RAW SUGAR MARKET.

New York, June 1—The raw sugar market was unsettled and prices were lirregular and difficult to quote. There irregular and difficult to quote. There irregular and difficult to quote. There is seen to 5,000 bags of Costa Ricans, 2,000 San Domingoes and 3,500 Venezuelians at 3 14 cents c.l.f. which with the duty of two cents per pound would equal $5.25 for centrifugal duty paid, while 7,500 bags of Porto Ricans, free of duty and 7,700 bags of Cubas from store, with the old duty of one cent per pound already paid, sold at $4.95 for centrifugal.

Raw sugar futures opened easier and showed declines of ten to 13 points under renewed liquidation but rallied on covering, regaining half the early loss. Prices at midday were 4 to 5 points lower. Refined was steady at $6.30 to $6.86 for fine granulated. There was only a light inquiry reported. Refined futures were easier and five points lower under light trade selling.
