GAGETOWN

GAGETOWN

Gagetown, July 13.—At the annual school meeting held on Monday morning last, H. B. Bridges was elected trustee in place of T. Sherman Petars, who retires this year from the school board after a term of service covering several years. There was a poor attendance of ratepayers. The finances of the district occupied the attention of the meeting during the greater part of the session, owing to the expenses incident to building the new school house. The building, which is now nearing completion, is a two storey building of fine workmanship, and occupies a commanding site on the property expropriated by the school board from Mrs. T. H. Gilbert.

Miss Grace Smith of Devon, who was in charge of the primary department of the school last year, and who won the regard of pupils and parents by her faithful and efficient work; and Miss Gladys Gregory, B. A., late principal of the Grammar School, who was presented by the pupils with a handsome fountain pen, at the school closing, are not expected to return next term, which is a matter of regret to pupils and ratepayers.

Mrs. W. A. McKeague left on Friday for Vermilion, Alta, where Mr. Mo-Keague, who went to the West last month, has purchased a farm. Mr. and Mrs. McKeague are followed to their new home by the best wishes of many friends.

will be the new rector of St. Judes.
