

"MANITOBAN" AND "CASPIAN."

12 bales GREY COTTON; 2 Medium Dark Prints; 1 Black and White; 6 cases London Made Clothing; 2 Glove Ribbed Linings; 2 Horrocks's Cottons, A; 2 do., B; 2 do., C; 1 Pillow Cottons.

EVERITT & BUTLER, WHOLESALE WAREHOUSE, 55 and 57 King street.

OAK AND PITCH PINE TIMBER

For Ship Building purposes, constantly on hand. Also WHITE PINE, BIRCH, &c., &c. R. A. GREGORY, Office—FOOT OF SIMONS STREET.

DR. J. E. GRIFITH, Dentist.

Office, corner German and Duke Streets, OPPOSITE VICTORIA HOTEL.

MARITIME WAREHOUSING AND DOCK COMPANY!

Storage in Bond or Free. Cash Advances. On all descriptions of Merchandise. BANK STERLING CREDITS granted to Importers.

JAMES D. O'NEILL, MANUFACTURER OF OIL-TANNED LARRIGANS!

Women's, Misses' and Children's BOOTS and SHOES. IN SERGE, KID AND GRAIN LEATHERS.

MISPECK MILLS, - - - St. John, N. B.

HOMESPUNS,

All Wool Twilled Flannels and Tweeds! ALL AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES!

COTTON WARPS.

Buffalo ROBES!

Direct from Saskatchewan. They request Customers who were disappointed last year to place their orders at once, as the quantity being limited, the Skins will be distributed rapidly.

T. R. JONES & CO., 49 King Street.

Skates. Skates. C. G. BERRYMAN'S, McCullough's Building, Market Square.

Christmas and New Year's. 1874-75. Will be celebrated this year by J. & A. McMillan.

Corks. Corks. 1 BALLY Paper Corks, 1 Bale Small Corks, 1 Bale Large Corks.

Cognac Brandy. N Bhd, gr-corks and cases, ex British Queen from Charlevoix.

Flour. Flour. 500 BLS Howland's Extra, 100 BLS Albion do.

The Daily Tribune.

J. L. STEWART, EDITOR. WEDNESDAY EVENING, DEC. 30.

Wages as an Elevator. Travelers in a strange land, and people at a distance, are too apt to base generalities on isolated instances.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

Everybody will be glad to hear that Canada and the United States have agreed to an international postal arrangement that abolishes the double rate.

LOCALS. For advertisements of WANTED, LOST, FOUND, FOR SALE, RENEWED, or TO LET, see Auction column.

New Advertisements. Advertisers must send in their favors before 12 o'clock, noon, in order to insure their appearance in this list.

Amusements. Leo's Opera House. Zoological Exhibition— Dan Ducello.

Card of Thanks— Wm Nannary. Geo Robertson. Mahogany do. Cake, etc.— F A DeWolf.

Public Notice— James I. Robinson. Bankrupt Stock— E H Lester.

Enamelled Ornola Frames at Notman's. Thermometer—at noon to-day—30°.

A Social in the Union Street Congregational Church, last evening, was a very pleasant affair.

The chimney of McClaskey's house at the corner of Sheffield and Sydney streets caught fire last night, and caused an alarm from Box 42.

The Firemen's Division holds its third public meeting in Temperance Hall, King street, this evening.

Speeches, music and readings to entertain the company, by prominent members of the division.

The R. D. McArthur's stock of Havana cigars is very large and well selected.

A diamond pin—value $100—was raffled at the Box 42 buy cake, supper.

The winner was Mr. F. A. Jones, of Barnes' Hotel. It is but a few weeks since that Mr. Barnes won a diamond ring.

"Woman is Coming," in the person of Miss Lillian S. Elverson, is the evening.

It is said that the lady lecturer is the best illustration of the subject she discusses that has ever appeared in public.

Photographs don't do her justice. If her photograph don't do her justice, she is a very handsome woman.

The door of Mr. M. C. Barbour's store, Prince William st., was found open at an early hour this morning.

Nothing has been missed. The Catholic Church Social, last evening, was very successful.

The music, readings and recitations were appreciated by a good audience.

After two days of very mild weather it turned cold last night, and the mercury indicated several degrees below zero.

The New Dominion Manufactory, 120 Prince William st., is one of the very best plants in which to buy cake, supper and confectionery.

All kinds, plain and fancy, of the very best quality, and warranted pure and wholesome, are kept on hand in large quantities.

These are made on the premises and are much superior to imported goods of the same class.

Beacon Lodge, No. 12, I. O. O. F., last evening elected the following officers: John Collins, N. G.; Charles Lee, Y. M.; R. G. Gilman, R. S.; John Paisley, P. M.; S. R. Barnes, T. S.

The officers of Carleton Union Lodge, No. 8, E. A. M., are: J. Collins, Lodge, S. S.; Samuel K. Wilson, S. S.; E. J. Sheldon, Organist; William Baskin, D. of C.; Edward Woodworth, I. G.; James H. Eagles, Tyler.

REDDER'S GERMAN SNOW.—The German Catarrh Snuff surpasses all other preparations yet discovered for the permanent cure of Catarrh, Headache, and all nervous pains.

Les's Opera House. Mr. and Mrs. Holmes, late of Mr. Nannary company, have been engaged at the Opera House and will appear for the first time in the grand opera.

Acquainted with the Gold and Oval Frames at Notman's.

Academy of Music Theatre. Last evening the season closed by a benefit to Mr. Nannary.

Another Box.—Give me another box of that German Catarrh Snuff, said a gentleman, as he entered one of our Drug stores last evening.

Portland Police Court. Jane Hill went to the station drunk. She is an old offender, and was sent to the penitentiary for two months on the charges of drunkenness and vagrancy.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Portland Police Court. The man who hurls not the warning of pain or suffering, which always precedes maladies, often becomes, through neglect, the victim of incurable disease.

Crying Wolf. Many people in Portland consider the policemen paid for the express purpose of waiting on them and settling their family disturbances.

Exchange unchanged. Gold opened at 114; been 114; now 111.

Wind N. W., light, clear. Ther. 26°. Wind N. W., fresh, clear. Ther. 21°.

Wind W., fresh, clear. Ther. 12°. Consols 91 1/2 for money; 91 1/2 for account.

Corn 59 1/2 a 40s; Cotton ester, uplands 7 1/2; Orleans 7 1/2; Pork 82 1/2.

"EUREKA! EUREKA!" is the cry of all after once using Reader's German Catarrh Snuff.

PURBATIVE PILLS have become a set, used necessarily with the American people. Indeed, cathartics always have been and always must be used in some form, by all mankind.

In the country, the pillar of administration has been growing in favor since pills were first made of Aloes and Rhubarb, rolled into a ball.

Their high position in the public confidence has finally been secured and fastened into permanency, by Ayer's Cathartic Pills, the most skillful combination of medicines for the diseases they are intended to cure.

Those who need pills, no longer hesitate what pills to take if they can get AYER'S PILLS—Wheeler (Via) Pills.

Ivory Miniatures in Ivory Frames at Notman's.

SEASONABLE PRESENT.—Fora McElmurray with "Nothing to Wear" would have been a happy woman if her papa or husband had sent her for a Christmas box one of those splendid "Florence Sewing Machines" which run so easily and do all kinds of sewing so nicely.

We ask all our subscribers to call at Hall and Hinton's and see the "Florence" and the "Kulter."

A Helena divine, who had spent the best part of the summer in Christianizing a Chinaman, thought he was getting along nicely, until John made a proposition to him, the other day, to "put in" with him and start a faro bank.

A newspaper having said "a very slender man asked a friend what character he had better assume at the masquerade, and go as a billiard cue," the Courier-Journal suggested as an improvement that "he might bring his legs and appear as a whip lash."

The San Francisco preachers choose popular topics, we notice: "The Great Scandal," "The Firemen's Squabble," "Sundays and Mardras—The Great Tragedy," and "The Horse Race," are advertised as titles to sermons in that city.

The Governor of Kentucky has issued a proclamation declaring that a vacancy exists in the Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and ordered an election on the 10th Monday in August, 1875.

Whether the vacancy is in the head or some other portion of the sublimity clerk's anatomy the Governor does not say.

China, even is not exempt from the modern vice of official speculation. The Prefect of Tien-Tsin, which is the port of Peking, at the head of navigation on the Peking, and distant eighty miles from the capital, has just retired, after three years' plundering, with a fortune of $750,000.

His salary was $1,500 per annum. In San Francisco lately, at the installation of a Universalist pastor, the opening prayer was delivered by a Unitarian, the Scriptures were read by a Jewish rabbi, a Presbyterian offered the second prayer, the sermon was by a Congregationalist, the installing prayer by a Presbyterian, and the charge to the pastor and address to the people by Unitarians.

Three old ladies whose united ages were 230 years recently met at the Mansfield depot, Mass. Mrs. Melinda Brown, aged 95, walked alone from her home a mile distant; Miss Roxana Jewett goes up and down stairs easily, and eats nuts and popcorn with the same teeth that Mrs. Delight Baxter who was the youngest of the trio.

Outside the door of a Boston tea store an immense teapot is kept boiling and steaming as an advertisement. The proprietor gives every purchaser a chance to guess how much the teapot will hold, and on the 1st of January he will give a chest to the best guesser. As the true measure of the metal is not known no accurate estimate can be made, and consequently the guessers have a wide range.

Shipping Notes. Steamers.—The City of Portland arrived this morning at 5.30 o'clock, having remained at Esport all night. This is her last trip for the season. The New Brunswick continues on the route, making one trip a week, leaving here every Thursday at the usual hour.

Dredged at Sea.—The ship New Lampe, reported by cable as having encountered a storm, was built at Carleton in 1864. She was registered at this port and owned by Mr. Thos. Seed, of Fleetwood, Lancashire, Eng.

Washed overboard.—The schr. Tel, Smith master, which arrived at Providence on the 24th inst., from Turks Island, reports, that on the 20th, during a gale, a seaman named Thomas Walsh, belonging to St. John's, N. F., was washed overboard and lost.

Quick Run.—The bark Minnie Cameron, of Pictou, N. S., has made the run from Pictou to Esport Island to Queens-town in 18 days.

Point Lepreau, Dec. 30, 9 a. m.—Wind N. W., strong, clear. The Schooner Landing Star, of this port, Nichol master, from Bermuda for Halifax in ballast, has put into Owl's Head with loss of sails, having encountered a heavy gale.

Merchants' Exchange. No. York, Dec. 30. Freight—Fair business in berth, inquiry chiefly for grain accommodation for which letter rates were obtained; chartering movements slow but tonnage held with confidence.

Cotton weak, uplands 1 1/2; lower to sell. Exchange unchanged. Gold opened at 114; been 114; now 111.

Wind N. W., light, clear. Ther. 26°. Wind N. W., fresh, clear. Ther. 21°.

Wind W., fresh, clear. Ther. 12°. Consols 91 1/2 for money; 91 1/2 for account.

Corn 59 1/2 a 40s; Cotton ester, uplands 7 1/2; Orleans 7 1/2; Pork 82 1/2.

"EUREKA! EUREKA!" is the cry of all after once using Reader's German Catarrh Snuff.

PURBATIVE PILLS have become a set, used necessarily with the American people. Indeed, cathartics always have been and always must be used in some form, by all mankind.

In the country, the pillar of administration has been growing in favor since pills were first made of Aloes and Rhubarb, rolled into a ball.

Their high position in the public confidence has finally been secured and fastened into permanency, by Ayer's Cathartic Pills, the most skillful combination of medicines for the diseases they are intended to cure.

Those who need pills, no longer hesitate what pills to take if they can get AYER'S PILLS—Wheeler (Via) Pills.

Ivory Miniatures in Ivory Frames at Notman's.

SEASONABLE PRESENT.—Fora McElmurray with "Nothing to Wear" would have been a happy woman if her papa or husband had sent her for a Christmas box one of those splendid "Florence Sewing Machines" which run so easily and do all kinds of sewing so nicely.

We ask all our subscribers to call at Hall and Hinton's and see the "Florence" and the "Kulter."

A Helena divine, who had spent the best part of the summer in Christianizing a Chinaman, thought he was getting along nicely, until John made a proposition to him, the other day, to "put in" with him and start a faro bank.

A newspaper having said "a very slender man asked a friend what character he had better assume at the masquerade, and go as a billiard cue," the Courier-Journal suggested as an improvement that "he might bring his legs and appear as a whip lash."

The San Francisco preachers choose popular topics, we notice: "The Great Scandal," "The Firemen's Squabble," "Sundays and Mardras—The Great Tragedy," and "The Horse Race," are advertised as titles to sermons in that city.

The Governor of Kentucky has issued a proclamation declaring that a vacancy exists in the Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and ordered an election on the 10th Monday in August, 1875.

Whether the vacancy is in the head or some other portion of the sublimity clerk's anatomy the Governor does not say.

China, even is not exempt from the modern vice of official speculation. The Prefect of Tien-Tsin, which is the port of Peking, at the head of navigation on the Peking, and distant eighty miles from the capital, has just retired, after three years' plundering, with a fortune of $750,000.

His salary was $1,500 per annum. In San Francisco lately, at the installation of a Universalist pastor, the opening prayer was delivered by a Unitarian, the Scriptures were read by a Jewish rabbi, a Presbyterian offered the second prayer, the sermon was by a Congregationalist, the installing prayer by a Presbyterian, and the charge to the pastor and address to the people by Unitarians.

Three old ladies whose united ages were 230 years recently met at the Mansfield depot, Mass. Mrs. Melinda Brown, aged 95, walked alone from her home a mile distant; Miss Roxana Jewett goes up and down stairs easily, and eats nuts and popcorn with the same teeth that Mrs. Delight Baxter who was the youngest of the trio.

Outside the door of a Boston tea store an immense teapot is kept boiling and steaming as an advertisement. The proprietor gives every purchaser a chance to guess how much the teapot will hold, and on the 1st of January he will give a chest to the best guesser. As the true measure of the metal is not known no accurate estimate can be made, and consequently the guessers have a wide range.

Shipping Notes. Steamers.—The City of Portland arrived this morning at 5.30 o'clock, having remained at Esport all night. This is her last trip for the season. The New Brunswick continues on the route, making one trip a week, leaving here every Thursday at the usual hour.

Dredged at Sea.—The ship New Lampe, reported by cable as having encountered a storm, was built at Carleton in 1864. She was registered at this port and owned by Mr. Thos. Seed, of Fleetwood, Lancashire, Eng.

Washed overboard.—The schr. Tel, Smith master, which arrived at Providence on the 24th inst., from Turks Island, reports, that on the 20th, during a gale, a seaman named Thomas Walsh, belonging to St. John's, N. F., was washed overboard and lost.

Quick Run.—The bark Minnie Cameron, of Pictou, N. S., has made the run from Pictou to Esport Island to Queens-town in 18 days.

Point Lepreau, Dec. 30, 9 a. m.—Wind N. W., strong, clear. The Schooner Landing Star, of this port, Nichol master, from Bermuda for Halifax in ballast, has put into Owl's Head with loss of sails, having encountered a heavy gale.

SOMETHING FOR CHRISTMAS!

Reduced Prices at 49 King St.

THE Subscriber has now open CLOCKS, WATCHES and Solid Silver Goods, which he will sell at a discount of 10 per cent.

Rice, Butter and Salt. 100 BALS RICE (Armenian), 25 Cents per lb.

Granulated Sugar. 100 lbs. Granulated Sugar, for sale low by GEO. S. DEFOREST.

New Brunswick FILE WORKS. THE Subscriber having opened the above premises, is prepared to Recut all kinds of Files and Reaps.

Minnesota Flour. NO FLOUR has given such entire satisfaction. Price low. 40 lbs. Family Flour.

CANADA FLOUR—Standard, Brandy-300 lbs. Howland's Choice; 500 lbs. May Flower Flour; 100 lbs. Albion Extra; 200 lbs. White Dove, for sale low.

HALL & FAIRWEATHER. 49 King Street.