The Halifax Ball in Honor of the Viceroy. (From Saturday's Chronicle. The Provincial Ball to His Excellent and the Countess, came off last night in the Province Building, and was very successful. About 250 persons were pro sent. The apartments assigned for the festivities were handsomely decorated and presented a very brilliant appearance. The guests, entering from the Granville Street side, found that the staircase leading to the offices below had disappeared, and instead there was a colction of rich flowers from the Horticultural Society's Gardens, tastefully arranged by Mr. Hutton, presenting a beau tiful appearance and filling the air with their fragrance. Above the flowers was the word "Welcome," in gas jets. Passing up the carpeted stairway, and through the hall, through lines of growing flowers and by pillars entwined with bunting and evergreens, the ante-room of the Legislative Council Chamber -now handsomely furnished as a reception room-was reached. The Legislative Council Chamber was the ball-room and a finer one could scarcely be desired. The iron railings, throne, cushioned seats, &c., had been removed, and of the ordinary fittings of the chamber none remained except the life-size portraits on the wall. Messrs. McEwan & Co. undertook the decoration of the room, and while the decoration of the room, and while keeping in view simplicity made the room look beautiful indeed, under the bright light of scores of gas jets, and more beautiful when filled with the elite of Halifax society. The walls were hung with white calico relieved by pink stripes, and surmounted at intervals by graceful fecters of tapletans each having in the stoons of tarlatans, each having in the centre the letter "D" in gold. Flowers and evergreens were disposed about the and evergreens were disposed about the roomwhereverthey could add to the beauty of the scene without obstructing the dancers. The windows were removed from the centre of the South side, and a temporary apartment built outside for the accommodation of the 87th band, which was to furnish the music. The Legisla tive Library, entrance to which was obtained from the east end of the ball-room was set apart as a refreshment room was set apart as a refreshment room.

Over the ordinary entrance to the Library and facing the entrance to the building, the Coat of Arms and Motto of Lord Dufferin were placed, and the hall and stairway were decorated with a nail and stairway were decorated with a profusion of flags, bunting and flowers.

The Speaker's room, between the staircase and the Assembly Room, was elegantly fitted up for the exclusive use of The "red benches" were removed to make room for the tables, of which there were three lines, the two outer ones being connected in a circular form at the head—the place usually occupied by the Speaker's chair. A profusion of flags tastefully disposed gave the room quite a pleasing appearance, and the caterer, Mr. Saunders, spread a superb table. Apartments on an upper story were assigned for dressing rooms, &c. The Earl and Countess arrived at 10 o'clock, and were received at the entrance by a guard of honor from the 87th Regi-ment. Dancing commenced immediately, and was kept up until 1 o'clock when the party went to supper, after which dancing was resumed and continued until about 3 Protestants Massacred while at Worship in San Pedro, Mexico. (Prom La Vos Publica of Matameres.) In the town of Zaragoza there has been committed one of those crimes at which tion. On the 6th of last month about thirty Protestants of both sexes were en gaged in worship on the street of San Pedro. Suddenly they were called to the door of their church. The citizen Julian door of their church. The citizen Julian Hernandez went forth and opened the door to those who were calling, when a band of assassins fell upon him with their daggers leaving him dead in the act. They mortally wounded the citizens Pablo Apolonio Cortes and Francisco Carvajal. They then beat all the rest and broke up all the furniture there was in the church. Theypout out the light and maltreated and violated the women.

This iniquitous crime, without example in our religious history, has remained without punishment by the Government of Puebla. The Protestant citizens petitioned for protection from the police, and of Puebla. The Protestant citizens petitioned for protection from the police, and this was denied, and they were left in the hands of a furious band of fanatics, frantic in their harbarity, to add another crime to their actions. Many suppose that this crime has been permitted by the Government of Puebla and the traitors to the country who form its support, because justice has been denied to the citizens who were assaulted, while the bandits and red-handed assassins have been left free. BOOTS & SHOES What has passed in Puebla is without a name. This Government has laid aside the mask, and has committed itself to every kind of excess. It has trampled every kind of excess. It has trampled upon the law and sentenced a society to death. If the general Government does not apply a remedy to the situation in Puebla, it will be the duty of the other States to form an alliance and to liberate the people from barbarism, as Europe united against the banditti of Argel. We have written official organ.
