"After the Storm"

Buy War-Savings Stamps at $4.01 each as often as you can. Build up a strong investment in Government securities bearing high interest—and help to finance the Reconstruction.

Our soldiers are being disbanded and returned to civilian life, as poster picture indicates. There is urgent need for the production of more food and other supplies, as well as the means to carry our products. All these things are for Canada's good, and are essential to Prosperity.

But they necessitate the Government spending large sums of money, and this money must be borrowed at high rates of interest.

In order to keep this interest in Canada and to give EVERYONE a chance to profit by it, the loan is floated in a denomination of only $4.01, maturing on the first day of 1924, at $5.00.

In order that even the smallest savings shall share the privileges of the War-Savings Stamp plan, THRIFT Stamps may be purchased for 25 cents each, sixteen of which affixed to a Thrift Card will be exchanged for a War-Savings Stamp.

Sold Wherever You See the Sign

$5.00 for $4.01

and every dollar worth more.
$5.00 will purchase much more in 1924 than $4.01 will at present prices.

A Broken Wedding Ring

By Bertha M. Clay

full of happiness, of interest, of the beauty and glory of the passion that possessed her. She had forgotten that they would soon leave Brentwood, she had forgotten that they were going to Dene Abbey; she had forgotten everything, except that Sir Basil was near her and that she loved him. Every dream, every wish of her life was realized; there was no more to desire. She would have been quite content to lie down in the light of her great love and die. It seemed to her that all her life had been ordered for this. Now she had reached the haven of rest, never thinking that the storms in the heaven might be greater than those on the open sea.

It happens so often that a great love is lavished in vain. Sir Basil saw nothing of Leah's. He admired her exceedingly, but he never dreamed of loving her. He would have done anything for her; he had the kindly affection of a brother for her; ever since she had stood by the white lilies in the hall, in the spot where his fair young sister had died, she had to him in some measure taken that dead sister's place. He confided everything to her, told her, of all his affairs, and she told of the officers of marriage made to her, and how she had refused them all.

"Why did she refuse them?" he asked. The duchess meant to do a kindly action when she answered: "She has ideas that are peculiar for the nineteenth century; they are, I may say, obsolete."

He looked anxiously at her, she thought. "What ideas?" he asked—"If my question may be answered?" "I am sure I may answer it," said the duchess. "Miss Hatton has romantic ideas that are quite out of date. Marriage, in these days, is an arrangement. She might have been Countess of Berkeley if she had liked; but she is romantic, and will never marry until she can marry for love."

"That seems to me right," said Sir Basil. "I am glad you think so, returned the duchess, dryly. "But Miss Hatton has another theory. It is this—that for every person in this world there are one love and one lover—half souls, she calls them, if you can understand the terms. She believes that she will recognize her half soul or lover whenever she sees him."

"It is a very pretty theory," said Sir Basil. "I do not see why any one should object to it. He looked at her somewhat eagerly as he asked: "And has she met this ideal yet?" "That is a question she alone can answer. You must ask her yourself, laughed the duchess; and she smiled to herself as she thought she had given him a very plain hint.

The young baronet was far too modest to take it; that such a peerless beauty, such a wealthy heiress, should fall in love and find her ideal in him never occurred to him. If she had rejected many noble and great men, she was doubtless looking for some one higher. Yet what he had heard increased his affection and respect for her. He liked the idea of a girl who could make herself an ideal, and wait patiently until she met with it. How many would have yielded to the temptation of rank and wealth, and have forgotten the belief and aspirations of early girlhood!

"We have been here at Brentwood a month next Wednesday," said the duchess to Leah, one morning. "We go to Dene Abbey next week." Leah looked up at her with eyes that did not see. "Next week!" she repeated; and it seemed to her that the sunlight faded. Next week she would see Sir Basil no more. "I had forgotten it," she said slowly.

Sage and Sulphur Darkens Grey Hair

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Restore Color, Gloss, and Attractiveness.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur properly compounded brings back the natural color and luster to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

FRIENDS THOUGHT HE WOULD DIE

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Conquered Dyspepsia and Restored His Health.

MR. ROBERT NEWTON.

Little Bras d'Or, C.B. "I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation for years. I had pain after eating, belching gas, constant headaches, and did not sleep well at night. I lost so much weight—going from 185 pounds to 146 pounds—that I became alarmed and saw several doctors who, however, did me no good. Finally, a friend told me to try 'Fruit-a-tives'."

In a week, there was improvement. The constipation was corrected; and soon I was free of pain, headaches and that miserable feeling that accompanies Dyspepsia. I continued to take this splendid fruit medicine and now I am well, strong and vigorous". ROBERT NEWTON, 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

A Child Doesn't Laugh and Play If Constipated

LOOK, MOTHER! IS TONGUE COATED, BREATH FEVERISH AND STOMACH SOUR?

'California Syrup of Figs' can't harm, tender stomach, liver, bowels

A laxative to-day, saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour. Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of 'California Syrup of Figs', then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is often all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company". You feel fine in a few moments. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head, will clear and you can breathe freely. No more dullness, headache; no hawking, snuffling, mucous discharges or dryness; no struggling for breath at night.

Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly. It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable.
