NOTES OF THE MONTH.

Political Angling may be considered in full season. Opposition Anglers fishing for place have hitherto been unsuccessful—not even a bite.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer makes up his accounts, the m stakes as usual being on his own side.

The Royal Academy draw a long face at being no longer allowed by Parliament to sponge upon them. It is hoped that by removal from Trafalgar Square "Fine Art" may be invigorated, and the taste of the palette restored.

Railway bill-stickers begin their annual nuisance.

Fly Fishing.

Query.—Is a London milk walk the milky way?
