

St. Mary's 1st.—Pastor, Rev. H. Eagles. We have great cause for thankfulness to Almighty God for his goodness in the past. Our beloved brother, Elder H. Eagles is still with us as our pastor and his labors have not been in vain in the Lord.

Tatamagouche.—Pastor, Rev. D. W. Crandall. We have enjoyed a glorious visitation from the Lord. Sinners have been brought to a saving knowledge of the truth. Eleven have been recently baptized. We are poor, and few in number, but we have undertaken great things for God. We have commenced a meeting-house in one of our outstations, and have bought a Parsonage costing about $900.

Tracadie.—We have had no preaching since Bro. Bigelow left us. Are in a low state. Our deacon is striving to keep the church together. We have a Sabbath School with forty-nine scholars.

Truro.—Pastor, Rev. J. E. Goucher. Our hearts respond to the language of the Prophet, "The Lord is good." A number of honored brethren have died during the year, among whom we mention the name of our senior deacon, Bro. David Page. Nearly every month of the year is signalled by one or more coming out from the world to join our ranks. The greatest harmony prevails, and the outlook for the future was never brighter.

Upper Londonderry.—Pastor, Rev. M. P. Freeman. The Lord has turned the captivity of His people. In February last special services were commenced which continued until May. A goodly number have been hopefully converted to God. Have two weekly prayer-meetings and two Sabbath Schools. New meeting-house opened at Masstown in May. Several valued members died during the year who are greatly missed. Twenty-eight baptized.

Wentworth.—We must acknowledge that we have been neglectful of our duty, and have not come up to that which is required of every believer.

West Brook.—Pastor, Rev. D. McKeen. Glad to hear of the prosperity of other churches, though not blessed so largely ourselves with heavenly influences. Hope yet to see the drooping cause revived. One baptized. Our beloved pastor, Rev. D. McKeen, still labours among us with acceptance. We hope he may long be spared to unfurl the banner of the cross.

Williamsdale.—[New church.] Pastor, Rev. J. A. Moore. Having been organized into a separate church we seek admission into this Association. The church has been revived and sinners have obtained mercy. Thirteen have been baptized.
