with the Allied Armies in France and Relgium, Oct. 24—(Hy The Associated Press)—The British have taken more plainer and more solemn than was ever before used in a communication of this kind, the president repeats his assertion that the government of Germany which instituted this war is not to be trusted. In this the president takes a position which is absolutely unassaliable."

The Times says: "The plain meaning of the president's answer is that if Germany is not now ready to lay down her arms, then the war which the civilized world is waging against her must continue until she is forced to lay them down.
