by river men, singing backwoods songs; when the main river is reached another square raft will be ready, on which pork and beans will be served to royal visitors in shanty style.

SUSSEX.

A Conservative M. P. from Ontario, Takes the Country—General News. SUSSEX, N. B., July 25.—Edward A. Lancaster, conservative M. P. for Lincoln and Niagara, who is doing the maritime provinces, has been the guest of R. L. Borden, M. P., at Halifax, Geo. W. Fowler, M. P., at Summerside, P. E. I. While at Halifax Mr. Lancaster went on board the admiral's flagship Crescent, and the hospital ship, the Annapolis Valley, which was greatly admired. Mr. Lancaster says that Sussex and surrounding districts compare very favorably with any section of the maritime provinces. He goes to the north of the province next week to P. E. I. Mr. Lancaster has also visited Charles S. Nixon of Kentville, uncle of Mrs. Lancaster. A fair weather appeared for the competition and the contest for the prize was a close one. The case was adjourned to a later date to hear further evidence. Miss Edna McLeod and Miss Vera Jones returned home from Moncton after a two weeks' vacation. J. J. O'Connell gave a picnic today to a large number of children. Ice cream, cake and candy were lavishly provided.

ARTILLERY RETURNS.

Last Year's Figures Now Made Public for the First Time.

No. 1 Company, Prince Edward Island Field. No. 2 Company, New Brunswick. Capt. Baxter, One Point Battery.

The returns of the garrison artillery efficiency, lower establishment, for last year, have not yet been published by the militia department, though the returns for the last year are available. The returns for the last year are available. The returns for the last year are available. The returns for the last year are available.

The possible of marks is 230. No. 2 Co. of Carleton had the possible of marks for gun drill, which was only once occurred once before since the system of competitive marking was instituted. The other time it was the Carleton company which obtained this success. But for one absence at the inspection No. 2 would have tied the winning company. The company which takes first place, No. 1, P. E. I. Co. of Carleton, is a splendid company and would be a credit to any regiment. The men drill practically all year and the esprit de corps is admirable. The St. John regiment tried hard for first place, but failing to obtain it, they will be content to retain their able opponents. The general result of the inspection is to show that the high standard of the artillery is being kept up. Lieut. Col. Jones may be congratulated unofficially, that he had so fine a regiment under his command last year. It will probably be next century before the dominant branch of the militia department will sufficiently wake up to give out the figures of this year's inspection, which has been completed, and the returns of which are probably already pigeon holed at Ottawa.

MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, July 25.—The provincial government has established an assay office in Montreal and placed M. L. Hervey in charge. Free assays will be made on minerals discovered in the province.

News of the death of Rev. A. B. Mackay, pastor of the Scotch church at Seven Islands, below Quebec, was received today. No particulars were given, but it is reported that the reverend gentleman met his death in a yachting accident. Crescent street church is one of the largest Presbyterian churches in Canada.

H. R. McLELLAN'S LATEST.

SKULLS SET MARBLE. Ont., July 25.—H. R. McLELLAN of St. John, N. B., has signed a contract with F. H. Clergie to cut three hundred cords of hardwood per day for use in making charcoal for the Iron Works. The contract lasts two years. Mr. McLELLAN will bring labor from New Brunswick.

OTTAWA.

The minister of public works has caused notices to be struck all over the parliament grounds at Ottawa, Park, warning people to "Keep off the grass." Mr. Tarts is strolling in the park the other evening, and was caught by a dominion policeman regarding his own conduct. The bookkeeper politely but firmly told the minister to get off the grass, whereupon Mr. Tarts put the awe-inspiring question to the man in uniform, "Do you know who I am?" "I don't know, I don't give a continental who you are," said the constable, who happened to be a new man on the force. "All I know is you must keep off the grass," said the man to continue his walk by using the paths.

The "Ottawa river mystery," over which the local papers have gone into a paralytic, according to Provincial-Detective, Mr. McLeod, is the case of a suicide. Great returned to Toronto tonight.

Boston O'Brien's case will be considered by the cabinet tomorrow. The law will assuredly be allowed to take its course.

The poultry raising experiments at Whitby, Ont., which are being conducted under the superintendence of P. P. Hare, poultry expert, are proving a great success. Chickens, during twelve weeks old, under a diet of ground oats and skim milk, and with a limited range for exercise, have already reached the weight of three pounds eight ounces. Officials of the accountant's branch of the P. O. department were yesterday engaged in destroying books of cancelled stamps, which have been paid in by the mail carriers for postage during the past year.

Premier Laurier has returned to the city and will be in town until Monday. Several cabinet meetings will be held in the meantime. The necessary witnesses not being on hand, the coroner adjourned the inquest to next Wednesday evening.

It is said that Albert McBride saw the body and stated positively that it is not that of Milloy. Nothing has been elicited yet as to whether deceased was a passenger on the train or walked on the track or was stealing a ride.

TRIPLE TRAGEDY.

One Man was Killed and Two Were Fatally Wounded.

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., July 24.—Michael Kelly, harboring a fancied wrong, today entered the office of John Garrett, a prominent business man here, and without warning leveled a pistol at Garrett, who sat at his desk. Five shots were fired in quick succession, each bullet taking effect in Garrett's body. Police Sergeant Dodge and Detective Michael McDonald, hearing the reports, hurried to the scene. Kelly had re-loaded his revolver in the meantime, and when the officers entered he turned upon them. Sergeant Dodge was shot through the throat and McDonald received a bullet in the leg. A moment later, Dr. McGee, summoned to attend Garrett, stepped into the office. Kelly raised his revolver, and as the physician turned to summon help, he fired the bullet striking Dr. McGee in the back near the spine. The whole affair consumed but five minutes. Other officers finally arrived, overpowering Kelly, and placed him in jail. Several years ago Kelly made an assault on Garrett's father, and today he evidently mistook the son for the elder Garrett. In attempting to repeat the assault, Mr. Garrett died late this afternoon at the hospital. Sergeant Dodge and Dr. McGee are thought to be fatally wounded.

TYPING UNION.

Typographical Union, Messrs. Pepper, Draper and Cairns were elected, while Messrs. Boudreau and Dion, who headed the poll at the first election, were defeated. The union, it seems, is divided on racial grounds with the result that two French Canadians were defeated.

There is not to be a military review in Ottawa on the occasion of the visit of their royal highnesses. There will probably be a church parade of the Ottawa brigade on Sunday, September 2nd, but the more elaborate spectacle of "review" has seemingly been reserved for other cities. There will be grand military reviews at only three places in Canada, namely, at Toronto, Quebec and Halifax. At Toronto 7,000 troops will take part at Quebec, the port of arrival, and at Halifax, the port of departure of the royal party, 3,000 troops will be reviewed by his royal highness. At Quebec, Montreal, Halifax there will also be great naval demonstrations.

Mr. Keeley, superintendent of government telegraph, wired the public works department today that the cable between St. Paul's Island and Meak Cove, C. B., has been successfully repaired and the chartered steamer Tyndal is leaving immediately for Bellefleur to lay the cable to connect the government telegraph system on the north shore with Bellefleur station.

The city council tonight decided to appropriate $10,000 to meet the expenses in connection with the Duke of York's reception.

KILLED ON THE RAILS.

Man from Woodstock to St. Stephen Ran Over the Body of a Man.

Near Benton, Thursday—Inquest Commenced Thursday—Unfortunate Man May Have Been Charles Milloy.

ST. STEPHEN, N. B., July 25.—When Conductor Shoben's train from Woodstock to St. Stephen this morning was three miles north of Benton, it ran over the body of a man lying on the rails. The train was stopped, and an investigation showed that the man had been dead for some hours. He was evidently a tramp, and had probably fallen from a night freight train. He was cut in two, one half of his body lying on each side of a rail. The body was left with the proper authorities.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., July 25.—An inquest was held this afternoon as to the cause of the death of the unknown man whose body was found cut in two on the railway track near Benton this morning. Evidence was given as to the finding of the body, and the condition when found, all going to prove that the unfortunate man was run over by the train coming north last night. Undertaker Vanwert, who took charge of the body, said that he found it at 11 and a wallet containing $2.15, which he produced in court. The body was cut in two, the head and shoulders lying on one side and the feet on the other side of the rail. None of the train hands could identify the body. Mrs. Wm. Karnes said she believed it to be the body of one Charles Milloy, a farm hand, who occasionally got boarding house occasionally for a meal. He worked one time with Jos. Martin of Richmond county. Cook Hall, a clerk in McLaughlin's drug store, swore that he had seen the remains, and was a little odd. All the necessary witnesses not being on hand, the coroner adjourned the inquest to next Wednesday evening.

It is said that Albert McBride saw the body and stated positively that it is not that of Milloy. Nothing has been elicited yet as to whether deceased was a passenger on the train or walked on the track or was stealing a ride.
