 — Hon. Robert Watson, Minister of Public Works in the Manitoba government, was in Montreal last week. He spoke encouragingly of the crop prospects in the Northwest and stated that the season was not at all backward there.
 — The following students passed their final examinations at Wilton's Commercial College this week and were awarded diplomas: Joseph F. Smith, Halifax; Christie A. McLeod, Reserve Mines, C. B.; Chelma M. Richardson, Truro.
 — President Van Horne and party arrived at Vancouver, B. C., last Thursday, and will visit Crown's Nest Pass upon their return. Upon the president's return to the east the running time between Quebec and Vancouver will be reduced twenty-four hours.
 — The Dominion Steamship Line have given orders to their builders, Haddon & Wolf, of Belfast, to construct a boat superior in every way to the Labrador, the latest addition to the fleet. The new ship will be 452 feet long and cost three-quarters of a million dollars, and will be ready next year.
 — It is stated that the Canadian Pacific railway will shortly purchase the steamships "Arizona," "Alaska," and "City of Rome." The idea is to place these steamers on the Vancouver and Japan route, and transfer the steamers from that route to the Quebec and Liverpool service which they propose to establish.
 — The Royal Society, which held its annual meeting in Ottawa last week, presented an address to the Governor-General. In reply, his Excellency spoke of the interest he felt and would continue to feel in Canadian affairs. He trusted that Canada would always be linked with the mother country, and concluded by wishing for her happiness, unity, and progress.
 — The Bridgetown Monitor says: Following are the names of persons, natives of Kings county, who have died during the past twenty years, who had reached or passed the age of one hundred: Mrs. Schofield, 106; Mrs. Taylor, 107; Mrs. Foster, 100; Samuel Chipman, 101; Mrs. John Palmer, 103; Mr. John Fielding, 102; Mrs. Power, 102. This is certainly a good showing.

— Miss Payson has removed the Central House, Halifax, from 75 to 85 Grandville street, corner of Prince street, opposite the Y. M. C. A. building. This situation is well chosen, as it overlooks the grounds of the Parliament Buildings and is conveniently near the street cars and principal business places of the city. Home comforts are provided for the sojourner and permanent boarder. See advertisement.
 — The Toronto Mail says: The birthday of Queen Victoria drew forth a very full expression of the affection and loyalty entertained for her Majesty by the Canadian people. Celebrations of an enthusiastic character were held in all the cities, towns, villages, and districts of the country, and the pleasure seekers were not so intent upon their mission as to neglect the patriotic spirit of the holiday.
 — Miss Durion, who resides in Hull, was engaged to teach school in Masham, but before the expiration of her year's engagement the commissioners, at the instigation of the Masham priest, dismissed her for unbecoming conduct. Miss Durion brought action for damages against the commissioners, and on Saturday Judge Gill gave judgment in Miss Durion's favor for two hundred dollars, and severely censured the priest for his interference in the case.

British and Foreign.

— Official statistics show that the long drought has caused heavy losses to the Prussian crops.
 — The two months' drought in France is estimated to have destroyed 32,000,000 francs worth of crops.
 — Earthquakes continue to shake Attica and Thessaly. In Thebes and villages near by scarcely a house has been left uninjured.
 — Recent floods have devastated large districts in Roumania, and traffic on railroads and highways in some parts of the kingdom has been suspended.
 — Abundant warm rains, followed by sunshine, have improved the prospects of the Russian harvest. On the whole the crops promise to be fairly good.
 — Emperor William has announced that the reserves and landwehr will not be called under the colors next month. This decision against calling the men from home during election time has been received with high favor everywhere.

 HAMPTON.—At Carleton, May 17th, Walter, infant son of George Hampton, after a few weeks' illness.
 SMITH.—William Smith died April 22, in the 79th year of his age, having been twice married and twice a widower. The last years of his life were spent with his son Loran at Walton, where he received every needed attention. He was a member of Christ's church and a great lover of the prayer meeting. His body sleeps beside his two wives at Newport.
 FARMER.—At Gasperaux, N. S., May 20, Lottie S., daughter of Rev. M. P. Freeman, aged 19 years. Eight years ago she was baptized by Dr. Higgins at Wolfville and developed a lovely Christian character. Life had its charms, but since it was the Lord's will she was ready to die, and with the prayer on her lips, "Jesus, come quickly," she passed away from earth to glory.
 SPINNIK.—At Central Argyle, May 17, Mrs. Mary Spinnie, aged 68 years. Sister Spinnie was the widow of the late Isaac Spinnie, a prominent member of the Argyle Baptist church, and was herself for many years a faithful and earnest member of the same body. Through all her affliction her trust in Jesus never faltered. She has reached the land of rest. She leaves three sons and one daughter.
 — When indigestion is cured cholera is prevented. K. D. C., the king of dyspepsia cures, is the greatest cure of the age. It cures the first and prevents the second.

Now for those good words about suits.

Paying $20 for a suit doesn't make it a twenty dollar suit, any more than paying a thousand dollars for a horse makes it a thousand dollar horse.

Think it over. $12 is the price, and here is the Suit, ready to try on, and you don't have to wait.

SCOVIL & PAGE, — 157 & 159 BARRINGTON ST., HALIFAX, N. S. One Door from corner of George St.

— We regret to be obliged over the report of the quality of the N. B. Southern Advertiser as well as a good deal of other another issue.

— Those interested will that the time for meeting of the N. B. Southern Advertiser meeting is June 16th, instead of 9th, as stated in notice last week.

— PRINCE ROLAND BONAPARTE, nephew of the first Napoleon, visited to Canada. He was in Halifax last week and reached Saturday in company with Lord Nor-Tilley, and was shown the points of interest by Sir L. Mayor Peters. The prince is a tall, well-built and dignified personage, very dark looking personage, very dark hair, and is a very distinguished retary, Monsieur Landre.

— MOUNT ALLISON UNIVERSITY brated the closing of another year last week. As will be seen from the present year is the semi-annual of the Mount Allison Institute jubilee honors have been distributed somewhat liberal hand. men have received the degree and four laymen that of D. former are the Revs. Edw. Hampton; Douglas Chapman; B. C. Borden, of Sackville; W. of Yarmouth, and James I. Johns, Nfld. The latter is King and Harrington, of New Brunswick, and Professors Weldon, sell, of the Dalhousie Law is proposed to erect in connection the university a building for residence, at a cost of $40,000. Some $20,000 have so far subscribed as a jubilee addition downward.

— The suspension of Dr. B. Presbyterian General Assembly, doubt, means his expulsion from the ministry of that church, since expected that he will return views which have been heretical by the Assembly. I that Union Theological Sem which Dr. Briggs is connected professor in theology, will stand by him. In that case, of course, forfeit the approval of the Assembly. This is the which Lane Theological Sem itself. At least the report presented to the Assembly that its approval be withheld on account of its retention of P. Smith after he had been from the ministry by the assembly. It is not very unlikely the result of the difficulty, Presbyterian body in the province is experiencing may be a split between the Conservative and Liberal denominations.

— We have thought well full report of the meeting Brussels street church on From this report it will be about one-third of the delegates including among them the tives of several of the strongest in the province, favored the of the present Convention, minority appeared to be urging certain readjustments in home missions and education a thorough examination of system with a view to effecting reforms that might be desirable. It is not easy to condition of preserving the Convention, anything more undertaken to remove the objection have been urged against the tem than was proposed in ment introduced by Mr. Crooked by Mr. Gates. But jority of the delegates united the motion for a separate and evidently were not disposed anything short of that. action of the Brussels street fairly indicates the sentiment nomination in this province, that nothing short of doing the Maritime Union will be to the majority. The other will doubtless respectfully right of the New Brunswick choose for themselves in If the churches of this province more happily and successfully vidual than in a Maritime is no reason to suppose that lar interests of the other would suffer by the establishment separate Convention.
